She Was Greatly Cherished

If we were to enshrine one short sentence in memory of Mrs. Charles Gilbert, the sentence would be 'She was greatly cherished."

The household at Mt. Zion revolved about this wife and mother. The depth of affection which she inspired and gave in unstinted measure, is something very rare in these days of heightening pressure, of emotional unrest, and impatience, so often expressed in ill-considered words. To our good friend Rev. Gilbert, and to his two daughters, we extend our deepest sympathy. We have no need to utter platitudes. For Charles and Ruth shared an abiding Faith, one which reaches beyond the stars.
