

EAST DALLAS

Gary Gries, son of Carl and Thais (Rozelle) Gries of Hershey and John, Mark and Susan Russ, children of George and Dorothy (Gries) Russ, of Washington Crossing, Pa., after spending several weeks with their grandparents, Carl and Mildred Gries at their summer home at Lake Sylvan, arrived at their respective homes in time to spend vacation with their parents.

The Carl Gries Jr. family are going to the Adirondacks for ten days. While the Russ children, accompanied by their mother and sister, Carol Ann went to Washington, D.C., and spent a week visiting with their father who was on active duty there.

Gary Gries and cousin Susan Russ will both enter Kindergarten next week, Golly, the children these days seem to grow up faster than they used to.

Miss Inez Ryman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Ryman was initiated into Delta Pi Epsilon, an honorary sorority for graduate students in Business Education, at Penn State College. Inez will be home for the month of September, before returning to college for the next term.

Mrs. Margaret Roberts, Fernbrook, slipped in her home last week and tore the ligaments in her leg. Despite the use of a cane, she went along to Atlantic City with the bus she had promoted.

Mrs. Helen Siley daughter-in-law Mrs. Thomas Siley, Mary Morgan and I. (Irene Moore) visited Mrs. Paul Scott in the Geri-Kay Nursing home at Huntsville, Sunday evening, to help celebrate her birthday. Her daughter Dorcas from New York spent the day with her and was still there when we got there, which made a nice little party. I had never been in that home before and I must say I was greatly impressed with the beauty of her room; the home and surroundings. Husband Paul was there also; naturally.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith of Center Valley, spent Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Giles Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller Sr. returned home after a nice vacation in Canada.

Golden Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moore, East Dallas, observed their golden wedding anniversary, Saturday, September 10th, at their home on Ransom Road, with a buffet at 6 p.m., planned and provided by their children.

The couple were married September 9th, 1916, in Dallas Methodist Parsonage by the late Rev. Joshua Brundel officiating. The pastor's daughter was their only attendant.
Mrs. Moore is the daughter of the late Charles and Nancy Searfoss, Beaumont and later Dallas. She started in school at Beaumont, had finished in Dallas.

Mr. Moore is the son of the late Jacob and Emma Moore of Wilkes-Barre, and later of East Dallas. He was employed by the Wilkes-Barre Transit Company, starting in the shop at the age of 24 in 1924. He advanced to conductor and motorman at different times, and back to the shop as a carpenter when street cars were discontinued in favor of buses.

Mr. Moore retired in 1962 to resume farming on a small scale.
Mr. and Mrs. Moore were blessed with six children: Wilfred, Hunlocks Creek; Jean Salsbury, Geraldine Buchanan and Charles, all of Rhode Island; Kenneth, East Dallas; and Edward, Mt. Zion.

They also have 13 grandchildren. Guests were George and Jean Salsbury, John and Geraldine Buchanan, children Gail, Linda, Sandra and John Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, Sharon, Debby, Charles Jr., and Raymond, all from Rhode Island; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moore, Lynette, Edward and Walter, Mt. Zion; Beatrice Moore, Mrs. Lorraine Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Mrs. and Rhonda; Mrs. Philip Culver, Bert M. Moore, Keith, Patti and Hol-Bonnie and Patti; Mr. and Mrs. Robly; Irene Moore, Mrs. Sherwood Krum and Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Misson, Mr. and Mrs. John Anzalone, Debby and Barbara; Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Misson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Montanye, Mrs. Musittia Montanye, Floyd Harveys, Johnson City; Sarah Major, Ella Major, Agnes Lansberry, Sterling Kitchen, Emily Preston, Ward, Agnes Spencer, Ted and Miriam Dymond, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morgan, Debby, Doris and Robert Jr., Lloyd and Grace Smith, Joyce, Eileen and Darlene Smith, Jim Shaw, Bill and Harold.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore were the recipients of many beautiful "Golden" wedding gifts, and I never saw so many lovely appropriate cards. In the midst of the festivities they received a long distance call from Mrs. Moore's sister Carrie (Moore) Hawke and husband Chester from Clearwater, Fla.

Another treat for Mother and Dad, son Charles and family; Edward and family, Ollie and Ray, drove to the "DUTCH COUNTRY," a week ago Wednesday and were thrilled with everything they saw, they really made a day of it and still did not see it all.

Mrs. Mildred Lewis, Lehman, and Mr. and Mrs. Elvie Truitt, Ockmont, Pa., sisters, visited their cousin Mrs. Myrtle Miller a week ago Tuesday.

Labor Day visitors of mine were my brother William Shutt and wife Mary, children Barbara, Richard and Donald, Lancaster.

Mrs. Roscoe (Laura) Brencley has returned to her home on lower Demund's Road, after being a patient in Nesbitt Hospital.

