

Local High School Girls Tie Up Hockey Game

Shown in the photograph above is a typical scene on the hockey field of any school today. Most of the local schools have girls' hockey teams and Dallas and Lake-Lehman are no exceptions. Pictured in action between Dallas and Lake-Lehman Thursday afternoon at Dallas Senior High School. Second from left is Cindy Supulski playing halfback for Dallas. Cindy has just missed hitting the ball to her wing, Jill Danaher, at her left. Lake-Lehman's Audrey Hunt, in the lefthand corner, moves in to take it down the field to eventually try for a Lake-Lehman goal. The game ended in a tie, 1-1. The week before, Dallas met Lake-Lehman on the Lake-Lehman field and won, 4-0. The Dallas girls, coached by Miss

Mabel Jenkins, played Abington Heights at home Tuesday and will travel to Kingston this afternoon to meet the Kingston girls at 4. Next Wednesday Kingston will play at Dallas, 4 p.m. The Lake-Lehman team, coached by Mrs. Florence Finn, met Kingston Monday and will compete with Abington Heights tomorrow at 4. —photo by Kozemchak

Dallas Bows To Wyoming, 14-7

Dallas Mountaineers dropped another close decision Friday night, losing 14-7 to Wyoming Area under the lights at West Pittston stadium. It was the second loss in four games for Eddie Brominski's charges, both by a single touchdown.

Halfback Frank Delaney starred for Wyoming Area in the win as he scored on runs of seven and twelve yards in the first and fourth period.

The Dallas defense failed to halt two fourth down and short yardage situations as Fred Ciacci was called upon both times to pickup the necessary yardage and did so. Wyoming finally reached the seven yard stripe from where Delaney took a pitchout and circled end for the score. Ciacci added the PAT on a run.

Move 28 Yards Wyoming got a big break in the opening session when Roy Supulski's punt went practically straight up in the air from his own 20 yard line and was downed on the Dallas 28 from where the home club moved in for its first score. The Dallas defense failed to halt two fourth down and short yardage situations as Fred Ciacci was called upon both times to pickup the necessary yardage and did so. Wyoming finally reached the seven yard stripe from where Delaney took a pitchout and circled end for the score. Ciacci added the PAT on a run.

Quick Kick Dallas got out of a mild jam in the second period when a quick kick placed the pignis on the Warriors four yard line.

Two plays later Dallas got a big break when the home club fumbled away the pignis and Dallas took over on the Wyoming four. However the Warriors forward wall stopped two running plays and then two passes went astray and Wyoming regained control of the ball on its own four yard line.

Wyoming missed another score prior to halftime when Bratlee and Delaney combined on a 42-yard scoring pass only to have it nullified for a backfield-in-motion penalty.

Knot Score At 7-All Early in the final period the Mountaineers climaxed an 88-yard drive with a Steve Townsend-to-Roy Supulski pass and Carl Zimmerman's PAT to knot the score at 7-7.

Two key fourth down pass completions by quarterback Steve Townsend kept the Mountaineers drive alive.

Following three successive first downs, Dallas was faced with a fourth and seven situation when Townsend connected with Bob Antanitas at the Warrior 30. Another fourth down and five situation from the Wyoming 25 found Townsend throwing to wingman Scott Fry and he bulled his way to the 16.

Dallas finally reached the Wyoming 10 from where Townsend again went to the air and hit Roy Supulski in the endzone for the score. Carl Zimmerman knotted the score at 7-all as he split the up-rights with his placement.

Delaney Shines Again Delaney again gave the Warriors good field position as he returned the ensuing kick-off 25 yards to the Dallas 47 from where Wyoming moved for its winning touchdown.

On a fourth down and four, Delaney took a pitchout from signal-caller Bratlee and fought his way to the Dallas 15. Two plays later Bratlee called the same play and Delaney romped into the endzone. After a series of penalties, Bratlee finally ran over the extra point on the third attempt. Trying desperately to get back

Wyoming Player Stops Parry's Run

Welch, Whitebread Tally Twice As Northwest Defeats Knights 25-13

A pair of hard running backs, Bob Welch and Larry Whitebread, spearheaded a strong Northwest ground offense in the first half last Saturday to help defeat Lake-Lehman 25-13 on the losers field before a fine Parents' Day turnout.

Welch and Whitebread rolled up over one hundred yards on the turf during the initial half to stake the visiting Rangers to an 18-7 halftime lead.

At the same time the defense was limiting the Knights to a mere twenty-three yards on the ground.

The second half of action turned out to be almost a complete reversal from the first half as the knights came out fired up and held the Rangers to a net 38 yards, rushing and passing, in the second half.

The Knights failed to muster a steady drive after halftime of any sort, but did give the home fans something to buzz about in the closing moments as Terry Jones took a hand-off and sliced off-tackle for a 91-yard jaunt to paydirt.

Welch Tallies Northwest drove 55 yards early in the game following the opening kickoff for its first score.

