Dallas Rotary Club Installs New Officers

Installation of officers for the seated: Doc Jeter, Treasurer 1966- 1965-66; Carl Henderson, Director; and excitement. Successful hitters chairman of the general drawing.

for his life in a Florida Hospital.

Free parking space will be avail-

all comers busy.

popcorn and lollipops.

Secretary, 1966-67. Pictured left to right, first row, Second row: Jack Sanley, Pres.

year 1966-67 for Dallas Rotary took 67; Wallter Mohr, Gov. District 741, Hanford Eckman, Director; Stefan to having welcomed it to the barnplace June 30th at Irem Temple 1966-67; Danny Chapman, Pres., Hellersperk, Director; eMrton Jones, 1966-67; Harry Goeringer, Jr., Di- Secretary of District 741, 1966-67; Following the installation dancing rector; Dr. Stan Hozempa, Vice Dr. Lester Jordan, Past District was from 9 to 12 o'clock with music Pres. 1966-67, and Williard Seaman, Governor and Inducting Officer.

photo by Kozemchak

Harveys Lake Firemen Plan Fair Lake Landfill Open Three Days Weekly Food And Fun To Highlight Event

JIM MCCAFFREY

Plans are nearly completed for Rattler Bites the Firemen's Fair sponsored by Ben L. J. Jenkins Daniel C. Roberts Fire Company Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 2, 3 and 4 at Old Sandy

Jim McCaffrey is general chairman.

Action will begin each evening driving a jeep to a plane when he continuing until approximately noticed a branch caught in the to correct a dangerous condition at Austion, distributing her chance the Marvin Hoppes family. The approximately noticed a branch caught in the to correct a dangerous condition at Austion, distributing her chance the Marvin Hoppes family. 11:30 p. m., with a Ham Supper wheels. As he dislodged it, a rattle- Ketcham Corners by eliminating the served by the Ladies Auxiliary and snake coiled in the leaves struck arm which swings toward the Martz cium chloride to combat the dust. a small horse owned by Mr. Hoppes scheduled as the Kickoff, in the him on the thumb. basement of the Lutheran Church just across the highway.

chased from any member of the port.

The landfill site at Harveys Lake is open Mondays and Saturdays organization or the restaurant at from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., and Wed-Old Sandy Bottom. Reserve by nesdays from 12 noon to 7 p.m. Fairs are made for fun, and plenty is planned with one particular Vacant Office attraction "Hit The Bottles Wih A Baseball" sure to make for laughs Revenue Loss will see the firemen and their The appointment of a new Justice friends fall into a fish pond. Jim McCaffrey has already signed up expected soon.

for his turn and many familiar faces are expected to go fishing. An was signed by the supervisors and steel die. abundance of other games will keep submitted to the office of County Commissioner James B. Post several There will be a Bake Sale, Bamonths ago. A letter received from bottom of the page tells the story zaar and refreshment stand featur-Sen. Richard Snyder to Fred Lam- of the 1966 Auctin. ing homemade sugar corn, buttered oreaux, board chairman, stated no A drawing for an RCA 21 inch Color Television Console valued at ton $500 will also be held on the last night of the Fair. William Hoblak is that he belived action would be at an astonishing figure. taken soon on the candidate favored by the official family in Dallas A former Trucksville resident, Harry Thompson, supported in Ben J. Jenkins, has been fighting several quarters.

Much revenue is being lost by Mr. Jenkins, employed at one of the township through lack of a the large airfields in Florida, was justice of the peace.

unit and on the critical list at Orman reports a fine menu and plen- since the accident a week ago, but Highland Drive and Grandview Ave- members were present at the meetty of food. Tickets may be pur- is showing improvement at this re- nue. The extremely dry weather ing Wednesday evening at Dallas | The drought is believed respon- way plan which would see all di- joint board since the first of the R. Dean Shaver presided over a has the men busy spreading cal- Junior High School.

Auction Notes

at the Twentieth Annuel Auction.

John Vivian emerges as the comic relief on the auction block moving mother, let go the tears he had about the platform with the verve from their parents and hoisted to and the wry grace of a Fred Astaire. the auction block for identification.

classic, worthy of being stuffed and down wailing. mounted

It takes a good bit of savoir-faire to sell an Autopsy.

The wiglet certificate was sold twice. Both parties want the wiglet, Knotholes in the uneven grain had neither wants her money back. (A been allowed to express themselves wiglet is that bit of hair that wo- as eyes. Went like hot-cakes. men pin to the top of their heads after they have been in swimming some beautiful bedding plants. A and have not had time to do any- flat of tuberous begonias sold out thing about the results.)

