Marines Steen And Engles, Cited

Two local Marines, Staff Sergeant James E. Steen who resides on Harris Hill Road, Trucksville, with his wife Shirley and Angela and Teresa and Sergeant Lellas G. Engles who lives on Park Street, Dallas, with his wife Rita and Lellas and Steven, were among the eight Marines serving on the Inspector Instructor Staff at the Marine Corps Reserve Training Center, Wyoming, who were presented the Presidential Unit Citation for their heroic actions in Vietnam.

The citations were presented to the Marines during formal ceremonies held in Wyoming by Captain Robert L. Mitchell the Assistant Inspector-Instructor of the Marine Corps Reserve Center. For extraordinary ordinary heroism and outstanding performance of duty in action against the North Vietnamese Army and Viet Cong forces in the Republic of Vietnam while the Marines were serving with the Third Marine Division. The citation accompanying the Presidential Unit Citation award read as follows: "For extraordinary heroism and outstanding performance of duty in action against the North Vietnamese Army and Viet Cong forces in the Republic of Vietnam from 8 March 1965 to 15 September 1967. Throughout this period, the Third Marine Division (Reinforced), operating in the five northernmost provinces of the Republic of Vietnam, successfully executed its three-fold mission of occupying and defending key terrain, seeking out and destroying the enemy, and conducting an intensive pacification program. Operating in an area bordered by over 200 miles of South China Sea coastline, the mountainous Laotian border and the Demilitarized Zone, the Third Marine Division (Reinforced) successfully executed eighty major combat operations, carrying the battle to the enemy, destroying many of his forces, and capturing thousands of tons of weapons and material. In addition to these major operations, more than 125,000 offensive counter-guerrilla actions, ranging from squad patrols and ambushes, company-sized search and destroy operations, were conducted in both the coastal rice lands and the mountainous jungle inland. These bitterly contested actions routed the enemy from his well-entrenched positions, denied him access to his source of food, restricted his freedom of movement, and removed his influence from the heavily populated areas. In numerous operations, the Third Marine Division (Reinforced) demonstrated the great efficacy of combined operations with units of the Army of the Republic of Vietnam. In July 1966, the Third Marine Division (Reinforced) moved to the north to counter major elements of the North Vietnamese Army moving across the Demilitarized Zone into the Province of Quang Tri; its units fought a series of savage battles against the enemy, repeatedly distinguishing themselves and time and again, forcing the enemy to retreat across the Demilitarized Zone. Imbued with an unrelenting combat spirit and initiative and undeterred by heavy hostile artillery and mortar fire, extremely difficult terrain, incessant heat and monsoon rains, the Third Marine Division (Reinforced), employing courageous ground, heliborne and amphibious assaults, complemented by intense and accurate air, artillery and naval
