EAST DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd Moore and family have moved into their new home in Lanoka Harbor last Saturday. Mother Jessie Moore has been busy making two 8 by 10 braided rugs for their home and has them just about finished.

Congratulations go to my neighbor Ruth Higgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Higgins, Ransom Road, for receiving an N E T D letter of commendation. She played the organ for graduation at the Dallas Senior High, is active in the band, Orchestra, Chorales, Chorus and National Honor Society. She is also the organist of Glenview P.M. Church, was a camp counselor at C.E.F. Christian Day Camp last summer, and is also pianist for Youth for Christ in Wilkes Barre. Sam and Margie can certainly be proud of her.

I am trying to locate my book of Poems by the late George Z. Keller, which I had lent to someone. If you, or you, have it will you please return it to me (Irene Moore). Thank you. It was given to me by the W.S.C.S. of East Dallas church, one of the times when I was in the hospital, and I would hate to lose it. The Chicken dinner previously planned for October 29, by East Dallas men, has been cancelled till some time in the future.

Birthday Party

Mrs. Fred, Sr., (Zana) Dymond, Orange, was honored Saturday evening, October 1st, with a dinner party, at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rozelle, Orange, to celebrate her 78th birthday.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gries and son Gary, from Hershey; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dymond Jr.; Connie, Becky, Dale and Robin Rozelle, the guest of honor Mrs. Dymond and husband Fred Sr.; the host and hostess Ray and Glenna Rozelle.

Miss Vivian Dymond spent the week end in Palmyra visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elaine Dymond and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gries Jr., and son Gary, Hershey, spent last week end with parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gries Sr., on lower Demund's Road. M.Y.F. of Orange church are active in many ways. The most recent and unique way was a HOBBO party or picnic. I should say, which they staged last Sunday evening. There are about 28 members which I think is wonderful; to have so many active young folks. They were all to try to dress as hobos, each one taking some provision in cans, such as one took "Dinty" Moore stew" others different kinds of vegetables to add to the stew. One of the counselors, Glenna Rozelle, made baking powder biscuits which they put on sticks to reheat over the open fires. Needless to say that they had a grand time.

The Ella Moore Class of East Dallas Church will meet in the church Tuesday evening, October 11 at 8 p.m. All members are requested to be present to turn in any cooking show left over tickets and the money standing out.

I am happy to say that Reverend Howard Hockenbury has returned to his home in the Methodist Parsonage, Centermoreland, after his bout with surgery in Nesbitt Hospital. Rev. Gilbert filled in and served communion Sunday.

We are also glad to let you know that Mrs. Paul (Elizabeth) Scott, has returned to her home on Hildebrand Road from the nursing home where she had been a guest for quite a few months. I hear that Mrs. Jennie Newman is making good progress also, having been seen walking in her back yard recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Baird, Sutton Creek Road, entertained at dinner last Sunday, the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heitzman, Centermoreland; Mrs. Florence Hughes, Forty Fort; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gay, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gay and family, daughter Marjorie and husband Bill.

Sorry to say that Mr. Baird has been laid up with the virus for a few days last week. I hope you are better by the time you read this, Mac.

Trustees of East Dallas Church met at the home of Robert M. Moore last Sunday evening. (A week ago) members present were, Ted Wilson, Harry Martin, Philip Culver, Warren Stanton, Tom Moore, Russell Ockenhouse and the host, Robert Moore.

A layman's breakfast will be served next Sunday morning, October 6, 7:30 for all men in the East Dallas church, after which the men will have charge of the 9 o'clock service. Mr. Thomas Williams, lay leader from Trucksville church will be the speaker, and the choir will consist of all members. Philip Culver is chairman of the breakfast and Robert M. Moore is chairman of the worship service.

Alan Cuba

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cuba, Evergreen Street, Shavertown, became the parents of a five pound, eight ounce son, Alan, September 10 at Mercy Hospital. There are two other sons, Eric, three and Michael, two. Mrs. Cuba is the former Cynthia Shemanski, W. Wyoming. Mr. Cuba is employed with RCA.

Idetown

The rosebud at the Sunday morning worship service was in honor of Donald Elliott, new son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Ide. At this same service there was the dedication of the new Hymnals by Rev. Winfield Kelley.

Mrs. Dean Shaver and daughter Elizabeth Anne returned after a ten day trip to visit Mr. and Mrs. S. Ross Shirer of Anderson, S. C. On Wednesday Elizabeth Anne returned to Penn State for the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. John Race entertained Serving and Waiting Class in their home on Thursday night.

Present were Mesdames Ernest Fritz, Corey Meade, Lila Felt, Hattie Hilbert, Emory Hadsel, Jesse Boice, Virgie Montross, Ethel Shaver; Barbara Williams, Ruth Worthington, Hazel Gordon, Marie Spencer, Mary Baker.

Dedication of the new hymnals will be held next Sunday in Idetown and Lehman Churches. Rev. Kelley will be in charge. Rally Sunday will be observed during Sunday School hour, and the first Quarterly Conference will be the next Sunday night in the Jackson Church for the Lehman Charge at 7:30. Everyone is invited.

Rev. and Mrs. Winfield Kelley entertained the W. S. C. S. in the Parsonage on Wednesday night. Mrs. Kelley led the devotions, her theme being "My Witness". It was announced that the Turkey Supper will be on Saturday, October 29. Present were Mesdames Mary Rogers, Pearl Connor, Barbara Williams, Bruce Williams, Loren Keller, Jesse Boice, Emory Hadsel, Alfred Hadsel, Corey Meade, Herbert Ward, George May, Grace Knupp; Bess Cooke, with the host and hostess.

