Jots From Dot

Cookery
Paul Blake was my guest for Sunday dinner. He grew up in Angola when his parents were missionaries there. He says it was 95 when he left the states and he's wearing a sweater here. Our cool season is well under way. For dinner we had breaded pork chops, mashed potatoes (out of a can) green beans, cucumber salad with sour cream dressing. I have taken to liking cucumbers, especially with the dressing which is my own recipe and is so good that good cooks ask how to make it. For dessert orange and grapefruit salad and cookies, also orange lemonade. The one nice thing about dry season is we get all the citrus fruit we can eat and drink. EPI ag. department has an orchard. All my fruit trees died except one mango. Now I have a banana plantation, no fruit yet. Lots of papayas too. I can just about have my breakfast papaya from my own trees every morning.

President Mobutu Says
Conference dates had to be changed because President Mobutu says schools have to be kept going through June 30. I have to try to get a new reservation for self and Paul Blake.

Love, Dottie
IME Kimpese June 26
Dearest Family,
The Birthday package came yesterday and I love it. I know it's not my birthday yet, but I presumed you meant for me to wear it at Conference. I opened it. The line of the skirt is lovely and in fact the whole is just beautiful. The bag is cute too. Ann Remple tried it on as a hair net and we think it should start a new trend.

Southern Baptist Church At Eastern Star Building

Southern Baptist Church services, held weekly at the Order of the Eastern Star building in Central Dallas, are attracting a number of people who have no permanent church affiliations, says Pastor Tom Sibley.

The first service was held July 31, with morning and evening worship and Sunday School sessions.

New Hymnal Dedication At Huntsville Sunday

New Hymnals will be dedicated at Huntsville Methodist Church Sunday at 10 a.m. The church, one of the first in the Back Mountain to order and receive its hymnals, has been using them for several weeks.

Rev. Charles Gilbert, who has supplied the pulpit for the past two weeks, will conduct the service. Catherine Gilbert will speak on "Our New Hymnal: A Continuing Bridge".

Miss Gilbert attended the recent week-long session at Locomotive College, where the new hymnal was presented for study and appreciation.

Carl E. Coates is organist and Chancel Choir director.

Mrs. Jeanette Noon Lies At Fern Knoll

Mrs. Jeanette Bubbles Noon, a former resident of Dallas, died early Thursday morning of heart failure at her home in Kingston. Death occurred as her youngest child lay in his crib.

Her husband Joseph operated the filling station at the corner of Main Street and Memorial Highway until widening of the highway evicted many of the residents along its borders. Recently, Mr. Noon opened another station on the highway north of Natona Mill.

Native of Kingston, Mrs. Noon had been employed at the Faith Shoe Company before her marriage. She was a member of St. Ignatius church.

She leaves her husband; three children, Debbie Ann, Lynn Ann, and Joseph, all at home; her father, Arthur Bubbles, Wilkes-Barre; a sister, Mrs. Jean Stook, California; a step-sister, Mrs. Rose Saunders, Dallas.

Burial was Monday morning at Fern Knoll, following a Mass of Requiem at St. Ignatius.

Panorama Troop Meet

Senior Girl Scout Panorama Troop Organization meeting will be held Monday at 2 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Elwood Swingle, 18 N. Main Street, Shavertown.

All girls in Senior High School are welcome to join this new group.

CARD OF THANKS
The Cornell and Hunter families wish to thank those who sent gifts of food and flowers at the time of the recent death of Mrs. Hunter. It was deeply appreciated, helping to ease the burden.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Southern Baptist movement, explains Rev. Sibley, is partially financed by the Home Missionary Board, which has as its goal an outgoing effort to establish itself wherever its services seem needed.

Rev. Sibley is new to this area, and new to the North. He comes from the wide state of Texas.

The small congregation is expanding Sunday by Sunday.

The Dallas Post carries a church announcement each week. It welcomes the Southern Baptists to the 65 churches already holding services in the Back Mountain, a region extending from Hunlocks Creek to Evans Falls.

Mrs. Inez R. Hunter Dies At General

Mrs. Inez R. Hunter, 73, Sweet Valley, died Thursday night at General Hospital, where she had been a patient for five months.

Native of Ross Township, her parents were the late Frank and Ella Davenport Hazlett. She was their only child.

As a young girl, she attended Pleasant Hill Academy in Sweet Valley. She was a member of Church of Christ, serving in her earlier years as church organist. She was an experienced seamstress and milliner.

She leaves her husband Luther; these children: twins, Kenneth Hunter of Dallas, and Mrs. Kathleen Cornell of Meeker; Arden, Baltimore; thirteen grandchildren. A daughter, Mrs. Harold Culver, died two years ago.

There is also an aunt, Mrs. Courtney Garkeek, formerly of Sweet Valley, living in Ohio. A number of cousins living in this area.

