Neighborhood News And Notes Of Personal Interest

Silver Anniversary Tomorrow For Mr. And Mrs. John Butler

A well known Shavertown couple, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Butler, Ridge Street, Shavertown, will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary on Friday, April 15.

The couple were married in the rectory of St. Mary's Church, Wilkes Barre by Rev. J. O'Neill. Mrs. Butler is the former Margaret Ann Thomas, Kingston, and Mr. Butler is a Wilkes-Barre native.

Following their marriage, they moved to Trucksville and several years later purchased the home in Shavertown where they have since resided.

They are the parents of two children, Mrs. Peter Luke, Wappinger Falls, N.Y., and John Jr., a senior at Dallas High School.

Mr. Butler is serving his 21st year as scoutmaster extraordinary of Boy Scout Troop 232, St. Therese's Church. Each year he has taken his explorers on a canoe trip down the Susquehanna, directed their efforts at the Back Mountain Library Auction and other civic endeavors, and in several incidents engaged in acts of rescue.

A member of the Ushers Club of St. Therese's and its Holy Name Society, he finds time for wood-working and gymnastics, his first love, however, being his family and the youth of the community. He has been employed by the SCM Corporation for the past 26 years.

Mrs. Butler, a friendly person who spends a great deal of time doing for others and many organizations, is an excellent cook, according to her husband, with sewing, knitting and antiques, her chief hobbies when her beloved grandchildren are not with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke and children will join the family for the special occasion.

SALLY ANN SILLMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffith Sillman, Sadler, Street, Aberdeen, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Sally Ann, to David Paul LaBar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul LaBar, Elizabeth Street, Dallas.

Miss Sillman will graduate from Towson State College in June, and has been appointed to the faculty of Wakefield Elementary School, Bel Air, Md., for the coming school year.

Mr. LaBar is a graduate of Bloomsburg State College, and is a member of the faculty of Franklin Jr. High School, Reisterstown, Md. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Barbara Ann Hennebaul Selects Bridal Attendants

Miss Barbara Ann Hennebaul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hennebaul, 131 Parrish Street, Dallas, who will become the bride of Raymond R. Strazdus, son of August Strazdus, East Dallas, and the late Mrs. Strazdus, has selected her bridal attendants.

The wedding will take place at Lady of Victory Chapel, Harveys Lake, on Saturday morning, April 23, at 11 a.m.

Rev. John A. Bergamo will perform the double ring ceremony and Mrs. Tillie Loveland will be organist.

Miss Frances Wentzel has been chosen as maid of honor for Miss Hennebaul and bridesmaids will be Misses Sandra and Karen Strazdus, sisters of the bridegroom-elect. Miss Margaret Hennebaul will serve as junior bridesmaid and flower girl will be Patricia Hennebaul, both sisters of the bride-elect.

Richard Strazdus will serve as best man for his brother and ushers will be Walter Hennebaul, brother of the bride-elect, and Norman Weaver, Michael Mesaris, cousin of the bridegroom-elect, will be junior usher.

A reception will follow at O'Connell's Twin Lakes.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and is employed at Linear Corporation, Dallas. Mr. Strazdus, an alumnus of Dallas High School, is employed with Fisher Tank Corporation, Philadelphia.

Book Club To Meet Monday In Annex

The Book Club will meet in Back Mountain Memorial Library Annex Monday afternoon at 1:30, its first session since December. Members are asked to note the time, a change from the original 2 p.m.

Mrs. Stanley Davies Jr. will offer material accumulated by Mrs. Betty Schechter on "How an Author Uses a Library". Mrs. Schechter herself, who had expected to read her paper in person, finds that circumstances prevent her from doing so.

Members of the Hospitality Committee are Mrs. Merrill Faegenburg, Mrs. Edward Schellenberg, and Mrs. W. H. Mainwaring.

Mrs. George Montgomery will preside.
