

Lake-Lehman H. School News

BY DONNA POST

From Queen
Congratulations to Senior George Adams who was chosen by the Student body as Prom Queen for 1968. Georgeann was also chosen earlier for Miss Senior, and will reign until September 1, 1968.

A popular academic lass, Miss Adams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Adams of Dallas. She has 3 sisters, Linda and Jackie, freshmen at LLHS and Ellen at Lehman Elementary.

Maid of Honor
Taeque Jones, an academic member of the Senior Class, was chosen Maid of Honor for the 1968 Senior-Junior Prom. She will reign with Miss Adams on the evening of the prom. Taeque is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Jones of Harveys Lake.

School Reopens
On Tuesday, April 16, students returned reluctantly to classes as the Easter Vacation ended. Custodians, Secretaries, Staff members, and Administration, as well as the cafeteria staff, returned to the regular routine of school activity. Already students have begun to count and mark off the remaining days of school. Cheer up, the end is near.

Honor Society Convention
Twenty-nine members of Lake-Lehman High School's Honor Society, accompanied by Miss Mary Lamoreaux, sponsor, attended the Honor Society Convention at Wilkes College. Attending many lectures in various buildings on campus, students found the convention quite educational. Attending were Debbie Morgan, Margie McCarty, James Ball, Betty Felding, Shirley Evans, Paul Neigoda, Cathy Magee, Nancy Thompson, Linda Mekeel, Bonnie Long, Clare Clark, George Haines, Steven Stempin, Kathy Price, Diane Ide, Joanne Wesolowski, Ester Arendt, Sherry Piper, Carol Lubinski, Taeque Jones, John Weaver, Tim Brown, George Macialek, Harry Gregory, Bill Rosser, Louis Partridge, Roy Evans, Kent Jones, and Alan Montross. The convention was held on April 16.

Class Elections
Class Elections were held for the school year 1968-69 on April 8. This election served to narrow down the candidates to a smaller number. The final elections were held on Friday morning, April 19. Results will be announced soon.

Achievement Tests
The annual Metropolitan Achievement Tests will be administered on April 29, and 30 to students in grades 7, 8, 9, 10, and 12. Teachers who will be testors are Mrs. Smith, Mr. Mrufrchinski, Mr. D. Price, Mr. Vassia, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Green, Mr. Martini, Miss Morris, Mrs. Landis, Miss Thomas, Mrs. Worth, Miss Ripa, Miss Purcell, Mrs. Marchakitus, Miss Chulvick, Miss Lamoreaux, Mr. Threston, Mr. J. Price, Miss Baer, Mr. Sharok, Mr. Gulbish, Miss Bator, and Mr. Jenkins.

The Achievement test is a means of measuring the accomplishment of students from year to year as compared with other students of the United States who are the same age and grade level. Students should be encouraged by parents to do their very best. However, make-up test dates will be available. Students should make a point of reading the instruction posted on the bulletin board of all homerooms. And kids, GOOD LUCK!

Club Schedule
The club schedule was terminated this past week as clubs met for the final club period of the year. The arrangement executed this year seemed very successful. It permitted band members and members of the chorus to participate in other activities in club form. Showing great potential, the schedule is bound to make a return in 1968-69.

Thank-You
Thank you's are in order for a number of people who assisted the Lake-Lehman High School Bands at their annual concert on Friday and Saturday, April 19 and 20. Mr. Millauskas and the bands would like to publicly thank the following: Bob Slimak, Bob Disque, Keith Gensel, Tim Brown, Drew Bainbridge, Jeff Dickinson, Todd Lozo, Dennis Evans, Gary Booth, Merwin Updyke, Steward Thomas, Mrs. Marchakitus, Mr. Kanyuck, Miss Morris, Mrs. Worth, Miss Wilk, Mr. Zaskas.

A New Tune Comes to Lake-Lehman
Mr. Curry, who can most usually be identified by his whistling of the song "Nola," has acquired a new tune. It may seem strange that this should be mentioned in a high school news column, but then, Lake-Lehman is unusual, and there is a method to our madness. The new tune happens to be "Rock-a-bye Baby," since Mr. and Mrs. Curry gave birth to a 7 pound, 10-ounce baby on April 17. Mr. Curry's comment? "He will be a star football player." Or reply? "I hope he attends Lake-Lehman!" Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Curry, and welcome to Cosmo Cletus Curry.

