EAST DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Darryl Dickson, Somerville, N. J., spent the last two weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Dickson, Martz Road.

I am happy to report that Mrs. David (Vida) Adams, Lower Demund's Road, has returned to her home after having been a patient in Nesbitt Hospital. I am sorry to say that I did not know about you being ill, Vida, and I hope you are completely well again.

now, as we quilters of East Dallas Church need her as one of our helpers.

I am terribly sorry to hear of the passing of Miss Emily Goldsmith, Demunds, who went to her eternal rest last Friday evening, in Nesbitt Hospital. She had been a patient there since last week of August. Emily was the beloved librarian in Dallas Junior High for years and an excellent teacher. She had been ill so long that we feel that God was merciful in taking her home to be with Him.

Mrs. Viola (Beh) Brace, has returned to her home, where she resides with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Davies, after spending a few days with her other daughter, Margaret Baker, and family in Gillette, N.J.

Her granddaughter, Mary Jo, daughter of M/Sgt. Edgar Atkinson and wife, the former Wilma Brace, Colorado Springs, phoned Mrs. Brace to tell her that she would be with the Bakers a couple of days before leaving for India, where she will be stationed for two years as a member of the Peace Corp. So naturally Grandma Brace hurried to Jersey by bus to visit with her.

Mrs. Gladys Bert Brace, who was visiting with her daughters, Beulah in Harrisburg and Barbara in Maryland, has returned to her daughter Louise Hess's home on upper Demund's Road. We hope she will stay around here for a while

Marks 82nd Birthday

Another wonderful birthday marked the 82nd, for Mrs. Leona Wandell, Roushey Plot, September 30. Her sister Mabel Wandell, (yes the both sisters married brothers) from Stull; a place near Noxen which I had never heard of; spent the day with her. Of course she shared her delicious and beautiful birthday cake and ice cream with her many visitors, who were Emma Wandell, David and Doris Kitchen, children Emma Lou-Sue Ann and Danny Jr. Danny sang Happy Birthday to Grandma and of course the rest all joined in. The ladies from the Nesbitt Hospital laundry who had worked with Mrs. Wandell there, called her on the phone to offer their congratulations, which pleased her so very much.

Missionary III

I had a letter from Missionary Sallye Higgins, Box 1414, Mwanza, Tanzania, East Africa last week, stating that she is suffering from Pancreatitis and losing too much weight. So the Lord willing, she will be leaving there the end of October.

Last Sunday was observed as Laymen Sunday in East Dallas Church, with a record attendance. Our Pastor, Rev. Howard Hoekensbury said it was a pleasure to sit in the congregation with his wife and son, Paul (he is still convalescing) while the men of the church took over the service. The call to worship; "Recognition of God's Presence," by Russell Ockenhouse, Invoational Prayer, Philip Culver; Men's Chorus, Philip Culver; Russell Ockenhouse; Robert M. Moore; Warren Stanton; Ted Wilson; Jay Bloomer; Harry Martin Sr.; Thomas Schmidele and Glen Howell. Responsive Reading, Warren Stanton; Pastoral Prayer, Philip Culver; Sermon, "Every Man's Servant," Mr. Thomas Williams. Lay Speaker from Trucksville Church, Scripture Lesson, John 13:3-17, Robert M. Moore. Benediction Mr. Russell Eyer. "Our Laymen Speak," Article No. 1, by Mrs. Rosa J. Dymond, Dymond Hollow Church. "My faith means trust in God to carry me through life. I believe I am expected to stand on my own feet and that God will give me strength and knowledge to do so. This trust also allows me to enjoy life, as I think we should. When trouble comes I can go to Him for help, knowing He will give it, for it has been promised that no more will be laid upon us, than we can bear."

There were about 30 men who attended the laymen's breakfast, preceding the nine o'clock church service.

Mrs. Margie Moss, Upper Demund's Road, entertained as many of the cafeteria ladies who had worked together in the Dallas Jr. High School that she could contact. Guests were Mesdames Stella Lancia; Naomi Pryn; Norma Knecht; Helen Veitch; Doris Sutton; Lucy Morgan Irene Moore, and Margie's sister Mrs. Anna Samuels, last Friday evening. She could not contact

Beat down heating costs two ways

First, a revolutionary new invention for oil burners, the Gulf Solar Heat ECONOJET, beats down costs by giving you more heat from less oil.

Secondly, Gulf Solar Heat® drives down heating costs because it's scrubbed clean with hydrogen to burn hotter—cleaner and more completely. It goes further, yet costs no more.

Get more out of your heating dollars by calling us today!
