Rosh Hashanah Marks The New Year Of 5728 For Ancient Jewish Faith

by Mrs. Harold Saffian
As the sun sets Wednesday evening, October 4th, Jews all over the world gather to observe the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah, one of the most ancient and sacred days in their history. The commandments for the observance of the holiday are described in the Biblical book of Leviticus, compiled three thousand years ago. According to the Hebrew calendar, the year 1967 is the Hebrew year 5728.

The Jewish New Year is markedly different in character from the joyous, exuberant celebrations of other peoples. It is a profoundly serious day, during which Jews come together to pray, to examine their acts and their relationship to God and to their fellow man, to remember the past and dedicate themselves to the future.

It is the first of the great "Days of Awe", a ten day period culminating in the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur. According to Hebrew tradition, during this ten day period man's fate is written down on Rosh Hashanah and sealed at last on the final, tenth day of Yom Kippur which begins this year at sundown, Friday, October 13.

Orthodox and Conservative Jews observe Rosh Hashanah for two days, most Reform Jews for the survival from the days after the Diaspora, when Jews were separated and communication between them was difficult; since the Hebrew calendar was a lunar one and differed from the prevailing solar calendar it was feared that an error in reckoning might deprive a Jew living in the Diaspora from observing Rosh Hashanah on the proper day.

Wyoming Valley Council Churches Offers Courses In Changing World

A five week course dealing with "Christian Growth in a Changing World," started Monday evening at First Methodist Church in Kingston, and will continue each Monday evening, 7:30 to 9:30. This is part of a continuing program sponsored by Wyoming Valley Council of Churches.

Group I offers material of special interest to teachers and potential teachers of pre-school, elementary, and Junior High School pupils. During the first hour of each Monday night session, the group will meet as a unit, separating into the three sub-divisions during the second hour.

Unit leaders for the second hour will be: Mrs. Hillard Kemp for pre-school children, Mrs. Henry H. Ward for elementary, and Miss Helen Bowser for junior high.

David J. Thomas Was Fireboss

David J. Thomas, 250 Ferguson Avenue, Shavertown, died Saturday evening at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, where he had been a patient for the past two weeks. A resident of the Back Mountain community for over three decades, Mr. Ferguson had been employed for 47 years as fireboss at the Glen Alden Coal Company.

He was born in Nanticoke, son of the late Luther and Annie Thomas. Mrs. Ferguson was a member of George M. Dallas Lodge, F&AM, Keystone Consistory, and Irem Temple. He was a member of the First Baptist Church, Wilkes-Barre.

He is survived by his wife, the former Harriet Williams, R.N., Edwardsville; one son, William W. Berwyn; a sister Mrs. Reynold Watkins, Shavertown and a brother, Robert of Nanticoke. Services were held Tuesday morning from Snowden Funeral Home, Shavertown with Rev. Henry F. Mead officiating. Interment was in Dennison Cemetery, Forty Fort.

Holy Name To Meet

Holy Name Society of Gate of Heaven and Our Lady of Victory parishes will hold its regular monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, October 8th, in Gate of Heaven Auditorium, Dallas. President Paul Heston will preside.

Interment was in Lake Winola Cemetery. Mrs. Stone died Saturday morning at her home, where she had resided for the past 15 years.

She was the former Ada Jaques, daughter of the late Edward and Sarah Davis Jaques and was born at Lake Winola. Her husband Francis passed away in 1950.

Mrs. Stone was a member of the Evans Falls Methodist Church and Daughters of America of Fleetville. She is survived by two daughters, Helen, Factoryville, and Frances, at home and a son, Arthur, also at home; a brother and two sisters.

Eugene Boston Dies At 87

Eugene Boston, 87, lifelong resident of Rickett's Glen and the son of pioneer settlers in this area, died Monday afternoon at Nesbitt Hospital.

Son of the late Ezra and Elizabeth Pace Boston, he was born on the farm where he had resided nearly all of his life, farming the land until he retired several years ago.

The original land owned by Silas Boston, great grandfather of Eugene Boston was obtained by grant of 160 acres in a wooded sector of Rickett's Glen and near the spring away from the road he built his home. Silas had two sons, Ezra and Dennis and the land was divided between them.

Eugene Boston received his share, half the acreage about 60 years ago and remodeled the original family structure several times. It was here that his daughter was born. For a period of several years he left his birthplace to work in another sector but he returned shortly to the home which held so many fond memories.

At the time the dams were being constructed and brush cleared away at Rickett's Glen, Mr. Boston walked up the steep mountain and down again in the evening at a salary of $1.25 per day, but he was instrumental in fashioning a paradise in one of the most beautiful resort areas in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Boston was the last member of a family of nine children. He was active in the affairs of his community, serving as school director of Fairmount Township and as Democratic committeeman for 35 years. He was a trustee of Bethel Hill Methodist Church of which he was a member and treasurer of the Bethel Cemetery Association.

In addition to his wife, the former Jennie Roberts, he is survived by a son, Warren, Pikes Creek; daughter, Mrs. Thelma Culp, a teacher in Lake-Lehman Schools, two grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 from Bronson Funeral Home, Sweet Valley with Rev. Oscar Saxe and Rev. Oscar Culp officiating. Interment will be in Bethel Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m.

Prince Of Peace Women Sew Articles

The Women of the Prince of Peace Church met recently in the parish house. The meeting, which was conducted by the new president, Mrs. Erich Vrhel, was preceded by a service of Holy Communion. Reports were given by officers and chairmen.

The group was led in prayer by Mrs. Carl Goeringer after which the meeting was adjourned.

Mrs. Marian Alexander, Executive Director of the Visiting Nurse Association of Wyoming Valley addressed the group. A film was shown which explained what the Visiting Nurse in action really does and accomplishes for the patients she visits.

The women then sewed much needed items for the Visiting Nurse Association. This work will be continued at next month's meeting.

Dessert and coffee were served. The following were present: Mesdames Mary Broody, Hans Dreher, Gerald J. Bango, Carl Goeringer, Jerome Gardner, John Frater, Charles Nodder, Peter J. Merkle, R. B. Wall, Paul R. Daily, Archibald Brooks, Ben H. Edwards, Oswald Griffiths, Edward Ratcliff, John Grant, Robert Maturi, Floyd Sanders, G. E. James, H. E. Flack, Thomas M. Hilyer, Russell Parsons, Erich Vrhel, Donald Thompson, Miss Sophie Kancher and Rev. Mr. Prater.

Dies In Florida

Earl Van Campen, former Dallas resident died on September 27 in Homestead, Fla., succumbing to a fatal heart attack.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Van Campen, Dallas, deceased was associated with the Sponholtz Company, Tomato Packers, for the past 20 years and traveled extensively. He was a graduate of Dallas Borough High School.

He is survived by his wife and the following children, Earl Jr., Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. Patsy Richards, Annandale, Va.; William Earl, Linda Gail and Michael, all at home; sisters, Miss Dorothy Van Campen, Shavertown; Mrs. Irvin Davis, Dallas; and Mrs. William Schweinle, Clinton, Md., and several grandchildren.

Services were conducted from Sacred Heart Church, at Homestead, Florida, where the family resided with a Requiem Mass.

Interment was in Memorial Park, Perrine, Fla.