Prom
The annual Junior-Senior Prom will be held this evening, Thursday, in the high school gymnasium. The theme of this year's prom is "April Love." Mr. Wilczewski is advisor and Miss Shirley Evans, a member of the Junior Class, is general chairman.

Shirley in Competition
Shirley Evans, an active academic member of the Junior Class, will journey to Camp Hill, Harrisburg next week to compete in the State Women's Club sewing contest. Miss Evans won first place in both regional and district competition. Good Luck, Shirley! May state honors be yours April 27.

Essay Contest Winner
Congratulations to Pamela Potter who won first place in the American Legion Essay Contest. Her essay, entitled "The Privilege and Responsibilities of an American Citizen," was chosen first place winner by the Harveys Lake Auxiliary, and also won first place in Bi-County, District competition. Her

Penna. Liberty Belle Women's Flight Is Announced By Air Force

A Special U.S. Air Force Officer Training School class for women is currently being formed to honor young ladies from Pennsylvania. The Pennsylvania "Liberty Belle" women's flight will accept applications until May 14, said T/Sgt. Bob Lehman, Air Force Recruiter for the Dallas Area.

To qualify for the Liberty Belle flight and be a woman officer in the U.S. Air Force, a young lady must be a citizen of the United States, be in sound physical condition, pass the Air Force Officer Qualification Test and have high moral and personal qualifications.

Other standards to be met are: be between 20½ and 29½ at time of application and have a baccalaureate degree or be enrolled in the senior year of college.

Sergeant Lehman said the Pennsylvania girls will travel together and be entered in the same OTS class at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

For more information on Women in the Air Force, contact Sergeant Lehman at the Veterans Administration Building, Wilkes-Barre.

4-H Leadership Program Is Training Ground For Teens' Future Role

Scholarships worth $6,000 will be awarded again this year by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation to 12 of the nation's most outstanding 4-H Club members. They will be the 1968 national 4-H Leadership program award winners, and will be guests of the Foundation at the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago the first week in December.

Learning how to be a leader is an opportunity 4-H offers any youngster who is willing to assume responsibilities and has the time to carry them out, says Emmie Nelson, program services associate, the National 4-H Service Committee.

Miss Nelson, in cooperation with the Extension Service, has developed many leader training techniques. She recently presented a paper entitled "New Concepts for 4-H Teen Leaders" at a meeting of the Southern Agricultural Workers in Louisville.

She said that the 4-H Leadership program helps members "assume real-life, adult-like roles." Where the situation permits, the members 16 to 19 years of age have a more sophisticated program, and are called "4-H teen leaders," she stated. The younger members are "junior leaders."

Early training revolves around 4-H Club and school activities. The potential leader may help plan the club's program, lead a project, assist with exhibits, rallies, visit parents and participate in public speaking projects, Miss Nelson suggested.

Older teens may do similar things, but also assume the major responsibilities in whatever they undertake. Adult leaders working with these members encourage them to choose own group projects, work towards future educational goal or job and recruit and help younger leaders.

Their progress is reviewed by Extension personnel who conduct the 4-H Leadership program, and annual awards are given to highest ranking members.

The county blue award group (up to four members) receives gold-filled honor medals; the state winner gets an expense paid trip to the National 4-H Congress and $500 scholarships go to 12 national champions.

essay was then sent to Harrisburg for State Competition. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Potter of Oak Hill, Pam is the second student in the past two years to win this contest.

Showing Art Work

CAROL POLACKY

Carol Polacky, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Polacky, Huntsville Road, Dallas, is one of two seniors exhibiting art work in the Senior Art Exhibit at College Misericordia this weekend, in Kennedy Lounge.

The exhibit will consist of paintings in oil, water color, acrylic, prints in various media and sculptures executed by Carol and by Ann Marie Kasprinsky, as art majors at the college. Public is invited.

Miss Polacky is a graduate of Central Catholic High School. One of the first members of the art department, she was instrumental in establishing the Art Club, and became its first president, serving two consecutive years. She has been active in teaching art at the Back Mountain YMCA in adult classes and teaching children at the Wyoming Valley Art League.

Exhibit will be open to the public on Saturday and Sunday from 2-5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m., according to Ralph G. Kaleshefski, art instructor. Friday evening the exhibit will be open for a private viewing and reception for families and guests of the artists.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walters and son Raymond Jr., motored to S. Carolina recently to spend the Easter holidays with their son and daughter-in-law and four grand daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Walters and family of S. Carolina.

