

Sr. Corita's Serigraph Exhibit

Sr. Corita's serigraphs formed the background and parts of the discussion Monday when poet Ned O'Gorman was interviewed in College (Mrs. Corita's Kennedy Lounge for Channel 44's "Update.")

The exhibit of 40 of Sr. Corita's prints will be on display through February 24 daily from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. Public is invited, according to Ralph G. Kaleshelski, art department, who arranged the exhibit.

The serigraphs are in bold reds, yellows, blues and greens in an advertising style which often makes use of slogans directly from current ads. All are religious in theme, but are in a modern idiom, sometimes in pop style, and catch the eye and the mind with an unusual conjunction of colors or phrases or even of isolated letters.

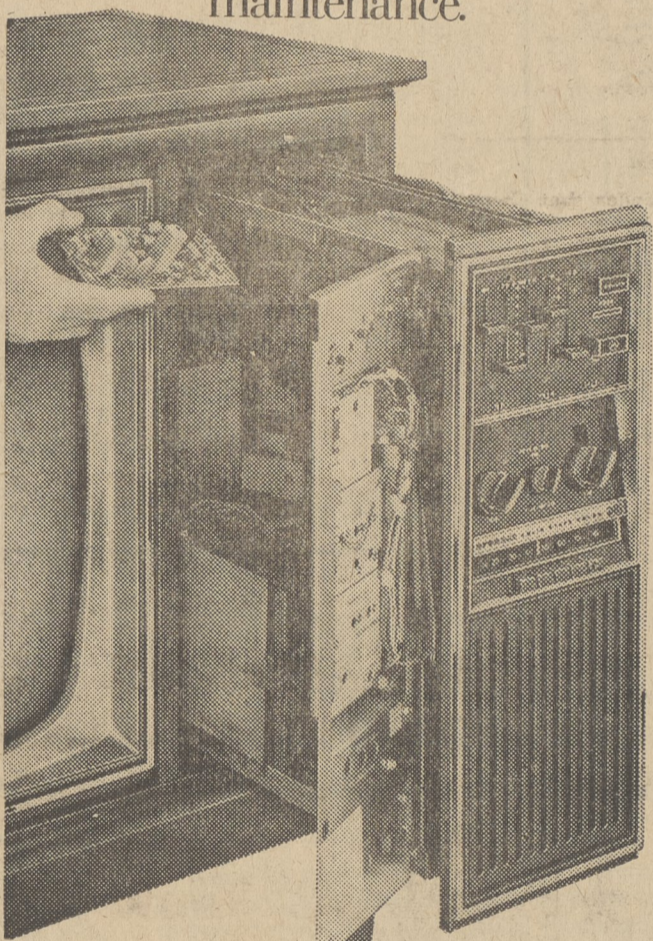

One serigraph consisting of the word "pigeons" printed in different colors on very green grass can be termed a landscape in the pop style. Another serigraph printed in bright red, yellow and blue states "GO SLO" with only free forms and a heart present on the print. The others are filled with poignant visual and verbal language, scraps of texts and shapes and colors.

Sr. Corita is an Immaculate Heart Sister of California, chairman of the art department of Immaculate Heart College, Los Angeles. She is a leader in the graphic arts exposition which has emerged as a leading art direction. Her prints are in the permanent collections of the Museum of Modern Art, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, in galleries in Paris and London. Her "Beatitudes" were an important feature in the Vatican Pavilion of the World's Fair in New York, and her prints have been exhibited in hundreds of cities over the past few years.

Scout Leaders, In-Gathering

Mrs. R. L. Cooper held a coffee hour in her home at High Point Acres, Tuesday, to get acquainted with the Girl Scout leaders in the Dallas Neighborhood.

Mrs. Cooper, the new neighborhood director, introduced Mrs. George Patterson, Field Director, Mrs. Frank Kuehn, Troop Consultant, and Mrs. Earl Crispell, Troop Consultant. Mrs. Thomas Bottoms, Troop Organizer, was unable to attend. She will be in charge of the list for girls waiting to be placed in troops.

Discussion was held on celebration of Girl Scout Week starting on March 10. The girls will attend church in a uniform and will participate in an International In-Gathering at the Dallas High School Auditorium on March 16 from 1 to 3 p.m.

At the In-Gathering, each troop will contribute to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund. Mrs. Frank Jones, Mrs. Fred Daley, and Mrs. Donald Egliskis are co-chairmen of the In-Gathering for the Dallas neighborhood.

Leaders expressed a desire for a list of people who would act as badge consultants. These people would help the girls fulfill the requirements for a badge. Help is needed on the following: creative writer, first aid, folk dancer, good grooming, textile arts, reporter, dressmaker, graphic arts, home nurse, etc. Anyone wishing to donate a few hours may call Mrs. Cooper, 675-1575.

Prince Of Peace Women To Meet

Women of the Prince of Peace Church, Dallas, will hold their regular monthly meeting Wednesday morning, February 21 at 10:00 in the parish house.

The study theme "Christ and the Faiths of Men" will be continued with the showing of a film on Buddhism.

The sewing workshop for the Visiting Nurse Association and the knitting and crocheting project will be continued. Contributions of leftover yarn are still needed and will be greatly appreciated.

Each woman is asked to bring a sandwich for lunch. Dessert and beverage will be served.

A baby sitter will be available for preschool children.
