

Mount Zion

ALONG THE ROAD

Know something pretty? Norman Lewis' garden of green corn sprinkled with bright golden sunflowers unanimously facing where the sun comes from. The hedge along the road tends to screen all this from sight but if you are walking your dog you let him sniff the roadside while you pause to enjoy the scenery.

Ann Bell driving a red car and wearing dark glasses stopped us the other day to ask how many times the dog and I travel the road. She often is coming or going at the time of our walks. The Bells just got back from their vacation in Nova Scotia. They had a wonderful trip. She says that son Jake is in the armed forces occupying stations along and above the 38th parallel in North Korea. His wife is graduating from college and this Fall Jake is expecting assignment to Germany and his wife can go with him there.

ANIMALS

A rat, perhaps mate to the one the tramp cat caught so neatly last week, stepped into a trap under the bird feeder. Across the pond another kind of rat, one with long flat tail, was nosing along in the pond-edge grass. While the binoculars were still astride my nose the little green heron strode into focus, frog hungry. And not many rat-lengths away a killdeer picked its way around. Mr. Heron decided to chase it out of glass range!

SOUNDS

Sitting on the porch doing nothing I can hear far away the moan of the mourning dove, penetratingly clear when all is quiet.

A LETTER FROM MT. ZION IN FLORIDA

Mrs. May Fielding who used to live at the far end of what is called the Bodle Road now lives in Eau Gallie Florida. She gets our Gilbert Story with Jots from Dot and often writes to say how much she enjoys it. Her interesting P.S. this time says: "Just had a delightful letter from Mary Lewis. Her letters are always such a joy to receive." That's the kind of letters I would expect Mary Lewis to write for she herself is that kind of person.

I FOUND SLOCUM ONCE UPON A TIME!

Last Sunday was my date to supply the West Nanticoke and Slocum pulpits. I was told someone would guide me from West Nanticoke to Slocum. After church no one stepped up to say "I am to guide you to the Slocum church." But no matter, I had been to Slocum to find the way some weeks ago. So I set out. But I'm good at taking wrong turns and I took a few. A man told me I was about ten miles out of the way! So the car made a turn around and back I went. Finally climbed up the corkscrew to Slocum where a group of men and boys were outside. My wrist watch said I was only 5 minutes late. Then I found someone from Slocum had gone down to West Nanticoke to bring me up to Slocum! Before preaching I made an apology for contributing to the mix-up. After church one of the men begged my pardon for the same thing. He had got to the West Nanticoke church at 11:15 and I had already gone. Even so, with getting to Slocum 5 minutes late I finished 5 minutes early. Had a wonderful time both places, saw lots of country I didn't go to see and got home in time for dinner.

MEANWHILE

Catherine reported that the one who was listed to supply here at Mt. Zion (who did supply West Nanticoke and Slocum last Sunday) Rev. Roy Beane was attending his sister's funeral in Detroit and a layman from Wyoming, Mr. Witheridge was the preacher here.

FROM CALIFORNIA

Dr. and Mrs. Lowell Lewis of Riverside, Cal., are visiting Dr. Lewis' parents Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lewis. With them are their children Beth Ann, Bradley and Nancy. Dr. Lewis is associated with the University of California at Los Angeles in research work in horticulture. Before returning to California, Dr. Lewis will stop to present a paper at the University of Maryland.

FROM FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fitzer of Florida are visiting home folks and attended Mt. Zion church Sunday. Mrs. Fitzer is the former Annabelle Earl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Earl.
