

Jackson Twp.

Mrs. Joseph Gibbons called to tell me about her new granddaughter. Mr. Gibbons is happy to have her home again. He was becoming tired of his own coking and he especially missed her company evenings after the television ceased to function. Mrs. Gibbons was in Chicago for eleven days with daughter Ellen and her family. This was the sixth granddaughter for the Gibbons. Son John also has three girls.

Strawberry Social
There will be an old-fashioned ice cream and strawberry social at the Jackson Methodist Church on Friday, June 30th, beginning at 5 p.m. The "Seniors" Sunday School Class, with their teacher, Mrs. Audrey Vietz, are sponsoring it. Complete menu has not as yet been planned, but we will report on that later. In the meantime, circle the date on your calendar, and plan to attend. A bake-sale will be held in connection with the social. Home-made bread, rolls and cinnamon buns are always made for these Jackson Church bake sales, and you have my word for it, they are top quality.

Isn't it a pleasant relief to be able to turn on the television or radio again and not be annoyed by the political "spot" announcements? It reached the point at our house that the radio was turned on only for the news. We really enjoyed the warm sunshine on election day, but the wind was a little too cool. It is always nice to greet so many people. Justice of the Peace Robert Culp said it reminded him of a funeral, there were so many acquaintances there he never saw at other times.

Margaret Yascur, one of the ladies on our election board, told me she meant to call me with an item, but waited too late. She had a birthday right on Mother's Day this year. I'll take this opportunity to belatedly congratulate her. In her house, every day is mother's day. Incidentally, she and her husband are building the home across from Bombick's Bar. We also wish to express sympathy of the community to the Yascur family. Leo's mother died after a lengthy illness. She had been a resident of our area for many years.

Warren Gensel is back in school after an absence because of mumps. Denise Sherwood is back in school after having had the mumps. Her father contracted them, and is quite ill with them at the present writing. Mr. Robert Sherwood is employed by Commonwealth Telephone. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Bill Young, Chase Manor, was ill at his home last week with a severe sore throat. Billy is a Senior at Lake-Lehman and liked Washington, D.C. so well on the class trip there, that he has decided to go to Business College, then apply for work in the busy Capitol.

Mrs. Justine Zapotski is spending several weeks with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Emerick, Chase Road.

Mr. Edward Sehrama says they receive their son's mail from Vietnam regularly, but mail from them is very slow reaching him. They had sent him a camera he had requested. It was late in arriving or he would have had a spectacular picture. He (Edward Jr.) saw two helicopters crash in mid-air almost overhead.

Talented Student
Miss Mary Ruggere, of Chase Manor, has other talents besides those she displays in Science. Sunday evening three one-act plays were produced in the Auditorium at Central Catholic High School, each play directed by a member of the Senior Class. Mary had the distinction of directing the Sophomore play, "A Thing of Beauty," which had a cast of six characters.

Absolved
We are glad to learn that a coroner's jury has absolved Steve Yench, of Weavertown Road, of any guilt in the accidental death of Martin Kasper, Plymouth. The man was lying in the road and, unseen by Yench, was struck, resulting in his death. The reason for his being on the road has not been established.

Two young friends here will be celebrating birthdays this next week, within a few days of each other. Marty Saparito's is on May 29th and Calvin Gensel's on June 2nd. We wish them both a carefree summer.

Entertains
Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gensel entertained a few friends at a post election party after the polls closed on Tuesday. The party was held in their beautiful game room. A tasty late supper was served to: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bertram, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Laskowski, Mr. Leo Rutkowski, Mr. Edgar Lashford, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lamoreaux, Miss Johanna Laskowski, Mr. Gary Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Rice, the host, hostess and sons Keith, Calvin, and Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bertram spent the last weekend in Romulus, N.Y., with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Lopasky.

Mr. Bernard Banks, Jr., has agreed to meet with a few leading citizens of Jackson Township shortly to discuss services provided by the Committee of Economic Opportunity of Luzerne County, a non profit organization and how they could be made useful to our community.