The Rangers did it all on the ground as they completely baffled the Knights with their reverses and fake hand-offs and a rollout pattern by quarterback Bob Welch.

The two key plays in the drive were a 30-yard gallop by Welch on third down as he faked a hand-off and rolled to the right side to reach the Knights 20, then with a fourth down at the Knights 6 Welch again faked a hand-off to one of his backs and rolled to the left side this time for his first TD of the afternoon. Terry Jones blocked the attempted PAT.

Minutes later following a Lake-Lehman punt the Rangers drove from the Knights 47 to the eight before a fourth down pass was batted down in the endzone.

Take 12-0 Lead Early in the second period Dave Spencer punted out of bounds at his own 43 to give the Rangers good field position once again.

This time it took the Rangers just eight plays to hit paydirt as Larry Whitebread bucked over from the three yard stripe following a 21-yard scamper. Again the PAT was blocked by a host of on-rushing white jerseys.

Minutes later another Spencer punt was partially blocked and Northwest took over on the Lake-Lehman 39.

Welch To Whitebread Two running plays by both Welch and Whitebread moved the pignis to the 13 from where Welch hit Whitebread with a 13 yard pass for the third Ranger touchdown and an 18-0 lead.

Aerial Attack The Knights down 18-0 bounced back on the ensuing kick-off as they moved 79 yards in nine plays for their first score on the passing

Two big third down plays kept the Knights moving. Kent Jones made a fine fingertip catch of a Dubil pass good for 21 yards at the Rangers 49 yard line, then on the next series of downs Terry Jones attempting to throw deep was hit from behind and on the way down was able to flip the ball to Dubil who scampered 35 yards to the Northwest 7 where he was shoved out of bounds. With the clock running out the Knights lined up without a huddle and executed the halfback pass this time, Terry Jones to Marty Cipolla in the endzone for the score. Terry Jones followed with the PAT on a kick. Fumbles Costly Midway in the third period the Knights moved the ball from their own 41 to the Northwest 27 before a fumble halted the Lake-Lehman threat. Playing great defensive ball the Knights continued to drop the Ranger backs for losses and forced them into another punting situation with Bill Kanasky returning 25 yards to midfield but a clipping penalty pushed the Knights back to their own 23. Two plays later a fumble gave Northwest possession on the Knights 35 from where the Rangers moved for their final score in ten plays: Welch smashing in from the one yard line. Key play in the drive was an 18 yard pass to Larry Whitebread on a fourth down and six situation placing the ball on the one yard line. Welch followed up the TD with a plunge for the PAT to give Northwest a 25-7 lead midway in the final period. Reserves Move In At this point visiting coach Joe Charney began giving his reserves some action and Lake-Lehman took advantage after halting a Northwest drive on a pass interception by Bill Kanasky. Kanasky returned from the two to the nine yard line from where Terry Jones took a hand-off and sliced over his own right tackle and scooted 91 yards to paydirt. His attempted PAT was wide. Sideline It was Parents' Day, honoring the parents of the Lake-Lehman gridders and each mother received a corsage and the fathers a cigar from their sons on behalf of the school. . . Mr. Belles, supervising principal, congratulated and thanked the parents for their cooperation.

Frank Kardell, bowling for Besecker's, turned in a 212 game in the third against Boyd White's last Monday to take honors with the highest score.

Everyone had a bad night with no one piling up 560 or more pins for the three games. Kardell's team mate, Bill Lawler, also spilled 204 in one game; B. Shuster hit 210 and Paul Schalm had 202 for Automatic; George Seeley had 202 for Guyette's and Sherm Harter scored 200 for Harter's Dairy.

Automatic took all 4 games from Guyette's. Stanton TV won 3 from Harter's and Besecker's and White's split 2-2.

Sunday Night Mixed

Three other teams seem to have chosen names. Maturi's team has evidently adopted the name of Bob-CAT's and this week, Ed Ratcliffe's team carried the name of RAT-PACK; Ed Roth's bowled under Sparklers and Henry Moyer's gang are Hank Pankies. I get the name RAT from Ratcliffe and I guess the pack is made up of Eleanor Moyer, Harold Titman and Dot Huston. I guess Henry (Hank) Moyer calls his group, Betty Stanley, Jim Huston and Doris Maturi his PANKIES, but are Ed Roth, Grace Wilson, Ronnie Maturi, and Thelma Ratcliffe really Sparklers? Maybe next week, Sherwood Wilson and Jack Stanley can come up with some original names for their teams.

Well, the BobCAT's and the RatPacks featured the high scorers Sunday night. Bob Maturi led the BobCats with 534 pins and Eleanor Moyer paced the Rat Pack with 172 (468). Ed Roth led Sparklers with 202 and Grace Wilson had 165. Pauline Roth and Allie Heffernan with 168 each led the Wilson and Stanley teams, respectively. The Sparklers had 1876 total pins.

Ladies' Country Joe's Pizza won all 4 points from Pinebrook and Forty Fort copped all 4 from Brothers 4 last Tuesday. Bocar and Fashion Vending split 2-2.

Leading Joe's to victory was Bernie Pape, top scorer of the night, as she piled up 191-180 (375). El Olenik hit 161 and Flo Allabaugh had 160. Anita Matte was tops for Pinebrook with 165-164 (478).

Marge McCarty with 178-167 (500), Peg Williams hitting 183-163 (493), Rose Novroski rolling 190-167 (497) and Arlene Hospodar with 177 (484) did the work for Forty Fort Lumber as the team took honors with 821 (2341) total pins.

Lila Lozo with 172-178 (485) and Liz Weale with 177 were top scorers for Brothers.

Evelyn Roberts topped the scoring on Bocar's team with 173-178-167 (518). Sally had 176. Fashion featured Marie Bellas with 169-176 (493) and Helen Bonomo hitting 161.

Neighborhood There were no records broken Thursday night in the Back Mountain Neighborhood League. L. Fortey copped scoring honors with 200-207 (602) for Payne Printery and the team won 3 points from Bill's Diner. Dave Eddy turned in a 218 (582) for Disque Funeral Home.

His team lost all 4 to Williams Atlantic.

M. Ragmoni led Radar Squadron to a 3 point win over Dodson's when he piled up 203 (574). Harold Kocher, Sr. was tops for Bill's Diner with 568. Don Purvin hit 566 for Gavy's as they took 3 from All-Stars.

There were other games in the 200's turned in. J. Bolton hit 202; Kocher, Jr. had 202; Heideil 216; Boston 213; Krouse 209; S. Bonomo 211 and Joe (?) had 200.

Steve Andrasco took single high honors with a 244.

Imperialettes

One series in the 500's was turned in by the Friday night girls a week ago. Jean Agnew spilled 165-193 (508) and with 178-165 by Barb Berti led her Apex team to a 3 point victory over Elston's. Evelyn Kamont hit 465 and Dot Lukacinski had 173 (464) for Elston's. Jean Miller posted a 169.

Citgo lost 4 points to Goodman despite a nice 167-176 (490) by Barb Eglistis and 165 by Edie Shaffer. Goodman featured Lillian Trudnak with 175 (460), Jane Cornell with 164 and Dot Nieman with 180.

O'Malia and Garrity split 2-2. Jewell Thompson led Garrity with 164 (463). Gordon's won 3 from Menneguzzo's. Doris Amos hit 161 and Helen Bonomo 168 for Gordon's.

Goodman won team honors with 2185 total pins.

Dallas Woman's Club

Sage is leading the league with 11 points followed by Paprika with 10. Paprika won all team honors last week with 582 (1577) total pins.

Virginia Payne and Eleanor Moyer shared honors for individual scoring. Eleanor had 171 (452) and Virginia had 169 (454). Fran Cowett and Carol Bayliss each posted 168.

Drust Family Bags 10 Ducks

Joseph Drust, Monroe Avenue, Dallas, and his boys were among early risers on the opening day of duck season which opened at 7:10, sunrise, Saturday. Joseph Drust, Sr. and his sons, Joseph, Jr., 15½ and Eugene, 12 and a cousin, Leonard Witezak, Wilkes-Barre, drove almost to Wyalusing and hunted along the Susquehanna. By 10 a.m., they had filled their basket with ten ducks.

The limit was three each, or a total of 12, but the group stopped with ten, fearful of going over their limit of wood ducks by getting more of them instead of two more mallards. Each hunter is allowed two wood ducks and one mallard.

The Drust boys learned to distinguish the different kinds of ducks in a course given by the Pennsylvania Game Commission on Memorial Highway, called "Hunter Safety." They also learned to shoot on the wing, which is more sportsmanlike, and to fish only with flies. They will use the feathers from their ducks to make flies for fishing.

into the ball game, quarterback Steve Townsend directed an aerial attack that moved Dallas to the Wyoming 25 before running out of steam with the Warriors taking over on their own 25 with one minute and 15 seconds showing on the clock.

Statistics Dallas held a big edge in first downs, chalking up fourteen compared to seven for Wyoming, but failed to come up with the big plays when needed.

Dallas completed only eight of twenty-five passes, while Wyoming hit on five of seven attempts.

DALLAS HOME AGAINST NEWPORT; LAKE-LEHMAN IDLE

This Saturday's action on the local grid scene will find only one contest being played, Dallas hosting Newport on the Dallas field, while Lake-Lehman is idle.

Having been rained out in its originally scheduled home opener with Northwest, Dallas will try and make its initial home appearance a successful one against a weaker Newport eleven.

Dallas having played four successful games on enemy soil has compiled a 2-2 record. Newport on the other hand has an 0-2 record coming into this fray, having lost to Northwest 26-7 in its opener and last week lost to Plains 20-0.

Lake-Lehman hopes to take advantage of this bye to prepare for its next encounter against Newport next Saturday, while Dallas will be pitted against West Side Central Catholic.

Joe, Jr., is a junior at Westside Catholic High School and attended Gate of Heaven for eight years. They got licenses from Caddie La-Bar.
