The 139th Psalm

Oh Lord, thou hast searched me and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising; thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassed my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways;

For there is not a word in my tongue, but lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thy hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou are there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou are there.

If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me, even the night shall be light about me.

Yea, the darkness bideth not from thee, but the night shineth as the day; the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

I will praise thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; marvelous are thy works, and that my soul knoweth right well.

From The Song Of Solomon
For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land.

John L. Kreidler Lies At Fern Knoll
John L. Kreidler, 65, resident of Lake Street for the past year, died Sunday morning at Nesbitt Hospital where he had been a patient for three weeks.
