

Bloomsburg College Schedules Sixth Spring Arts Festival

Sixth annual Spring Arts Festival at Bloomsburg State College (April 20-30) will once again bring to the campus outstanding figures in literature, music, painting, and the dramatic arts.

A feature of this year's Festival is the arrangement whereby most of the noted personalities will be on campus for at least an entire day and some for several days, making themselves available to students for consultation and for panel discussions. In the past the guest speakers and performers have been limited nearly always to a single appearance.

Highlighting the list of celebrated guests invited to the Festival are the following:

Richard Wilbur, one of the two or three great poets in America today, whose poetry has won international recognition and earned such awards as the Prix de Rome, Pulitzer Prize, and National Book Award. Mr. Wilbur's translations from the French of several plays by Moliere have become the most successful and popular translations in English, and a Wilbur translation of one of Moliere's comedies will furnish the text for a Bloomsburg Players' production during the Festival.

Stanley Kauffmann, one of the nation's most outstanding drama and film critics, who is also a writer for The New Republic, the author of a book on movies, A World on Film, and the writer and producer of an educational TV film series, "The Art of the Film," which won a New York "Emmy" Award in 1965. For many years a drama critic for The New York Times, Mr. Kauffmann is now drama critic for New York's educational TV Channel 13.

Douglas Watson, prominent actor who has had major roles in many successful Broadway and off-Broadway productions, and was a featured player in the Shakespeare Theater at Stratford, Connecticut. Mr. Watson has also appeared in major roles in two Hollywood movies, "Sayonara" and "Julius Caesar," "Winner of the Variety acting award and the Derwent acting award. Douglas Watson has given notable performances in such successful Broadway plays as Man For All Seasons, De-International language of song." Under the Elms, Confidential Clerk (in which he had the leading role) and Anthony and Cleopatra.

Jean Erdman, choreographer and modern dancer, who performed several years as a soloist for the Martha Graham Dance Company. She left to form a company and school of her own, which has brought her international recognition. In recent seasons she has adapted, choreographed, directed, and performed in The Coach With Six Insides, a prize-winning show that toured colleges and universities for three years. This winter she did the choreography for Yerma, presented at the Lincoln Center in New York. She is now head of the Dance Theatre at New York University.

Soulina Stravinsky, concert pianist, whose concert engagements have covered most European countries, South America, and the United States. Born in Lausanne, Switzerland, and the son of the great composer Igor Stravinsky, he came to this country in 1948 and has appeared with major orchestras and given numerous recitals here and in Canada.

In addition there will be four outstanding painters from Pennsylvania State University and Lock Haven and Lycoming colleges, who will hold an exhibition of their paintings and participate in panel and group discussions.

Bloomsburg State College's own contribution to the Festival will be a dramatic production of a play by Moliere (based on a translation by the poet Richard Wilbur) and a performance by the B. S. C. Concert Choir of Honegger's "King David," which will climax the Festival on Sunday afternoon, April 30.

Two well-known and critically acclaimed foreign films — No Exit (French) and Don Quixote (Russian) will also be shown during the Festival.

Specific schedule stating the dates and times of the Festival events at the College from April 20-30 will be announced at a later date. As always, Bloomsburg State College welcomes the general public to its Spring Arts Festival. There is no admission charge, and all events will be held in Carver Hall.

Gov. Shafer, Gen. Eisenhower, Hail Gettysburg College Choir

Newly-inaugurated Gov. Raymond P. Shafer and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower have cited the Gettysburg College Choir on the announcement that the group will make a six-week around-the-world concert tour of 14 countries this summer.

In one of his first official duties, the new Governor of Pennsylvania proclaimed the choir members "Special Musical Ambassadors of the Commonwealth."

Former President Eisenhower praised the choir's "mission of goodwill and friendship through the international language of song." Terming them "apprentice ambassadors," he noted that the young people are "preparing themselves to answer today's urgent call to serve the cause of world peace."

President C. A. Hanson of Gettysburg College asserted that "it is the mission of this choir, in concerts around the world, to spread a hymn of peace and good will through their music and by their example."