Baby Born
Joseph and Shirley (Wall) Gashi are the proud parents of a baby boy, six pounds, twelve ounces. Daniel Ames, September 9, in General Hospital.

Mother is the owner of Shirley's Beauty Shop (Former Troxell Shop) in Dallas. Joseph is employed by Star Garment Co., in Exeter. Daniel is their first child; and grandchild of Earl and Iva Wall; and of Mrs. Gashi, Carverton. However, he and his parents live in a beautiful trailer in Loyalville, near Dymond Hollow Church.

Home Again
Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schultheis and daughter Elaine Armstrong, Ransom, (former Orange residents) drove to Las Vegas, Nevada, last week to pick up Maude's son, Richard Armstrong (Airman 1st Class) and bring him home as he has finished his tour of duty. They also visited Maude's brother Joseph in Denver, Colorado. All Orange folks welcome him home.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stoss, Upper Demund's Road, drove to Port Wayne, Indiana last Sunday to take Russell Jr., where he will enroll in the Institute of Technology to take up Electrical engineering. He graduated from Dallas Senior High last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuel Lasher attended the wedding of Sanford Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. tenley Moore; to Miss Mary Devine, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Devine, Lancaster on Saturday September 3rd. The couple was married in St. Joseph's Church in Lancaster. I understand it was a beautiful wedding with a wonderful reception following.

Reuel and Mary stayed over the week end and visited other relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hartman, in Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Wilson received a letter last Saturday from Mrs. Paul Smith of Center Valley, that Mr. Smith had a slight stroke during Labor Day night. They had spent the week end in Mt. Zion visiting their many friends and relatives. We wish you a speedy recovery, Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Siley, Philadelphia, spent a week with parents, Russell and Helen Siley. During that time they made a trip to Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Russ Siley, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Siley and David Morgan Jr., spent Sunday in Stroudsburg visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ralph (Frances Siley) Harrison.

Mrs. Lucy Morgan has returned to her daughter's home on Ransom Road after spending two weeks with her other daughter, Ada Brown and family in Clifton Heights, Pa.

Moore.

We are very glad to welcome back our Pastor, Rev. Mr. Hockenbury, to East Dallas Church after a three week vacation. He provided three very interesting speakers to take his place while away. They were Mr. Thomas Williams, Lay Leader from Trucksville, Mr. William James, from Centermoreland and our very able Reverend Gilbert from Mt. Zion.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Friend Hildebrand, Apalachan, N.Y., were week end visitors of his sister, Myrtle Miller, Hildebrand Road. While there, they helped Myrtle get things prepared for the winter. Cold weather is just around the corner and it is wonderful to have helping hands.

Getting Ready For Winter
These hot September days are a good-bye kiss to the summer weather. Our pond pump has been brought into the cellar before freezing days come. It hasn't been needed much lately anyway with the increased rain. Cathy is getting places cleared for the plants to come indoors. Or partly in. For she has cold frames just outside the cellar window near the oil furnace which can take some plants for quite awhile. And another sort of greenhouse on the end of the front porch enclosed with fibreglass. By introducing some kind of automatic heat, we'll be able to take care of more plants there. The fibreglass is much better than the flimsy plastic we had last year. Our mahogany tree grown from a seed brought home from Southern Rhodesia four years ago is too tall now for that greenhouse and will have to come inside along with the other forest trees such as her citrus trees, tropical hibiscus (gift of Pearl Averett) and the tomato tree and others. We are hoping to live here too!

Breaks Shoulder
Barbara Berti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Berti, Franklin Street, Dallas, fell from her bike on Sunday at her Grandmother Evans' and broke her left shoulder. Unfortunately - she is still able to write and reported to school on the opening day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin have returned to their home in Shavertown after spending several weeks in Canada and the Gaspé Peninsula.

See Them At Rotary Fair

The Reading Skyliners, above, will be one of the features at the Dallas Rotary Fall Fair on September 17th and 18th at the Lehman Horse Show Grounds. The Skyliners, a Harley-Davidson Motorcycle Precision Drill Team, will appear at 7 p.m. on the second day of the Fair.

At the Fair there will be rides and special events for children, horse show both days, fashion show, Jim Ward Talent Show, Barbershop

Quartet singing and selection of the Fair Queen. Also, two rock and roll bands, Mt. Carmel Drum and Bugle Corps, Dallas High School Key Club Drill Team, singing groups and scouting events. The show grounds will be alive with exhibits and displays of all types.

Parking is free, food will be served on the Fair grounds. Programs both Saturday and Sunday starts at noon.

Mount Zion

At Valley Crest

Mrs. Margaret Spencer is busy with her Day Care Center work. Not only are there several more patients taking advantage of the therapy offered but there are several applications pending. The program is growing. These stroke victims have a chance at a modest cost to receive considerable rehabilitation.

