Wed In Late Fall Ceremony

MRS. ROBERT H. SHOTWELL

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beck, Harveys Lake, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on January 1. The couple were married in Kingston at the home of the bride by Bishop Frank Sterrett, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Beck is the former Carrie Jones, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jones, Kingston. Her husband is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beck, Wilkes-Barre. They are the parents of five children, Harry Jr., Washington, D.C.; Robert, Wilmington, Del.; Russell, East Stroudsburg; William Allen-town; Gordon, Newark, Del. Also 13 grandchildren.

Mr. Beck, who has been a barber for the past 57 years, still operates his shop on Main Street, Shavertown, where he has been in business for 35 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Beck have been members of Shavertown Methodist Church for 40 years.

They will be honored at a dinner with the entire family present on December 30 at the Kingston House.

Shavertown Methodist Church was the setting for the recent wedding of Miss Dorothy Ann Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Wall, RD 3, Wyoming, Pa., to Robert H. Shotwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shotwell, Hillcrest Avenue, Shavertown.

Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Mae Trewren was organist and Thomas Vernon, soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of chaira crepe fashioned with a scoop neckline, long tapered sleeves, empire waistline and slim skirt. A chapel length train fell from the waistline in back and was trimmed with lace motifs. An elbow length veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and pompons, arranged in a ball effect.

Miss Lynn Roberts was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cheryl Dietz and Miss Patricia Oakley.

The attendants wore moss green shantung designed with a round neckline, bell shaped sleeves and hemline. Gold applique braid enhanced the sleeves and hemline. They carried gold and bronze pompons.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Continental Inn after which the couple honeymooned in New York City.

The bride is a graduate of Dallas Senior High School and Wilkes-Barre Business College. Mr. Shotwell, an alumnus of Westmoreland High School is employed at Tobyhanna Army Depot.