While it is not especially unusual for college choirs to sing abroad,

Elizabeth Smith To Go To National College

Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Smith, Shrine View, Dallas, has been accepted for admission to National College of Education, Evanston-Wilmette, Illinois, for the term beginning September 18.

National College of Education is offering a new curriculum on a "new" campus, with doubled building space. In the new liberal arts curriculum leading to the bachelor of arts degree majors are available in seven subject-matter fields. The professional sequence in elementary education continues the superior program of preparation for elementary teachers for which National College has been noted since 1886. The College awards the master of education degree in the Graduate School.

Miss Smith is a graduate of Holton-Arms High School.

Sgt. Jack L. Givens Now In California

Sgt. Jack L. Givens, Bunker Hill, is attending a two week tour of annual duty at the large Marine Station at ElToro, Santa Anna, Cal.

The course is designed to enhance combat readiness of squadrons and to improve technical proficiency of each individual reservist. Included in the course is a three day field problem to test squadron capability to perform an assigned mission under simulated combat conditions.

Sgt. Givens is the son of Mrs. Iris Givens, Kingston, and the late Carl Givens, Trucksville, and is the husband of the former Beverly Ann Stuart. He is a member of the 2nd Motor Transport Squadron of the U. S. Marine Corps Reserve in Wyoming.

Commonwealth Declares Quarterly Dividend

A. J. Sordani, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Commonwealth Telephone Company announced that the Directors at their meeting today (Jan. 25) declared the 63rd consecutive quarterly common dividend. The dividend at the rate of 23c per share is payable February 15 to shareholders of record February 3, 1967.

Mr. Sordani stated that revenue for the year 1966 was up 12.5% over the year 1965. End of period earnings per share were $1.60 compared with $1.64 for the year 1965. Average earnings per share were $1.67 compared with $1.64 in 1965. Last June the Company sold 86,800 shares of common stock.

only one, Wittenburg, has ever made a globe-circling sojourn.

Participating in the choir takes a great deal of the student's time when he is not studying. There are five rehearsals a week. Each member must memorize over 200 pages of music.

The tour will cost each choir member over $1000. To help earn their fares, many have worked at part-time jobs for over a year. They have done baby-sitting, sold sandwiches and candles, worked in college offices, waited on table, done yard work and played in professional music groups.

Three boys built a bridge over a small stream on the property of a Gettysburg professor. This spring, on May 12, the choir will sponsor a public auction of farm equipment, animals, antiques and household goods in the Central Pennsylvania tradition, with a goal of $1500.

The typical member of the choir has had several years of experience in choral singing before coming to college. He may have taken voice instruction, or he may be studying voice now. He had to pass rigorous auditions in the fall.

Gettysburg is an undergraduate, liberal arts college with enrollment just short of 1900. It is supported partially by the Lutheran Church in America's Central Pennsylvania and Maryland Synods, which are also represented on the institution's Board of Trustees.

— READ THE TRADING POST —

Local Man Named To New Post By District Attorney

Eric Vrhel, Monsey, N.Y., formerly of Carverton, is shown above as Vrhel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erich Vrhel, proprietors of Park Motel, Carverton Road, Trucksville. He is vice president of Sovereign Paper Company, Monsey, N.J.

The young man formerly served as a private investigator and is well qualified for his new post in crime detection. It was for this reason that District Attorney Meehan has added Vrhel to his staff.

Record Crowd Attends Jackson Township Anniversary Dinner

Approximately 165 persons attended the 20th anniversary banquet of the Jackson Twp. Volunteer Fire Co. on Saturday night, February 4, at Russian Hall, Edwardsville. The affair was catered by Konefals. The dinner was delicious, the service excellent. Past-president Richard Holadick gave thanks for the food for those present and especially for the dedicated firemen and auxiliary.

President Carl Aston introduced the officers for the present year, interspersing the introductions with a couple well-chosen stories. Officers besides Aston are: vice-president, Peter Lincoln, treasurer, Henry Zbick, secretary, Bob Cooper, Fire Chief, Dale Wright, Charter members of the Fire Company were presented with life membership cards.

Auxiliary president Caroline Esser introduced her officers: vice-president Marjorie Zbick, secretary, Shirley Gensel and Treasurer Millie Yanchik. She presented the firemen with a check for $500, as has been customary each year.