The zombie appeared in a Sauna The piglet came from Hillside griddle. Farms, gelded to insure against reproduction of the famous Berkshire line. It protested loudly. The Auc- mainstay of the crowd. tion lost a pig some years ago, when it took off over the hill and disappeared. Nobody ever admitted

Dorothy Anderson bid in the Frantz bought the much-travelled pronto, fish platter, the second known Mary has a table that matches the tipped over under a heavy load. fish platter for historical signifi-

The anvil is already immortalized in Pillar to Post. Whether Jim Mc- daughter-in-law's father, from New Coog's finger will ever be the same, Jersey. nobody knows.

There has been a suggestion that of the Peace for Dallas Township is the anvil remain as an Auction The petition of William Hersh purchasers stamped into it with a Five More Bears such petition had ben sent to the draw as large a crowd as usual. the past week. Senate by Governor William Scran- Committee members gathered in Mrs. Joseph Zercoe, Marcytown, Mr. Post, when contacted by this gering surplus of hot barbecued sour cherry tree Tuesday morning. paper, said he had received four chicken, which they forked into As neighbors gathered, Mr. Bruin petitions for the vacancy caused by cardboard boxes and sold. The re- made his descent and lumbered the death of George Prater that freshment booth had a special on away to the forest, casting backnone were now in his office and chicken platters the following day, ward glances at the delicacy he was Georgia Besecker, back from the Township. A strong contender is Pittsburgh area with her family, got man was startled last week to see everything she wanted from the washstand, two maple chairs. She garden path. She called for her missed out on the dry sink, awarded to Shirley Evans in Wilkes-Barre. ed into the woods.

Farm. This wil straighten out the They are also grading other sectors. and the animal ripped out his chain

From an autopsy to a zombie, and books on the antique doll and colfrom a piglet to a wiglet, Library lecting in advance, ,before taking Auctioneers sold everything in sight off for England.

Small children were separated His pitch on the Autopsy (strict- One little boy, upon seeing his ly at your convenience) was a been holding in, and was lifted

> The art booth was an art booth only this year, no crafts. Nice pictures marked at fairly high figures. Some shingle work was notable. Plants and Produce Booth had in a hurry. Big reduction at night. The baked goods had an innova-Bath, draped discreetly in towels. tion, hot Welsh cokies, baked on a Hot dogs, hamburgs, coffee, at the crowded refreshment stand, the Grandma's cartwheel cookies were snapped up in jig time at the Dallas Post stand. Frank Jacksn's hand-made birdfeeders sold out.

Stefan Hellersperk redecorated lamb for $15.50, adding it to her the ticket booth in gay Polish decollection of dogs, cats, birds, and signs. A complication was that for a time the ticket booth could not be located. This year, Myra says, it In the Antiques department, one is going to stay in the Barn, and item is off the lists forever. Mary if out on loan, is to be returned

Too many kids again in the spottreasure procured from an ex-slave ter's look-outs, had to be reduced to after the War Between the States. two apiece. Last year, one tower merchandise to bidders.

The eight-column spread at the Sighted In Area

Several bears made their appear-the Barn afterwards with a stag- reported a good sized fellow in her forced to leave behind. No bears have been here before.

Out in Loyalville, Mrs. Lewis Crisa large black bear coming down her husband, and the animal disappear-

A short distance away, a mother Dallas Township Supervisors plan ducks in a row long before the bear and two cubs were by pearance of the animals frightened He has been in the intensive care Y and give motorists clearer vision. All requests for building permits and tore down the highway, falling Crews have resurfaced the Old must be obtained from Albert and lacerating his legs as he ran. Miss Pauline Davis, supper chair- ange Memorial Hospital, Orlando, Lake Road, part of Elmcrest Drive, Jones, Pioneer Avenue. All board The family had to search for their sible for their appearance.

X Marks The Spot

house in Meeker is a cellar hole, in town with three of their five mer Marguerite Marshall, George-Explorers again did a marvelous and the tree which caught the children at the time. Two boys were town, Ky. They are the parents of job under John Butler, carrying lightning bolt and deflected it to at Nordmont Church Camp. the roof Friday afternoon at the The house was going fast when grade at Dallas Senior High; Leslie The Mustang went to Bill Moss' height of a short electric storm. the Joplings arrived. Saved, a new a 7th grade student at Dallas Junior

The fire grounded out telephones refrigerator. in the area. When a neighbor saw The family is staying with Mr. at Shavertown Elementary. The driving to Lehman Fire Hall.

No figures yet available on the fire in the roof, it was impos- Jopling's parents in Wilkes-Barre. family are active members of Shavsible to turn in the alarm without The Red Cross provided cash for The siren was sounded in mid- Huntsville Christian Church is at- Board of Trustees of Shavertown afternoon, during the Library tempting to locate living quarters, Methodist Church, teaches the 5th immediate clothing needs, and Lake-Lehman Has Nine Directors, The chicken barbecue did not acceptable and the Back Mountain during the part week. Mountain during the part week.

