Sandy Perry and Debbie Werts lit the candles; Meagan Davis, Jane Marstell, Ann Purcell, Nancy Voitek, Lynn Wolfe, Donna Hoover, Donna Cobleigh and Marion Cypulski acted as color guards; bulletins were distributed by Patty Willauer and Roy Ann Meeker; offering taken by Kathy Percy, Mary Ann Meeker, Susan Richards and Elsie Harris.

Carverton Cub Scouts Enjoy First Banquet

Carverton Cub Scouts, Pack 162, held their Blue and Gold dinner at the Carverton Methodist Church on Thursday, February 22.

The Pack has just recently been organized, but over forty people attended the covered dish supper, the first one for the boys. Tables were decorated in the two colors.

Toastmaster was Roy Meeker, chairman of the pack committee. Rev. Donald Schalk gave the invocation. Cubmaster David Werts led everyone in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, and Mrs. Joseph Perry led group singing.

The boys put on a skit, "The Gripping Episode of Glory Gulch". Jack and Jerry Cobleigh did a T-V commercial. Royanne Meeker played several piano selections. Joseph Perry told jokes.

Special musical selections on the accordion were played by Mrs. Donald Schalk. Den chief Jack Cobleigh presented the Blue and Gold floral centerpiece to Den mother, Mrs. David Werts, on behalf of all the cubs.

Cubmaster David Werts assisted by Jack Cobleigh held the Wolf ceremony for the following boys: David Werts, Jr., Jerry Cobleigh, Charles Owens, Kevin Searfoss, Joseph Perry, Eugene Meeker and William Lewis.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Meeker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Owens and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Werts and family, Rev. and Mrs. Donald Schalk and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Searfoss and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Cobleigh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lewis and boys, Mrs. Joseph Perry and family.

Ben L. Jenkins Chapter To Hear R. V. Kresge Talk

The Ben L. Jenkins Chapter, Odd Fellows Welfare Bureau of Pennsylvania will hold a regular meeting in the Odd Fellows Temple, 21 S. Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre, Saturday, March 16, at 2 p.m.

The recently elected officers will be seated: president, Max Pollack of Israel Lodge No. 1151, Scranton; secretary, Byron W. Sleppy of Kingston Lodge No. 709; vice-president, George W. Reid of Thistle Lodge No. 512, Pittston and treasurer, Margaret Robb of Lady Tobey Lodge Rebekah No. 514, Lehman.

R. V. Kresge will give a talk on the "Pilgrimage to the tomb of the Unknown Soldier", Arlington Cemetery. This is an annual project of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the month of May and includes placing a wreath on the grave. The "Grand Decoration of Chivalry", highest honor given by the Order, is among the medals at the tomb. This Order only, has been accorded this privilege.

Lake-Lehman School Will Present Annual Spring Concert March 15

Lake-Lehman High School will present its annual Spring Choral Concert on Friday, March 15 at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium under the direction of Miss Jane Morris.

The Senior High Chorus consists of over fifty male and female voices and will present works by Edward Grieg, Deems Taylor and Ralph Vaughan Williams. Other selections include "The Prayer" from the opera, "Hanzel and Gretel" by Humperdvidele; "Big D" from the Broadway musical, "The Most Happy Fella"; several Negro spirituals, selections from "The Sound of Music" and others. The Senior Chorus is accompanied by senior, Sherry Piper.

The Junior High Chorus, also accompanied by Sherry, will sing three German folk songs by Johannes Brahms and the South American calypso melody "Yellow Bird".

The Junior High Chorus consists of over sixty girls and boys.

Also included in the program will be a duet by seventh graders, Gail Shaw and Cheryl Wendt, singing, "Sing of Spring A-Comeing", by Johannes Brahms.

A small choral group, introduced for the first time at the Spring Concert, will present a varied program of folk and popular songs. This group consists of tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade students—Donna Post, Rita Post, Jill Slicker, Laurie Slicker, Sherry Piper, Linda Evans, Linza Sutton, Roberta Perkins, Peggy Disque, Joleen Shaw, Susan Masters.

Miss Morris joined the Lake-Lehman High School faculty in September of 1965 and has directed two previous Spring choral concerts at Lake-Lehman School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morris of Kingston and attended Morris College for two years, completing her college education at Wilkes. She majored in music and used English as her minor, and is well-known for her control to voice.

Tickets may be purchased in the high school cafeteria during the lunch hour or at the door the night of the concert.