SHAVERTOWN

At Last, The Sun

What a pleasure it was on Sunday morning to awaken to the rays of the sun after so much downpour both in Maryland and at home. It sort of gives one a new impetus after the dull dreary days.

Bill and Sue came up from Greenbelt for the weekend and it will probably be the last time for a while that the whole family is all together.

After our children left, Fred suggested a trip to Scranton and Peckville, the latter a necessity and the former a chance to see Brenda Chimp in her new home in the Scranton Zoo. Freddie had taken his family on Sunday and reported that she now had a companion to arouse her out of the doldrums.

She spotted us at once, came down from her perch and as we were leaving she climbed higher and higher so that she might watch until we could see her no more. Its hard to part with an animal but she did seem happy in her new surroundings.

Handsome Specimens

Continuing on the animal trend, we stopped briefly at the Bloomsburg Fair on our way back from Maryland and looked up Ralph Sands who as usual had his magnificent Holsteins on view and ready for the judging. Ralph is certainly one of the best breeders of cattle and once again brought home top prizes to our community. We can well be proud of his record. Daughter Harriet is a big help to him; he related, sharing her father's love for the herd that turns out so well under Ralph's constant care.

Martin Porter and his brother Herbart had just visited the barns before we arrived.

The Highway Crews

What a change since a new head was named to the State Highway Department encompassing our area. All manner of equipment appeared last week on Pioneer Avenue to clean out the ditches and fill the berms, a 100% improvement over their former condition. We can probably look forward to faster clearing of roads during the winter months with a new superintendent really on the job.

Committee on Evergreen Cemetery met on Sunday and are continuing their efforts to restore the grave site. Biggest problem is trying to find the proper addresses of plot holders.

In less than a week the fall foliage is beginning to appear. Monday morning as I drove to work over Pioneer Avenue, I was amazed at extent of the change, and this sector is particularly lovely as the many hues predict the enjoyable autumn days.

Speaking of the autumn, it seems that Halloween will soon be upon us. I hear that the soaping of windows has already begun, a bit early indeed.

Here And There

Our very best wishes go to Mrs. Blanche Keller who celebrated her 77th birthday on Sunday. It was a real pleasurable time with a number of folks honoring her special day.

Jeannie Merolla has returned to Bloomsburg College after spending the summer with her parents and working at the local Acme.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Laux returned home last week after spending two and a half weeks visiting their son Paul Jr., and family at Carmel, California. They made the trip by train.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Charles Swingle in his recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Egan, Dalton, were weekend guests of Miss Mildred Ralston. The Egans were former Shavertown residents.

Mrs. Earl Henwood has returned home after being a patient at Nesbitt Hospital.

The Auxiliary of St. Paul's Lutheran Church held a covered dish luncheon on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eck spent the weekend in Gettysburg where they attended Father's Weekend at Gettysburg College, where daughter Beverly is a student.

Son Jack has returned to Temple University School of Medicine in Philadelphia and finds this year most stimulating with work at the hospital taking all of his time. Daughter Dorothy back from England has returned to Wilkes College and Marilyn remains abroad. The Ecks had as a house guest last week Marilyn's Southern Rhodensian brother, Rod Thompson, who will see more of Marilyn since he is attending college in England.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pethick returned home last week after visiting Mrs. C. A. Woodruff at New Berlin, New York.

Marcus Ludt who has been hospitalized at Nesbitt for nine weeks celebrated his 74th birthday there on Sunday with a big birthday cake baked by the hospital staff and shared with patients and nurses.

Also a patient at Nesbitt is Mrs. Byron Kitchen who is in traction since a simple accident. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Gosart's Dressings Group will make Cancer bandages on Tuesday morning at St. Paul's.

If you are interested in getting some mighty fine fish for that aquarium drop in at Milton Lutsey's new shop across from Hall's. Bill and Sue stopped by this weekend and were well pleased with their purchases and amazed at the full line of tropical specimens offered and the large assortment of supplies.

All summer I've watched the tall corn stalks grow in Gladys Martz' garden. I thought it rather amazing that she could have planted it here and there so adroitly among the flowers. Then I learned that it was Indian corn and that it had come up by itself. Although her friends have urged her to pick it some weeks ago she is waiting for it to be thoroughly ripened.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gdovin, Wilkes-Barre, have purchased a home at 71 Shagbark Drive. Mr. Gdovin is employed with Balaster Optical Co.

Hall's Pharmacy Open 98 Hours

In the Hall's Pharmacy ad in last week's Post it was mistakenly printed that the drug store was open 18 hours a week.

Hall's Pharmacy is open daily from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., including Sundays with a registered pharmacist on duty at all times, serving the public a total of 98 hours a week.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ALL DADDIES

It really isn't fair! Daddies don't wear dresses —so they don't understand. Daddies just send their suits to the cleaners, and when they come back, then Daddies are ready to go out. But we girls like to get dressed up in pretty clothes, and that means a lot of tiring work for Mommies. If only Daddies didn't have it so easy, maybe they would get Mommies a Hamilton Automatic Gas Clothes Dryer. And I hear you can save up to $90 on them now.

Sweet Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kuczawa and family, Reading, spent the weekend with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Naugle Sr.

Burton Steltz has returned from General Hospital after suffering from burns received in a fire.

The following enjoyed an evening at the Albert Ray home on Saturday: Mary Grace Duffy, Peter Gill, Donald Cannon, Linda Legendorfer, Joe Saba, Karla and Barry Ray.

Judy Valick, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Valick, is a patient at General Hospital.

Darwin Smith, son of Mrs. Albert Smith is able to be around on crutches and to attend classes at school after having the legaments in his foot torn during gym class. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Stauffer, Orwigsburg, Pa., called on Mrs. Albert Smith and sons on Sunday afternoon.