Burial was Monday afternoon at Maple Grove, following services conducted by Rev. Roland C. Upsyde and Rev. William Rosser from the Bronson Funeral Home.

Mrs. Mary Boyle, Laketon Is Buried At St. Mary's

A High Mass of Requiem was celebrated Saturday morning from Gate of Heaven Church for Mrs. Mary K. Boyle of Harveys Lake. Burial was at St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Boyle died Wednesday afternoon at Nesbitt Hospital, where she had been admitted a few weeks earlier.

Native of Wilkes-Barre, she had lived for years in this area. She and her husband Bernard F. Boyle, operated the Hillside Inn in Trucksville until retiring in 1955. Mr. Boyle died five years ago.

Mrs. Boyle was a member of Gate of Heaven Church and its Altar and Rosary Society.

She leaves these children: Mr. Edward J. Mullen, Chicago; Mrs. Neil MacIntyre, Harveys Lake; Daniel F. Boyle, Los Angeles; seven grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. George K. Brown, Trucksville, and a brother Arthur J. O'Neill, Lansdowne.

IN MEMORY

In Memory of Mr. Eugene Hummell, Harveys Lake, who passed away on August 22, 1965.

Your steps have stopped
Your smile has ceased
No more to comfort us
When we are in need.

You are gone but not forgotten
Memories still linger on
Sadly missed by wife, children and grandchildren.

Write To Mrs. Jennie Newman At Finchley Hospital, London

Mrs. Jennie Newman would appreciate letters and cards. Her present address is Finchley Memorial Hospital, Grandville Road, North Finchley, London, England. Get the special airmail folder at your post-office to expedite delivery, and follow instructions, no enclosures.

Mrs. Newman left her home in East Dallas ten days before the Library Auction, after completing her work for the doll booth, a bit of organization which would have done credit to a high ranking executive in a large firm of engineers.

For five weeks she enjoyed visiting with her various relatives in London and Cambridgeshire, collecting material for her projected book, and in general pushing herself to the limit.

Then she became ill and was taken to Finchley Hospital, where expectations are that she will remain for several weeks. She is showing slow improvement.

Her daughter, Mrs. Bernard Corby, living in Mrs. Newman's house until her own ranch-type home across the road is completed, has talked with the doctor handling Mrs. Newman's case, by transatlantic telephone.

The doctor thinks that Mrs. Newman will be able to fly home when she is more fully recovered, and sees no reason for any member of the family to come to England at this time.

One year ago her husband, Arthur Newman, died. He had made a number of trips to England over the years, to see relatives. Mrs. Newman's own trip had been long of ill-health which had plagued her for many years, but had never slowed her down to the stopping point.

Each year it has been Mrs. Newman's pleasure to dress an antique doll for chancing off at the Auction, and to accumulate various other items which would add to the Library support.

Nelson R. Thompson Has Heart Attack

Nelson Raymond Thompson, 69, Shrine Acres, dropped dead of a heart attack Sunday morning while walking his dog near his home. Deputy Coroner Richard Disque's verdict was that the victim had suffered coronary occlusion.

He was born in Alderson, son of the late John and Mary Ann Miles Thompson.

He had been with Natona Mills for the past eighteen years, employed as a frame tender. The day before his death he had worked as usual, and had seemed in his customary health. He had no record of former heart trouble. A physical check-up a short time ago had revealed no trouble.

Prior to employment with Natona, he had been with the Wilkes-Barre Transit Company for twenty-three years.

He moved to Dallas in 1931.

Church membership was with Dallas Methodist.

He leaves his widow, the former Harriet Hartman; a daughter, Mrs. John Wicht, of Dallas; brothers, Floyd, Kingston, and Norman, Idetown; a sister, Mrs. Florence Condon, Alderson.

Burial was at Fern Knoll yesterday, following services conducted by his pastor, Rev. Robert Sheehan, from the Disque Funeral Home. Nephews and grandnephews acted as pallbearers.

Asa DeWitt Paden Dies In Florida

Asa DeWitt Paden, brother of Mrs. Albert Race of Vernon died August 13 at his home in St. Petersburg after a brief illness. He was born on the Asa DeWitt farm at Falls, October 18, 1893.

During the first World War he served his country in France and Germany.

Returning to the states, he took up residence in Indianapolis, where he married Miss Gaynel Sanderson, a teacher in the Indianapolis schools. He was an executive for an electrical company for many years.

After retiring from that position he founded, owned and operated "Lake View" a well known fishing resort at Avon, Ind., until 1958.

He and his wife have traveled extensively, spending the winter months at their home in St. Petersburg. He is known locally by his frequent visits at the Race residence in Vernon.

He was a member of the Masons, American Legion and the National Brotherhood of Electrical workers.

In addition to his wife and sister he is survived by three nieces Mrs. Ethel Montross and Edith Race both of Tunkhannock, R.D. and Mrs. Emma Wiley of Athens, Pa.
