The little finger of his left hand was fractured and will be in a splint for 3 weeks.

Two At Geisinger

Louis R. Stolfi, Haddonfield Hills, and Robert A. Pesavento, Dallas, RD 1, are patients at Geisinger Medical Center, Danville.

Robia Wreath instructor. Mrs. Thomas Smith, Adult Program Director of the YWCA introduced J. J. Serafin, vice president and purchasing agent of Craft Associates, originators of Furniture Fashions in Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Serafin stressed the importance of good design and explained the custom made pieces created and manufactured by his firm which employs 600 persons.

He dealt a bit on the history of the furniture plant, relating it had been in existence 15 years and had been started by two men who came from Trumansburg, N.Y. Adrian Pearsall is president and designer and Richard Pearsall executive vice president of the company. Serafin described the various styles as produced and the very finest materials which go into every article made here. Various finishes and filling were discussed and he disclosed that most women buy for appearance and choose from the middle range of fabrics. He urged buyers to accept the date for filling of orders as good workmanship can not be hurried.

Mrs. Smith announced that fall classes would begin on Tuesday at 9:30 a.m., at Trinity Presbyterian Church. Those attending are asked to bring their own sandwiches. Coffee will be available. A nursery school will be ready for tots. Instructors and classes offered are Creative Stitchery, Mrs. Loren Sammel; Paper Mache, Mrs. Edward Ratcliffe; Ceramics, Mrs. William James; Della Robia Wreaths, Mrs. Leonard Adamshick; Silk Screening, Mrs. Harry B.
