Jots From Dot

Dear Folks,
Last night we had a man whose leg was completely skinned by a truck wheel rolling over him or more likely pushing him along the road. Dr. Olson wrapped the skin around like a jacket and sewed it up and results were to be seen.
Sunday we had a wedding at Songolo of one of our students to the daughter of our old nurse Taulanda. We were invited to the feast given by the bride's family, very nice.
Conference At Leopoldville
Hugh Frazer and I came to Leo to a conference with Melvin Blake, the Executive Secretary from the Board. He has more authority than he has had before and seemed much more enthusiastic and definite about everything. Several people from Central Congo were there besides the people who work in Leopoldville. I stayed at Jack Reitz, John Hughlett, I stayed at Culp last night and had breakfast there. Am going to see the Inspector to see if I can get last year's diplomas out of him. He's had them in his office to be signed for months.
P. S. The student who broke the mirror finally got himself put out for a few other things — rather he got mad one day and quit and nobody coaxed him to stay!
February 21
Oh yes, I am all out of Polaroid film. And people seem to have stopped sending hymnals and we don't have enough yet. Boats are slow — I am still getting Christmas cards.
Love, Dottie
(Note: Papa sent her some more Polaroid right away! And more hymnals will go when churches here get new ones!)

Holy Name Presents Plaque To Father Kane

The recent Father-Son Communion Breakfast of the Holy Name Society of Gate of Heaven and Our Lady of Victory Parishes was marked by two noteworthy events. The Very Rev. Lane Kilburn, C.S.C., President of King's College, gave an inspiring address. His topic was "Christianity and Today's Problems," and he described some of the challenges that confront all sectors of society and the Christian's obligation to find solutions.
This address was followed by the presentation of a plaque to the Rev. Francis A. Kane, Pastor, as a token of appreciation of the Society for his many years of guidance and help as moderator. Father Kane recently relinquished this position and appointed Rev. John Bergamo as Moderator.
Louis Goeringer, former President of the Society, made the presentation address, and is shown at the left on the photograph. Father Kane is at the right. Bruno Marascio, Acting President, was Chairman of the Breakfast, and Paul Williams, former Secretary, was Co-Chairman.