No new members needed to be ! elected to Lake-Lehman School Bids for surfacing of the parking endeavors in the Back Mountain.

compliance with State directive, to plot out contiguous districts of Bids will be advertised again.

First district, Lake and Noxen 31. Townships; second district, Ross Myron Moss, head teacher at Lehman.

sions, Luzerne County, which takes some action. precedence over Wyoming County. Solicitor Lemond was asked to Hynick, and Charles C. James. Only one district, Noxen, is in Wyo- look into the technicalities. ming County. Solicitor Lemond was Jackson Township solicitor, in- were custodians Frank Burnet, Em-rectors elected at large.

Parking Lot

Board at Tuesday night's meeting as lot at the high school showed re- Mr. Evans has been chairman of the directors already number the re- sponse, but also showed that con- Kingston Township Board of Aptractors were suggesting a better peals since its inception. For re-All that remained to be done in surface of crushed stone, submitting laxation, he turns to bowling and approximately equal population. Work must be completed by August

Township, middle and southwest Ross, reported that the PTA in his districts of Lehman; third, Jackson district had at hand around $1,000 will arrange a meeting between Township and northeast district of for repairs to the stage in the solicitors and supervisors. cafetorium. The women, he said, Ratification will be sought by were tired of giving dinners and Given permanent contracts were instructed to draw the petition.

Directors voted for the three erty transfer tax in that district basis, Herman Whitesell. district plan, preferring it to a nine- which had been allocated to the Bills on $64.513 were approved. year. Willard Sutton, chairman, scant quorum.

Evans, Dymond Named To Board

Low Salary Schedule Sees Teacher Loss

Two new directors were elected Tuesday evening by Dallas School Board at its reorganization meeting as directed under Act 299.

Milton Evans, Kingston Township, and Fred Dymond, Jr., Franklin Township, received the unanimous votes of board members. Evans was nominated by Earl Fritzges with a second by L. L. Richardson. Dymond's name was proposed by Harry Lefko and seconded by Andrew Kozemchak. Mr. Kozemchak said he wished it to be a matter of record that he had withdrawn his earlier proposal favoring Atty. Elizabeth Mensch in Dymond's be-

Evans will serve until December of 1967 and Dymond until December 1969. Both will receive the oath of office at the regular August meeting of the board. A native of Shavertown, Mr. Evans attended Kingstown Township Schools and is a graduate of its high school. He holds a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering, having received his degree from the University of Kentucky. During World War II, he served for three years with the Combat Engineers Battalion of the 103rd Division of the U.S. Army. He is Director of Real Estate Management with the Acme Markets for Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evans longtime Shavertown resident, the All that is left of a seven room | Mr. and Mrs. John Jopling were new director is married to the forthree children, Michael, in 10th High and Julia Anne, in 6th grade ertown Methodist Church.

Mr. Evans is a member of the grade Sunday School Class and is a member of the organizations of Shavertown Methodist Church. He is also a member of George M Dallas Lodge, Caldwell Consistory and the Shrine. He is interested in children and has given of his time to Boy Scouting and Little League

From Franklin Township comes Mr. Dymond, who lives in Orange and is engaged in business with his brother Gerald operating the (Continued to 4 A) petition to Court of Quarter Ses- fund-raising affairs unless they saw five teachers: Marie Baer, Sylvia Bator, Bonnie Carol Bohr, Richard

Miscellaneous

Raised to regular employee status

A Smorgasbord Sampling Of What Went On At The 20th Library Auction

brief shower fell, sending bidders speaker.

It was hot, and at one time a exhorts the bidders over the loud act as runners.

scurrying for cover. As is his cus- Just above, the opening cere- lamb. Dorothy Anderson bid that Huntsville Road. Jordan holds what looks like a gar-troduced from the block, and the few handholds. bage can aloft, while Bob Bachman Explorer Scouts ranged below to Under the lamb pix, Billy Berti at the children's Saturday morning books on the editorial page.

holds traffic as a plants and pro- Auction.

John Vivian holds the Auction duce customer hotfoots it across The Book Booth did a whopping the afternoon before the grounds bag? Who knows? tom, Herman Thomas bid in the monies, with all the top brass of one in. She missed out on the pig, That's a small girl posing for her day, the kids got a big beach umfirst item. At the lower left, Doc the Twentieth Library Auction in- a most reluctant little animal with picture next, and directly above is brella to shield them from the Austin and Mrs. Lamoreaux. a small girl holding up a dollar bill broiling sun. Story on the children's Oh well, pick yourself out. You're man, Jerry Gardner, to the right.

big business. A little later in the filled up.

The crowd picture was taken in What's that sticking out of the the crowd.

Next year's Auction chairman is the pictures. microphone, with this year's chair- Cuts by Graphic Arts

Impossible to name everybody in

Photos by Kozemchak