

Fernbrook

Married Fifty Six Years

A Happy family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cook E. Overbrook Avenue, to celebrate the 56th wedding anniversary of this friendly couple. In to join the festivities were, Miss Betty Jane Cook, New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kamore, Philadelphia, grandchildren, Debbie, Chris, Jennifer, and Barbara, Mrs. Della Thompson, Miss J. Knorr, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Cook, Midland Texas, and grandson, Scott Hampton Cook aged 15 months.

The Cooks were especially delighted, as this was the first time they had seen their little grandson born fifteen months ago. Congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Cook.

Mrs. Warren Evans E. Overbrook Avenue, has been taken up residence at the Wright Home, Vernon. The neighbors gathered at her home on Overbrook Avenue, Saturday morning to bid her goodbye and present her with a going away gift. Best wishes in your new home Mrs. Evans.

Vandalism Again

Vandalism struck again, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allan E. Overbrook Avenue, in the wee hours of Saturday morning. The family, awakened by a car pulling in the driveway of their home, was surprised to see several young men emerge and begin destruction of the white picket fence surrounding their home; this achieved, they commenced to throw bottles on the front lawn and cause a general disturbance. Police were called, but the culprits escaped before their arrival.

Gary Ostrum, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ostrum, Memorial Highway, entered the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital on Wednesday, Gary, who is a student at Shavertown Elementary School, will undergo eye surgery.

We sincerely wish a speedy recovery to this nice little boy. If you are a friend of Gary's drop him a card, as I'm certain he would be delighted to hear from you.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daley Fernbrook, were proud godparents to Robert Ankudovich, at Christ Lutheran Church Wilkes-Barre on Sunday, May 11th.

Mrs. Ira Button E. Overbrook Avenue, suffered a heart attack at her home on last Wednesday night, taken to the Nesbitt Hospital in the community ambulance, she remains a patient there. Her daughter, Mrs. Truman Stewart, Stroudsburg is here.

Thomas Jones, E. Overbrook Avenue, celebrated his birthday June 13th having reached the wonderful age of eight years. Hope you had a happy day Tommy.

Bill and I and daughter Lisa Marie spent last Friday night in the emergency ward at Nesbitt Hospital, where we had taken her after she fell off her bike and injured her knee. The injury was so severe, she was prevented from attending school this week, and is still under treatment of our family physician.

Little Kevin Finney, E. Overbrook Avenue, celebrated his second birthday on June 13th.

Have you noticed the large amount of inch worms and beetles that have invaded our territory? Seems like one cannot step outdoors unless one is invaded by these crawling things. Bob is particularly impressed with the endurance of the bees. Attacking them with every kind of insect repellent, they return again and again to the source of the hive. In this case it happens to be beneath the rocks used as a pathway to our backdoor.

say Dad... ever wonder how Mom got the money

Come Sunday morning, will you be one of the millions of fathers who are forever amazed?

Will you look at your new fishing reel or power tool or camera... and wonder: "How did Mom get the money?"

You'll know she didn't rob a bank... and she didn't sell the car.

Maybe, just maybe, we can give you a hint.

Is Mom an A&P shopper?

Could it be that the savings she makes each week of the year add up to so much?

Why not ask her?

Before you do though, better take a quick look in the garage to make sure the car's still there.
