Local Couple Wed In Summer Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH F. HARDISKY

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Ryman, East Dallas, announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Lois Ann, to Joseph F. Hardisky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Hardisky, Lehman. The wedding took place in St. Anthony's Church, Larksville.

Rev. Stephen Yenka performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with vases of snapdragons and foliage. Mrs. Loren Butts, soloist, was accompanied by Helen Ann Bendick, organist.

Miss Dolores Stelma, Centermoreland, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Inez Ryman, sister of the bride, Mrs. Donald B. Landis, Morrisville, and Miss Shirley Ann Klock, Sunbury, former College roommates of the bride.

William Krainak, Williamsport, was best man. Ushers were Lloyd Ryman, brother of the bride, Andrew Fabian, Larksville, and Joseph Krupa, Chase.

The bride, escorted by her brother, wore a floor-length gown of ivory silk lined designed with a portrait neckline on an empire bodice with elbow shy sleeves and an A-line skirt. The sleeves, bodice, skirt, and court train were accented with Venice lace. Her detachable train was accented with a flat bow at the waistline. Her bouffant veil of English illusion was arranged from an open millbox of silk line, Venice lace and crystals. She wore white wrist-length gloves and carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

The maid of honor wore a floor-length gown of maize crepe designed with a natural waistline, portrait neckline, and elbow shy sleeves. The sheath skirt was braided at waist with satin trim and highlighted in the back with a double panel train. Her headpiece was a Dior bow, fashioned with a bouffant veil of matching illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow fugi mums accented with pale pink pom poms, white stephanotis and ivy.

The bridesmaid wore dresses and headpieces identical to that of the maid of honor. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow fugi mums, bright pink pom poms and ivy.
