

Patricia Kanasky Becomes Bride Of Richard W. Bronson Recently

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kamasky, Oak Hill, Dallas, announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Patricia to Richard W. Bronson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hale Bronson, Pikes Creek, in Our Lady of Victory Chapel, Harveys Lake.

Rev. John A. Bergamo performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Marianne Kern was organist.

Donna Bronson, sister of the bridegroom was maid of honor, Bonnie Gennetts was bridesmaid.

Frederick Bronson acted as best man and ushers were William Kanasky, brother of the bride and H. James Bronson, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza, fashioned with empire bodice enhanced with seed pearls and crystal heading, bell shaped sleeve of chantilly lace. The modified bell-shaped skirt was complemented with a detachable train, lace. Her veil of illusion fell from a crown of organza buds and sprays of lilies of the valley. She carried an arrangement of carnations and gladioli, centered with white cymbidium orchids.

Maid of honor and bridesmaids wore identical gowns of green silk organza with modified bell-shaped skirts. The bodice featured blue and green floral embroidery and the waistlines were complemented by blue satin bows. They wore matching green head pieces, petal cloches and sprays of lilies of the valley and carried tinted carnations and gladioli centered with green cymbidium orchids.

Mother of the bride chose a three piece suit of oyster white silk shantung, pill box hat of blue and green flowers. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of ivory cymbidium orchids.

Mother of the bridegroom selected a sheath dress of pink ribbon lace, rose flowered hat, matching accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Twin Lakes after which the couple left for New York State and California.

The bride is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School. She attended College Misericordia, Dallas.

The bridegroom, also a graduate of Lake-Lehman, is a member of the United States Navy. He recently completed Nuclear Power School and will be stationed in Da Nang, Vietnam.