Mrs. Andrew Voychek and children have returned to her home in Philadelphia after spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Evans, Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Saxton and children have returned to their home in Levittown after attending the funeral of Mrs. Saxton's father, Harry Roth. He was also the father of Mrs. Betty Dodson, Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans were recent visitors here. They are former residents of our town but now live in Johnson City, N.Y. While here they had a nice visit with Mr. Evans brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Evans and family of Popular Street.

Dave Morgan, Laurel Run Borough, is much improved after being very sick but is still in the General Hospital. Mr. Morgan is brother of Mrs. Sarah Evans, Main Street.

Eugene Banta Jr., Chester, Pa., paid his father, Eugene Banta Sr., a short visit recently, also stopped by to say "hello" to his brother, Russell Banta and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Evans, Mrs. Sarah Evans, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Evans, Geanette Evans, and Ernest Evans, all attended the wedding of Miss Avanelle Evans, Johnson City, on Saturday.

Rich Dodson is back at Dallas Junior High after being ill for a few days.

Todd Hilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hilbert has arrived safely in Vietnam. Todd graduated from Dallas Senior High School.

At Misericordia, Summer Program Offers Fifty-One Subjects, Plus Art

College Misericordia's summer session will feature 51 courses and a three-week art program, according to Sr. M. Colette, RSM, director of the summer program.

Courses will be taught in morning and early afternoon sessions. They range from highly specialized classes such as those in special education, music and nursing, to the liberal courses in English, history, languages and sciences.

The special three-week art program is arranged to accommodate students who wish concentrated work over a shorter time period. It is also the first half of a "summer of art" for those taking part in the art-oriented tour of Europe in the last weeks of July and early August.

Registration for the summer session will be June 20 - 21, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., and June 22, 9 a.m.-noon. Art program registration will be at the same times on June 13, 14, and 15th.

One of the courses to be initiated for the first time this summer is Current Thinking in Theology-Philosophical Foundations. It is a non-credit designed to acquaint the student with the philosophical foundations of certain key themes in cur-

Exchange Students To Meet Sunday, April 28

Students who have been selected to represent Rotary International through the Rotary Exchange program are requested to attend an orientation meeting Sunday, April 28 at 2 p.m. at Dallas Senior High School, Dallas.

This is an extremely important meeting and all outward bound students, with one or both parents must attend. Rotary rules and regulations, foreign customs and travel arrangements will be presented. Reservations should be made immediately with Harry Rothstein, Forty Fort.

Fifty-two students from Northeastern Pennsylvania will represent district 741 Rotary International during 1968-69. Included are: John D. Eckelman, Forty Fort; Valerie Balesar, Lawrence W. Rosensweig and Jonathan L. Levy, Kingston; Diane L. Davies, Dallas; Mary Maffei, Wyoming; Ann Marie Sivilich and Deborah Lohman, Nanticoke; Linda Yesulaites, Pittston; Patricia Melanko and Donna G. Borys, Wilkes-Barre and Susan J. Tush, Larksville. Alternates are: Nancy J. Crispell, Dallas and Kenneth Levin, Wilkes-Barre.

Alan Landis, Honored At Dickinson College

Alan R. Landis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Landis, Oak Hill, was one of sixteen new members initiated and honored by Dickinson College chapter of the national Phi Gamma Mu social science honor society at a banquet addressed by Dr. Eugene H. Miller, the society's, national vice-president.

Dr. Miller is chairman of the political science department at Ursinus College currently on leave to serve as research scientist at the Institute of Advanced Studies, Army War College.

He has held a Fulbright appointment in India. "Can Democracy Survive in India?" was the subject of his talk. Robert L. Thomas, Wilmington, Del., a Dickinson senior and chapter president, presided at the dinner. Prof. Warren J. Gates is the faculty adviser of the society.

The national society which has chapters across the country, recognizes and encourages superior scholarship in the areas of economics, history, political science, and sociology.

Alan is a member of the Junior Class of Dickinson.

The Prom
"Love is a Many Splendored Thing" and also the theme of the Junior prom.

The theme committee has selected an enchanting song title as the theme for this year's gala affair. Meanwhile the decoration committee members are industriously working on whatever it is they are working on. (They're very mysterious)

Unfortunately even though the girls are on their best behavior the boys are dismayingly slow with invitations. WAKE UP BOYS!

Lorene Daring and Chuck LaBerge will be host and hostess (I know what you're going to say, it should be the other way around. OK hostess and host) Anyway, the Prom will be held at the Senior High on May 10th.

We hope everyone will be there as the evening promises to be absolutely beautiful, and an evening to remember.