Retiring president Richard Holadick gave a report on the financial status of the organization, the accomplishments of the past year. The receipts from the trust fund and the aims for the future.

Dancing and a social time followed. Everyone there had a good time and a deeper appreciation of the fire company and community.

CHILD NEEDS TO LEARN HOW TO HANDLE MONEY

When a child is given an opportunity to learn that handling an allowance is an experience in money management, he is better prepared to manage money in later years.

It's difficult for a young person to manage money if he has never had any to manage, reminds Helen E. Bell, extension home management specialist of The Pennsylvania State University.

If a child is entitled to his fair share of the family income, then parents can teach him that he is to share in the responsibilities of the family. This is usually a better approach than paying him for the jobs he does around the house, she points out.

Parents and child should discuss the amount of the allowance and agree on what it is to cover. If it is to cover recreation, school supplies, part or all of the clothing, and goodies to eat with his friends, it should be clearly agreed upon so he understands. He will be in a better position to plan his personal expenditures because of it.

The amount of an allowance must be realistic and what the family can afford. It will vary with the age of the child and his needs, what he will spend it for, and his ability to shoulder responsibility, says Miss Bell.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Carl J. Gladey USN Is Off Virginia Capes

Seaman, Carl J. Gladey, USN, stepson of John F. Czarnecki, Route 2, Dallas, is at sea off the Virginia Capes participating in a week-long operation as a crewmember aboard the attack aircraft carrier Forrestal.

The operation will give the newest crewmembers an opportunity to familiarize themselves with their duties as members of shipboard divisions.

Besides on-the-job training, every man will take part in general drills so that each knows his job and does exactly the right thing in an emergency or state of alert.

The operational cruise follows a major nine-month yard period at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard, Portsmouth, Va.

Soup Sale

The Friendship Class of Lehman Methodist Church is sponsoring a vegetable soup sale February 14 at the church. Orders may be given to Mrs. Joseph Ellsworth by Sunday, February 12. Soup will be picked up by noon. Please bring your own containers.

Mrs. Charles Nuss is chairman.

MAKES GOOD CATCH

Francis Keen, Wilkes-Barre, was cited in The Pennsylvania Angler for catching a 34 1/2 inch, 16 pound Lake Trout in Harveys Lake.

Misericordia Seniors Started Student Teaching Monday

Forty seniors of College Misericordia began student teaching assignments in the elementary and secondary schools of Dallas-Lake-Lehman areas on Monday, January 30.

Dallas Elementary student teachers are: Joan Bozza, Trucksville; Barbara DeLucia, Dallas Elementary; Rose DiGirolamo, Westmoreland; Jane Garrity, Shavertown; Carol Gulla, Westmoreland; Carol Connelly, Dallas Elementary; Barbara Gallipio, Dallas Elementary; June Sidol, Dallas Elementary; Maureen Capuzzi, Trucksville. Cooperating teachers of the Dallas elementary student teachers are: Mrs. Ralph Garris, Mrs. William Austin, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Kromelbein, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Arlene Rood, Mrs. Colwell, Mrs. Hughes, Miss Bonnie Austin.

Dallas Junior High School: Margaret McLaughlin, English; Mary Gardner, Home Economics; Jane Doyle, Mathematics. Cooperating teachers are: Mrs. Judith Cathrall, Mrs. Marietta Gay, Mr. Frederick Case.

Dallas Senior High School: Paula Charnosky, English; Carolyn Lay-aou, Chemistry; Nancy Cinelli, Music; Barbara Hardy, Secretarial Science; Corrine Jennings, Biology;

Edward A. Fritzing Trains With Marines

Marine Private First Class Edward A. Fritzing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fritzing, Midland Drive, Dallas, is undergoing two weeks of intensive training at the Marine Corps Air Facility, El Toro, Calif., as a Marine Corps Reserve.

The training is designed to enhance the combat readiness of the squadron and to improve the technical proficiency of each individual reservist.

Included in this training is a three-day field problem which will test the squadron's capability to perform its assigned mission under simulated combat conditions.

Sharon Cullather, French. Cooperating teachers are: Mr. Hopkins, Mrs. Moran, Mr. Stemplewski, Mr. Lewis, Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. Lang, Miss Sullivan, Mr. Husband, Mrs. Johnson, Miss Sliker.

Lake-Lehman elementary school student teachers are: Mary Ellen Heckmer, Lehman; Jean Ferri and Elaine Nicholas, Ross; Betsy Grimes, Lehman; Mary Jean Montante and Mary Carol Maslowsky, Lake. Cooperating teachers are: Miss Hannah Culp, Mrs. Gelia O'Leary, Mrs. Marie Baer, Mrs. Dorothy Steels, Mrs. Bethia King and Mrs. Thelma Culp.

Lake-Lehman High School: Victoria Januzzi, English; Barbara Marinko, English; Barbara McCormick, English; Sandra Switoyus, Art; Geraldine Yenalevitch, Chemistry; Linda Sarnese, Secretarial Science; Kathleen Kehoe, Home Economics; Margaret Chulvich, History; Mary C. Brown, Social Studies; Theresa Hebda, Spanish; Marie Morone, Biology; Karen Tallia, Biology; Barbara Mandel, Mathematics; Marcia Kolonoski, Mathematics. Cooperating teachers are: Mr. Wilczewski, Miss Dunn, Mrs. Finn, Mrs. Cornell, Mr. Kanyuck, Mr. Narikiewicz, Mr. Zlotek, Mr. Andrusis, Miss Bator, Mrs. Lukasavage, Miss Lamoreux, Mrs. Worth, Mr. Thresten, Mrs. Marchakitus, Mr. Jenkins, Miss Baer, Mr. Gulbish, Mr. Edwards, Mrs. Smith.

Dallas Senior High School: Paula Charnosky, English; Carolyn Lay-aou, Chemistry; Nancy Cinelli, Music; Barbara Hardy, Secretarial Science; Corrine Jennings, Biology;

Dallas Senior High School: Paula Charnosky, English; Carolyn Lay-aou, Chemistry; Nancy Cinelli, Music; Barbara Hardy, Secretarial Science; Corrine Jennings, Biology;

Edward A. Fritzing Trains With Marines

Marine Private First Class Edward A. Fritzing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fritzing, Midland Drive, Dallas, is undergoing two weeks of intensive training at the Marine Corps Air Facility, El Toro, Calif., as a Marine Corps Reserve.

The training is designed to enhance the combat readiness of the squadron and to improve the technical proficiency of each individual reservist.

Included in this training is a three-day field problem which will test the squadron's capability to perform its assigned mission under simulated combat conditions.

The operational cruise follows a major nine-month yard period at the Norfolk Naval Shipyard, Portsmouth, Va.

Soup Sale

The Friendship Class of Lehman Methodist Church is sponsoring a vegetable soup sale February 14 at the church. Orders may be given to Mrs. Joseph Ellsworth by Sunday, February 12. Soup will be picked up by noon. Please bring your own containers.

Mrs. Charles Nuss is chairman.

MAKES GOOD CATCH

Francis Keen, Wilkes-Barre, was cited in The Pennsylvania Angler for catching a 34 1/2 inch, 16 pound Lake Trout in Harveys Lake.

CHILD NEEDS TO LEARN HOW TO HANDLE MONEY

When a child is given an opportunity to learn that handling an allowance is an experience in money management, he is better prepared to manage money in later years.

It's difficult for a young person to manage money if he has never had any to manage, reminds Helen E. Bell, extension home management specialist of The Pennsylvania State University.

If a child is entitled to his fair share of the family income, then parents can teach him that he is to share in the responsibilities of the family. This is usually a better approach than paying him for the jobs he does around the house, she points out.

Parents and child should discuss the amount of the allowance and agree on what it is to cover. If it is to cover recreation, school supplies, part or all of the clothing, and goodies to eat with his friends, it should be clearly agreed upon so he understands. He will be in a better position to plan his personal expenditures because of it.

The amount of an allowance must be realistic and what the family can afford. It will vary with the age of the child and his needs, what he will spend it for, and his ability to shoulder responsibility, says Miss Bell.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.

Children learn money management when their allowance is stable. Parents should avoid using the withdrawal of allowance as a discipline measure. Money management is one thing; discipline is another.