Miss Gertrude Carbohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Carbohn, Strand Street, Wilkes Barre, became the bride of Carl F. Daubert, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Daubert, Parrish Street, Dallas, Saturday, September 17, at St. Aloysius Church, Wilkes-Barre.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Father John A. O'Hair.

The bride given in marriage by her father was attired in a gown of white chantilly lace, fashioned in a low scooped neckline adorned with iridescent sequins and pearls, featuring long tapered sleeves. The princess bodice was fitted to a slim waistline, accenting a gracious bouffant cascade flounce skirt extending into a circular sweep train. Her veil of imported silk illusion was styled in a silk organza petal crown embellished in pearls and drop crystals featuring circular tiers in a formal length. She carried roses, orchid and a rosary, mounted on her Bible.

Mary Green, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink organza full length gown, featuring an empire waist and a bodice of nylon and silk, covered with net and pearls, and a train. Her head-piece was a pink silk organza petal crown, embellished in pearls, and a circular pink short veil. She carried pink and white carnations.

Richard Sabulski, cousin of the groom was best man.

Mother of the bride chose a three piece gold suit and gold head band, with gold accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations tipped in gold.

The mother of the groom selected a royal blue sheath knit dress, white pill box hat with sequins, short veil, and blue accessories. She wore a white carnation corsage tipped in blue.

Following a reception at the American Legion, Hanover Township, the couple left on a short wedding trip. They are residing at 6 Spring Street, Ashley.
