

EAST DALLAS

June seems to be the month for not only weddings, but for birthday parties also. This is a double birthday party that was staged Tuesday evening, June 7, in honor of twins' Judy and Jimmy Martin's 10th. birthday. Guests were: Alberta and Jack Cook, their children, Linda and Johnny; Grandpa Alex Cook; Warren and Marilla Stanton, children, Bob and Carl; Priscilla and Laing Coolbaugh, daughter, Cathy; Grandparents Harry and Florence Martin; The guests of honor; their parents Harry and Beatrice Martin and brother Billie.

Mrs. Pearl Stanton and grandson Leslie Kline, of Bellfonte, spent Monday and Tuesday of last week with her son Warren and family. They surprised the family by driving up in a new Ford Pickup Truck.

Mrs. Hamilton Clewom has returned to her home on Roushy Plot after being a patient in Nesbitt Hospital from Sunday till Friday of last week.

We are glad to know that Reuel-Lasher has also returned to his home on Demunds Road, after having been a patient in Geisinger Medical Center.

East Dallas folks wish to extend their sympathy to the family of Mrs. Annabelle Compton.

QUILTING PARTY
Mrs. Gladys Brace was welcomed back by the quilters of East Dallas church, when they met at the home of Mrs. Harry Martin last Tuesday (a week ago). Ladies last week were Myra Carlin; Florence Martin; Gladys Brace and me (Irene). We certainly could use more help if any other ladies could take the time to help. They do not realize the fine times we have, working together. We were especially glad to have Agnes Sidorek on the mend and was able to walk up and join us at lunch.

Mrs. Lillian Hildebrandt, Dallas, and daughter, Mrs. Charlotte Payne of Loyallville, visited with their cousin, Mrs. Myrtle Miller, Saturday evening.

The Misses Ruth Higgins and Elaine Guilford, Ransom Road, will leave Friday, 17, for Ocean City, with the Youth for Christ Group, to be gone one week. I understand there are ten or twelve going from this area, what a satisfying feeling to know there are these teen agers interested in Christian work. We wish there were many more.

George Higgins, Philadelphia, visited his father and brother, Samuel and Matthew Higgins last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Higgins, Ransom Road, will drive to Drexel University, Saturday 18, to bring son Kenneth home, for vacation, as he has climaxed his first year there, where he is studying Mechanical Engineering. Enroute home they will attend an "open house" in honor of Mrs. Higgins' nephew, David Frank, in Haverstown, who is graduating also.

While on Higgin's family, I (along with others I am sure) was very disappointed, not to read that Ruth Higgins was organist at the senior high Baccalaureate Service and the Graduation exercises. She had put in many hours of practise and did a wonderful job I thought. She certainly deserves a lot of credit.

Friends of Missionary Sallye B. Higgins; sister of Sam Higgins, will be interested to know that she is not in the best of health. She is suffering from a parasite in the liver, which is hard to treat as various tests and experiments have to be made, any one wishing to drop her a card of cheer, may address it to, P.O. Box 1414 Mwanza, Tanzania, East Africa.

Janice Hislop, three and a half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hislop, Orange, is coming along nicely, after having her finger caught in a bicycle couple chain; which cut it off to the first knuckle.
