Miss Lois Carol Frantz Is Bride Of Lee H. Schreiner, New Jersey

A lovely spring wedding took place at Clinton Methodist Church, Fairfield, N.J., on Sunday, May 1 at 4:30 p.m., when Miss Lois Carol Frantz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Frantz, Fairfield, N.J., became the bride of Lee H. Schreiner, son of Mrs. Margie Schaffer, Caldwell, N. J. Rev. John Crawford, pastor and Rev. James Umbra, pastor of Wansamie Methodist Church, cousin of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Hugh Klinetob, Apalachin, N.Y., aunt of the bride was soloist and Mrs. Grace Smith, Little Falls, N.J., played the wedding music. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long sleeve princess style street length gown of white chantilly lace over taffeta. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a satin headband with seed pearl trim. She carried a white Bible, gift of her pastor, which was covered with a spray of white rosebuds, baby breath and ivy centered with a white orchid. Miss Sally Hildebrand, Boonton, N.J., was bridesmaid and selected an aquamarine street length gown of taffeta with matching lace jacket and pill box hat with short veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of aqua tinted carnations and white rosebuds. Allen Morgan, Hanover, N.J., served as best man. The mother of the bride chose a pink lace dress over taffeta with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink rosebuds and baby breath. The couple spent Sunday night at the Dallas Motel and visited friends in the Dallas area. They are residing at 507 Caldwell Terrace Apts. Caldwell, N.J.

"Spring Comes to Wyoming Valley"

What is Spring in Wyoming Valley?
It's cherry blossom time . . .
it's sweethearts hand-in-hand.
It's baseball in the vacant lot . . .
hop-sotch and jump rope.
It's the Fiesta . . .
it's the circus . . .
it's an artist's hey-day!

This is your cordial invitation to enter the WYOMING NATIONAL BANK SPRING ART SHOW

Watch the world being reborn this Spring . . . and capture it on canvas . . . for the Wyoming National Bank's Spring Art Show! The show theme . . . "Spring Comes to Wyoming Valley." Paintings will be received the week of May 23 and will be on display at the bank's Wilkes-Barre Office, June 6 through 30th. Valuable prizes will be awarded!