Back To Church Again!

It seemed good last Sunday to worship with my fellow members at Mt. Zion after preaching elsewhere for the past three months. Pastor Reid gave out with a thought-stirring sermon. The choir sang "How Great Thou Art" as an anthem. It is found in the new Methodist hymnal as a hymn which everyone will enjoy singing when the shipment arrives.

Some Wild Meditations I Have Had

While singing at Valley Crest "All hail the power of Jesus' Name, let angels prostrate fall" - it suddenly came over me that we, poor sinners saved by grace, can stand up tall and bold and tell the angels to fall on their faces and sing, and "bring forth the royal diadem". WE who in humility sing lustily what the angels ought to do, WE are the ones who should be lying face down on the floor. (That is what "prostrate" means.) Only we couldn't sing more than a muffled "All hail!" So be it!

And then the Lord's Prayer went through my mind during a wakeful time at night. Came the petition, "Lead us not into temptation". A difficult prayer to understand in view of the story in scripture that Jesus Himself was led (or driven) by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. But we are taught to pray God NOT to do that with us! Perhaps Jesus knew that was a pretty tough experience and maybe we might better pray for it not to happen. At least we are not to deliberately get into a tussle with the devil but need to hope there will be angels to help us through.

Head Down, Chin Up!

Did you hear the soldier being interviewed on T-V tell how his step-father gave him good advice, "Keep your chin up and your head down!" Just imagining that made us contortionists.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Elston, former Back Mountain residents, have moved back to the area from Spring Valley, N. Y. Their address is Smith Trailer Camp, Harveys Lake.

SHAVERTOWN

A New Church

Sunday morning looked anything but promising but the threat of rain disappeared as we made our way to the first service of the new Eastern Orthodox Church. My friends, Jim Kozemchak and Bill Hoblak were on hand to extend the hand of welcome and it was truly a magnificent service. How nice to have another church in the Back Mountain Area and what enthusiasm was shown as the faithful gathered at Hayfield House.

Our best wishes go to the congregation for a most successful future.

The Green Arrow

So many folks have wondered when the traffic lights were installed, why there is no indicating arrow to help motorists get across when turning from the highway. This would be mighty beneficial and they are up in Trucksville. Why the discrimination? Or was it an oversight?

There are quite a few talented oldesters in our community and we shall be looking forward to some of their hobbies on display at the Rotary Fair. Harley Misson, who turns out such cute chairs and articles for the kiddoes will be there, we understand.

Here And There

What a plucky person Mrs. Bernard Gerrity is. Still in a cast and recuperating from injuries suffered in that automobile accident months ago, she made a trip to Shavertown with her son to visit her old friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Ernest Ashbridge invited some of her acquaintances in for luncheon on Friday and how happy she was to see them again.
Now residing with her daughter, her address is 2662 Bittersweet Drive, The Timbers, Wilmington 3, Del. Drop her a line.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gallagher have moved to Hillside Road, Conyngham, Pa.
Bill Hontz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Obed Hontz, has returned to Bloomsburg State College for the fall semester.

York City, have returned home after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lenahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hontz, who were the recent guests of their daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Earl, Robbinsville, N.J., visited Asbury Park for several days during their stay with the Earls.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Baganski and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shindeldecker and Lori, all of Hanover, Pa., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Clause and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baganski, Jr.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Merl Bigelow in her recent bereavement.

Mrs. Lawrence McClure and children, Brenda, Becky and Larry, Jr., have returned home after spending two and a half months in Key West, Fla., with their husband and father, Radarman First Class Lawrence McClure.

It has been called to my attention that when the farewell party for Mal Kitchen and Al Williams was held recently that the name of Shavertown Lumber Company was used. I believe that everyone knows they were valued employees of Back

Mt. Lumber and Coal Company. We had a note from Mrs. Raymond Scott telling us that she was in the car with her husband when he was fatally stricken. Eye witnesses had informed me otherwise but if it will help any in her time of sorrow, we will print her version of the tragedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Newhart and family spent last weekend with Clyde and Betty Brace at Hyattsville, Md. Ginny was home from Puerto Rico, where she had been on a school project for the summer and will return to classes at Western Maryland University.

Mrs. Anna Dressell had as week-end visitors, Mr. and Mrs. William Britland, Bristol, Pa. Mrs. Dressell recently returned home after being a patient at Nesbitt Hospital.

Mrs. Emaret Franklin, is a patient at General Hospital.
Our prayers go out to Berton Riley, who still continues a patient at General Hospital.

P. J. Gaughan, son in law of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Helfrich, is a patient at Wilkes-Barre Veteran's Hospital. He was stricken about the time he was to return to duty after visiting here with his wife and children.
