CASSEROLE OF STARLING

As with other small birds, it's not worth the effort to pluck and draw starlings. All of the meat is on the breast and the quickest and simplest way you can get it out is the best!

You will need 8 or 10 for the casserole and they should, of course, be soaked in salt water for a short period to draw the blood. However, I dislike soaking the small birds too long because the salt water draws out all the flavor. Two hours is about the limit.

Place the breasts in the casserole, brush with butter and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 10 minutes, then add liquid from a 4 ounce can of mushrooms, 1/4 cup red wine and 1/2 cup water in which 1 beef or chicken bouillon cube has been dissolved. Reduce heat to slow (300 degrees) and continue baking until breasts are tender. Ten minutes before removing from oven, add mushrooms, 2 cups sliced onion which have been sauteed in butter until brown and 1 cup peeled and seeded Malaga grapes. Always keep the casserole covered when in the oven.

TROUT EN PAPILOTES

"En Papillotes" means prepared and served in paper and to experience trout at their zenith try them in this fashion. It takes a bit of doing but the fine flavors blended into the trout, together with the novelty of eating it from the paper pouch in which it was cooked, make it indeed worth while!

Allow 1 or 2 small trout per person, depending on your supply. Clean trout, dust with flour, and lightly brown in olive oil in skillet. It is important not to fry the fish too long.

Prepare a dressing by sauteing 4 tablespoons chopped onion, 4 tablespoons diced green pepper and 1/2 clove garlic (minced) in 4 tablespoons butter for 5 minutes. Mix with 1/2 cup bread crumbs, 1/2 cup cooked rice and 1 two-ounce can mushrooms cut up. Moisten with a little of the mushrooms liquid or additional melted butter.

Make a spread by mincing 6 shrimp, 3 anchovy filets, 2 green onions and 1/2 clove garlic. Simmer mixture for a few minutes in 4 tablespoons butter.

Oil a square of brown paper for each person to be served and in the center of each place the 1 or 2 small trout allowed. On top of the browned trout place 2 tablespoons of the dressing and 1 tablespoon of the spread. Fold the edges and ends of the paper together tightly, fasten with small skewers or paper clips, and bake the package 5 minutes in a hot oven (425 degrees). Open the packages at the table.

CATFISH CHOWDER

You owe it to yourself and to your family — as the old saying goes — to serve catfish chowder at least once, and from then on you are hooked! Like many really fine dishes, it takes a bit of preparation. But it is a one-dish meal, so it has its compensations.

Fry out 1/2 pound diced bacon or salt pork in a kettle and set aside the chittlings. In the drippings, fry 2 medium onions (coarsely chopped) until transparent, about 5 minutes. Add 2 cups canned tomatoes and juice, 2 cups diced potatoes, 2 six-inch ribs of celery, 2 pounds of catfish cut into fork-size pieces, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon horseradish and 1 bay leaf. Cook for 25 minutes, or until potatoes are done. Stir in the fried bacon or salt pork chittlings and serve.

Edgar D. Turner, 20, son of Mrs. Florence G. Turner and the late Willis C. Turner, was promoted to Army specialist four August 16 in Vietnam, where he is serving with the U.S. Army Strategic Communications Command.

Spec. Turner, a communications center specialist in the command's U.S. Army Regional Communications Group headquarters, entered the Army in February 1966 and was stationed in Germany before arriving overseas in July 1967.

Before entering the Army he was employed by Trumbower's Economy Market.
