

MOUNT ZION

It did look and sound good, the choir Sunday morning, back in place again. Besides Catherine, the choir leader, Roy J. Thomas, Ben Smith, Ernie Hoover, Garry Dymond were the men, with Priscilla Krum, Jean Hronich and Carol Smith. Dicky Holmes did the work of the acolyte with dignity and precision.

At Work Already
Ronnie Earl is already at practice teaching and I imagine he is good at it. He's doing it in Clarks Summit now.

On Sick List
Sorry to hear that Paul Smith is in St. Luke's Hospital in Bethlehem after suffering a stroke awhile ago.

And for some time now Ray Mullins has not been strong. Dorothy Mark, of West Pittston has been coming up and taking her mother Mrs. Mullison to church. Mr. Mullison has to lie down most of the time.

The Dictionary Again
Random House Unabridged has words in it which aren't! I mean made-up words. Remember Mary Poppins singing and using a 33-letter word? It's there: Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious! (Pity the typesetter with that one. She may cut the line out!) But what I looked up was to find the correct usage and accent of "trespass" as in the Lord's Prayer. I grew up on the unaccented second syllable but hear the ministers accent the second syllable. So my accent happens to be approved by this newest word-book. Also the word "humble" as I was taught it is to silence the h (as if I were British). This is still listed as correct as a second choice. Either "hum-" or "um-" is right. Also I find there's a heap of slang words in the book, but that doesn't mean we have to use them, but to understand them.

Valley Crest
The office at Valley Crest did something nice for me and my people. Some expressed a wish to have some song words on paper so they could sing along with me. So I hinted about this where hints count and they came out with 50 copies, mimeographed in capitals, double-spaced on 3 pages of heavy white paper. I selected a few favorite hymns to have duplicated. They are easy to read. (I confess I'm getting quite sensitive to type sizes myself!) And when I tried them out among the groups they did participate in the singing. Some kept the song sheets because they wanted to memorize the words. By the way, a lady asked me to sing "How Great Thou Art". So copied the words in my note book and frequently sing it for them. They join on the chorus. I'm not George Beverly Shea but I'm there in person, and often!

Valley Crest Mentioned In Church
Pastor Reid last Sunday spoke on the theme "Chosen by Christ". Mentioned that in many ways by man voices and by frequent opportunities we are chosen by Christ for some special service He wants done. He told about a girl he knew at Sky Lake who this year is in college and is already enlisted in church work in the college town. And of someone on the circuit who is teaching in our County Prison. Then he told about the Director of Volunteer Services at Valley Crest who said volunteers were needed to spend an hour a week visiting some patients who need outside friendships, and some to take on selected patients as pen-pals. He warned that the pen-pal feature might be a one-way service inasmuch as some need to get mail who are not in condition to send out mail. I know that to be so. If you saw some of those arthritic fingers you would understand. Everybody (in and out of a hospital) likes to get mail. Not everybody is able to write replies.

After that sermon at Mt. Zion (he preached it to both of the other churches too) I was stopped by several people who want me to give them some names for pen-pals! Which I am glad to do.

Uncle Sam Is Nice
We find a lot of fault with our government including the Post Office department. But if you want a written message taken to someone in Valley Crest or Alaska or Hawaii give the gentleman a nickel and your letter and he'll deliver it! Or he'll sell you a combination letter paper and envelope all stamped for 11c, which will go by air anywhere in the world. Pretty generous and accommodating I say.
