Murder, Suicide Near Mossville

Murder and suicide touched the area Tuesday night, as a West Nanticoke man shot his wife in the presence of his two sons, disposed of the body in a pond, and then blew out his brains.

Felix Piszeyek, 41, shot his wife Alice in the family car, dropped Loyalville, and drove to the home Rinehimer Insurance, Gordon Diettrick Ins. of a close friend at Fairmount Springs with the children.

An Inch At A Time

It's been too much like cutting off a man's leg one inch at a time, this Senatorial censuring of Senator Dodd. So, he needed censuring.

And so do a lot of the other representatives of the people, in both chambers of Congress. What is the percentage in making a career of it?

We can think of a lot more important work to be done by Congress in these uneasy times.

Those pen and ink drawings done five years ago by Gregory Beisel, are still in good supply, a set in each folder. Bill Moss dug them out of the Barn, and induced Girl Scouts to sort them into sets. Patty Brobst, Meredith and Holly Mansley, and Kathy Burke, did the sorting. The folders contain an explanatory page, giving the history of the Back Mountain Memorial Library, and a list of the pen and ink drawings contained.

The first folders of drawings, all suitable for framing, were sold for five dollars. They're bargain priced this year. Don't fail to get a folder. You'll never again have a chance to
