Home Builders Hold Summer Dinner Meeting
"Conservation, Reliability, and Beautification of Luzerne County," was discussed by Wilbur Shorts, a past President of the Home Builders Association of Northeastern Pennsylvania and treasurer of the Luzerne County Planning Commission at the summer dinner meeting of the home builders in Continental Inn.

Shorts stressed the permanency of the project, described as the first of its kind in the eastern part of the United States. He explained the roles which builders, subcontractors, suppliers and utility firms will play in this ambitious and extensive program.

He was introduced by Robert S. Tippet, president, Westmoreland Hills, who also introduced the chairman and co-chairman for the annual outing set for July 29 at Rocky Glen. Joseph Murtha is chairman assisted by Dick Santee.
