Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shouldice To Be Honored At Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shouldice, Huntsville Road, Shavertown, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on June 17.

The former Ruth Walters, Meeker and Mr. Shouldice were married at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Kingston, by Rev. R. Menges. Attendants were Margaret Walters Robertson, sister of the bride and Walter Shouldice, brother of the groom.

Residents of Jackson, where Mr. Shouldice was born, the couple were forced to move to Meadow Lake when the Correctional Institute was built in the township. They have resided on Huntsville Road for the past six years.

Mr. Shouldice is a bricklayer and is in the contracting business. He has erected a number of homes in this area. Together he and his wife enjoy flower gardening. They are members of Huntsville Methodist Church.

They are the parents of six children, Mrs. Lynn Coates, Plymouth; Robert, a 1966 graduate of Lycoming College; Thomas, a sophomore at Lycoming; Dianne, a senior at Wyoming Seminary; Amy and Christopher, at home. There is also one grandson.

In honor of their anniversary on Tuesday, they were presented with a sterling silver coffee and tea service by their children.

There will be an Open House on Sunday at their home from 2 to 6 p.m. Friends and relatives are welcome.

Mrs. Robert Maturi To Head Odds & Ends

A delightful dinner meeting was held recently by the Women of Kiwanis at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maturi on Sutton Road.

After the dinner, which was expertly planned and served by Mrs. John Marsh and her committee, Mrs. Thomas Kreidler, president, called the meeting to order.

Mrs. Robert Maturi, chairman of Odds and Ends Booth of the Library Auction, introduced her co-chairman, Mrs. Claire Troxell. She urged the members to give them all their support and co-operation in this project. She also announced that anyone finding anything in the process of spring cleaning can bring the articles to the barn at any time. The small room to the left as you enter the barn is reserved for Odds and Ends.

Mrs. Carl Goeringer and Mrs. Robert Methot volunteered to price the articles and help is needed in this department. Anyone desiring to assist can contact either of these two ladies.

A short report on the Spring inter-club luncheon held recently at Irem Temple Country Club was given by Mrs. John Blase.

Mrs. Kreidler told the club about the Strawberry Festival the Dallas Kiwanians are sponsoring June 25, at Dallas Junior High School. It was decided the Women of Kiwanis have a baked goods booth at this event. Homemade pies, cakes, bread, cookies and candy are needed and each member is to supply at least two of these items. Chairman of the Bake Sale is Mrs. Sherman Harter with Mrs. Leo Corbett and Mrs. John Blase as co-chairmen.

Birthdays gifts brought by Mrs. Merrill Faegenburg and Mrs. Helen Rice were presented to Mrs. Ernest Gay and Mrs. Thomas Kreidler.

Meeting was adjourned after which cards and games were enjoyed by all. Members present: Mesdames Alfred Ackerson, Donald Anthony, John Blase, Harold Brobst, Leo Corbett, Leon Emanuel, Merrill Faegenburg, Warren Dadurka, Franklin Gager, Ernest Gay, Carl Goeringer, Sherman Harter, Edward Hartman, James Huston, Mitchell Jenkins, Thomas Kreidler, David Kunkle, Paul Laux, Harry Lefko, John Marsh, Robert Maturi, George McCutcheon, Robert Methot, Robert Parry, Harry Peiffer, Helen Rice, Vincent Roman, George Seeley, George Thomas, Clara Troxell, Louis Wagner.

Proceeds of the past four Festivals were used to furnish the new Nurses' Home, and this year, they will help finance the many improvements and renovations with the new addition to the Hospital.

Opening ceremonies of the Festival will start at 11 a.m. in front of the Nurses' Home and will include the presentation of the Queen and her attendants by Mrs. Abram Nesbitt, II, and the crowning of the Queen by Miss Thelma DeWitt, Director of Nursing, Student Nurses selected Miss Dale Lynn Suttill of Forty Fort as Queen, and Miss Nancy Daily of Kingston, and Miss Rosanne Cobb of Wilkes-Barre as her attendants, all of whom are seniors, and who will be on the grounds throughout the day.

Among the many booths to open will be: Parcel Post, Brie-A-Brae, Jewelry, Kolorie Kounter, Snack Bar, Lemonade and Ice Cream, Old Country Store, Mrs. Harold Hoover and Mrs. Russell Race, co-chairman, Festival Bakery, Mrs. Charles Perkins, chairman and Mrs. Fred Eck, co-chairman, Needles and Stitches, Mrs. William F. Cain, chairman, Gift Box, Garden Mart, Mrs. Abram Nesbitt, II, chairman and Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hutchison, Mrs. Jane Schooley, and Mrs. F. J. Salada, co-chairmen, Multi-purpose Bags, Antiques, Mrs. Ray Shiber and Mrs. Harold Shappelle, co-chairmen, Book Shelf, Good-as-new Clothing, Monogramming, and Bronze Silhouettes.

Of particular interest to children are the Orange Tree, Fish Pond, Toys for tots, Kiddie Corner, and Clown Puppets. The "Big Splash", a dunking pool for bathing beauties and the Midway will provide fun for all ages. Mr. and Mrs. Abram Nesbitt, III will manage the Midway.

Mrs. Charles Perkins reminds Auxiliary members that the Baked Goods booth is not designated to any one Branch, and hopes that each member will bake her particular specialty and keep the booth well supplied until the close of the Festival.

Donations for the various booths may be taken to the Nurses' Home on June 14 if possible. Mrs. Harold Shappelle will pick up antiques if she is called, and Mrs. Abram Nesbitt, II would appreciate plants or flowers brought early June 15th.

Mrs. Calvin Seward would like returns on Bonanza Books made to her by June 14th, if possible. Workers are asked to wear their red and white striped aprons if available.

Mrs. Leon Beisel is Festival treasurer, assisted by Mrs. William Thomas. Mrs. William Cragle, is Festival co-chairman with Mrs. Joseph Marsh, and Mrs. Charles Maxwell is Publicity Chairman.

Everyone is invited to attend and enjoy this 5th annual Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Festival, in which all 634 members of these eight Branches of the Auxiliary participate: Rural, Shavertown, Luzerne, Plymouth, Edwardsville, Forty Fort, Dorranceton, and Kingston.
