Prevues Rotary Fall Fair Fashion Show

Mrs. Stanley Hozempa, Shavertown, is shown here scanning the latest issue of a popular fashion magazine which features on its fold-out cover dresses which will be shown at the Dallas Rotary Fall Fair Fashion Show, Saturday evening, September 17.

Commentator for the fashion show will be Ann Hayes, well-known television weather girl; members of the Dallas Women of Rotary will act as models.

The two-day 4th annual Dallas Rotary Fall Fair and Fashion Show will be held September 17 and 18, on the Lehman Horse Show Grounds. Saturday's show is scheduled for 12 noon to 11 p. m.; Sunday's show, 1 p. m. through the evening. At the end of the performances a colored television will be awarded to the holder of the lucky gate number.

Exhibits and displays, demonstrations, games of skill, rides and refreshments will turn the Lehman Horse Show grounds into an old-time country fair grounds. Continuous entertainment in the show ring promises to be outstanding. Many will be attracted to the "snake handling" Saturday evening by Dr. Charles Kuschel, Pittston optometrist. In his collection of snakes, Dr. Kuschel has three rattlers, two black snakes, copperheads, and others. He will milk the venom, handle the snakes and conduct a question and answer period.

At 5 p. m. on Sunday, Dr. William Dawe will give a demonstration on orchid care and culture. Many persons have seen Dr. Dawe's rare orchid display and will look forward to this event.

The public is invited to enter the exhibits of hobbies listed last week. Entries must be brought in Friday evening or Saturday before noon. Prizes and ribbons will be awarded.

Special entry forms may be picked up at Shavertown and Dallas Acme Stores. Special prizes will be offered.

Mrs. Nelson Booth, Lehman Ave., is vacationing at Cape May, N. J. Mrs. Bertha Anderson, who has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Derby at Lehman, was readmitted to Nesbitt Hospital on Wednesday.
