

Back Mountain Boys On Midshipman Cruise

Two local boys, Marine Lance Corporal Harold J. Donnelly, son of Harold Donnelly, Route 4, Dallas, and Seaman William J. Jones, Jr., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Jones, Sr. of Beech Street, Shavertown, are taking part in this year's midshipman cruise as crewmen of the nuclear powered guided missile cruiser USS Long Beach.

Embarked in Long Beach are some 160 midshipmen from 52 colleges and universities from across the nation. They will receive training in seamanship, gunnery, engineering, and navigation.

The cruise is the major operational training phase of undergraduate naval education. It provides "at sea" experience to round out professional studies, and introduces the midshipmen to a new "way of life." Its major characteristic is "learning by doing."

Ruggles

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grey left last Friday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Grey, Trucksville, to spend two weeks visiting places of interest in the South. They will spend some time with Mrs. Betty Jane Lowery, daughter of the Allen Greys.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Traver spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Newark, Del. Mrs. Kenneth Williams and child, Susquehanna, spent the past week visiting her mom, Mrs. Ruth Anstett, Pikes Creek, and many other friends in the Back Mountain. She has helped complete the plans for the tenth reunion of their class, which will be held at Konefals, Edwinstown, July 23rd.

Lincoln Play Opens At Greenfield Village

"Our American Cousin," the third play in the repertory collection of the American Drama Festival at Greenfield Village, opens its summer run on Monday evening. Curtain time for this century-old classic is 8:30 p. m.

A favorite of Abraham Lincoln, it was while watching a performance of this eccentric comedy that he was assassinated by John Wilkes Booth. The play, by Tom Taylor, was first performed in New York in 1858.

Two other early American plays alternate with "Our American Cousin," Percy MacKaye's fantasy, "The Scarecrow," and Bronson Howard's colorful and exciting "Shenandoah".

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Two Local Kingsmen Make Dean's List

Dr. Richard Loomis, dean of King's College in Wilkes-Barre, announced that two area young men had attained the Dean's List during the recently concluded semester.

Cited were Joseph VanJura of Chase Road, Shavertown, a junior government major, who was Magna Cum Laude; and John Williams, 60 Norton Avenue, Dallas, a senior government major.

The local Kingsmen were among 126 students named to the Dean's List this semester.

Scout Directors To Meet

Monthly Board of Directors Meeting of Penn's Woods Girl Scout Council will be held on Tuesday, July 19, at Camp Joy Lo in Hobbie, one of five Camps maintained by the Penn's Woods Council. Scheduled starting time is set at 10 a.m. Mrs. Harry Crawford, Dallas, is an officer of the Penn's Woods Council.