The big question is who will be the Prom Queen?

Debate
Last week, the halls of Dallas Senior High School rang with the sounds of the second intramural debate. The wily negation, presented by Sheryl Beard and Vincent Roman, squeezed by the brilliant affirmative team of Lorene Daring and Brian Beard by only one point. The topic was: Resolved: That all issues leading to strikes should be settled through compulsory arbitration by government. The next debate will be held on May 8, and the topic will discuss the relative importance of mid-term testing.

Honor Society Conference
Members of the National Honor Society recently attended a National Honor Society Conference at Wilkes College, where a series of lectures and seminars was given by Wilkes professors to acquaint them with a typical college class. The meeting was divided into two sessions. In the morning there was a choice of two lectures: "The Evolution of English Poetry - Medieval to Modern" and "U.S. Involvement in Southeast Asia - An Overall View." Following lunch and a tour of the Wilkes campus, each student had a choice of attending two seminars on topics ranging from transformational grammar to the laser beam. Those attending were: Jane Mitchell, Judy Stasko, Claudia Zaboloski, Nancy Crispell, Lucy Fleming, Ruth Besecker, Richard Fedock, Larry Gilbert, Howard Wiggin, Erik Dingle, Dan Dorrance, Allen Brown, Scott Blase, Jim Gosart, Charles Garris, and Matt Gillis. Mrs. Mary Ann Hopkins, faculty advisor for the Honor Society, accompanied the group.

Student Council Elections
An invigorating assembly was held April 19 when candidates for Student Council offices gave their campaign speeches. Contenders for the presidential seat were Dick Morgan, Brian Beard, and Joan Dominick. Sophomores vied for two positions, with Judy Allen, Bob Griffiths, and Jim Miller running for Vice-President, and Sheryl Beard, Roberta Gilbert, and Diane Reese trying for the secretarial office. These candidates were selected by the Student Council Nominating Committee from a number of nominees submitted by the Sophomore and Junior homerooms. On Monday, the underclassmen voted for next year's Student Council Officers. Dr. Whitman History Contest

Last Saturday, April 20, a group of eleven history enthusiasts journeyed to Wilkes-Barre to represent Dallas at the annual Dr. John H. A. Whitman History Contest, which is sponsored by the Herodotians, Historical Society of King College. This competitive examination covered the period 1763-1850 and also covered current events from February 1, 1968 to March 21, 1968. Students who participated were John Fleming, John Fedock, Diane Reese, Susan Dexter, James Pickert, Debbie Fader, Sheryl Beard, John Krivak, Sally Wiggin, Lynn George, and Robert Griffith.

Key Club
The Dallas High School Key Club is a community service organization, as is its parent organization - Dallas Kiwanis. The Key Club undertakes various projects, for the good of school and community, independently of and in conjunction with the Kiwanis Club.

Residents of the Back Mountain area are, doubtless, familiar with several of the annual projects and fund raising activities of the Key Club. One such activity is the annual fall deer drive. For the drive, members of the Key Club pick the apples (donated by members of the community); have them pressed; and distribute the finished product. Another annual project is held in the spring of each year, at Clyde Birth's gas station. Proceeds from this car-wash go toward offsetting the expenses of the Key Club Drill Team and toward paying any other project the club undertakes. In recent years Key clubbers have aided in the distribution of baskets at Thanksgiving and Christmas; worked at the Back Mountain Library Auction; and undertaken such school activities as policing the athletic fields and serving as ushers at school games. Some members of the club have also attended meetings of the Dallas Kiwanis, in order to promote a better working relationship between the two clubs.

On Sunday, April 21, several members of the Key Club participated in a Basketball Tournament held at the Wilkes Gymnasium and sponsored by the Circle K (which is the college-counter part of the Key Club). Players representing our club were: Chuck LaBerge, Scott Lefko, Tim Bauman, Jim Miller, Chris Meyer, Jack Fedock, and Dave Dobson. Bob Parry served as coach, and Buzzy Szela as manager. The team did well, eliminating two other clubs - Coughlin and our traditional rivals, Lake Lehman. We edged Lehman out - 60 to 15. The Dal-Hi Key Club team won a second place trophy, when we were defeated in a close game with Wyoming area.

Despite our club's athletic prowess we remain, first and foremost, a service organization. We are always on the look out for new projects and would ask anyone in the Back Mountain area, who knows of something that needs to be done (and will be a benefit for the community), to please contact a member of the Dallas High School Key Club:
