John Elenchik Marking 86th Birthday April 3, At Jackson

Celebrating his 86th birthday anniversary April 3, will be John Elenchik, Jackson Township, who remains in excellent health for his years.

Mr. Elenchik, who was born in Austria Hungary, lost his parents at the age of five years and three years later came to the United States with a sister-in-law. His first place of settlement was in Plymouth and as was the trend in those days, the young immigrant was soon working as a slate picker in the mines of Wyoming Valley.

In 1913 he moved to Jackson Township where he has since resided, farming the land and working at Loree Colliery No. 3. He retired from a life of hard work about 15 years ago and maintains his interest in the farm which his son Frank now cares for.

He and his late wife were the parents of 12 children, nine of whom survive, Mary, at home; John, Dallas; Mrs. John Bebey, Outlet; Frank, at home; Joseph, Shavertown; Mrs. Anthony Hudak, Dallas; Mrs. Francis Manzoni, Jackson Township; Mrs. Douglas Harrison, Shickshinny and Mrs. Stephen Stash, Chase. There are also 31 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. Elenchik is a member of St. Stephen's Church, Plymouth. With another year quietly passing by, Mr. Elenchik is anxiously awaiting the springtime when he can spend most of his time outdoors and chat occasionally with his neighbors who call to buy his berries, which are said to be among the finest grown locally.

Family members will be gathering to mark their father's birthday.
