Kunkle Community Hosts
Second Annual Enduro
For Motorcycle Riders

The second annual Pennsylvania State Enduro for motorcycle riders will be held on June 9, Kunkle. Riders from Pennsylvania and many neighboring states will participate in the events sponsored by the Back Mountain Enduro Riders Motorcycle Club.

The Endurance events are popular nationwide and consist of trails through fields, woods and mountains, testing the motorcycle and rider's ability to meet all obstacles in a given time.

The public is invited to the festivities which start on Saturday night, June 8 at 9 p.m. with a Modern and Square Dance in Kunkle Community Hall. The Enduro starts at 9 a.m. Sunday from Kunkle Community Hall. Breakfast will be served there starting at 6 a.m. Spectators should ask at the Hall Sunday morning for sheets marked with places of interest to them.

The Back Mountain Club has sponsored several sports events of this kind during the past few years. Members have participated in Enduro Events from Canada to Florida. The Club was featured at the Olde Dallas Sesquicentennial Celebration last October and will appear at the Sweet Valley Memorial Day Celebration, Wednesday night, May 30. The Club has attracted a great deal of interest throughout the area, luring more and more riders to take to the trails.

Enduro Riders entering this event can register on Sunday, June 9 at the Kunkle Community Hall, starting at 7 a.m. For bike rider's information, call 696-2423.

Refreshments will be sold all day Sunday with a Ham Dinner the feature. The Community Hall will be open all night. There will be motel accommodations and space for camping.

Odd Fellows, Dallas
Hear Byron W. Sleppy

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Oneida Lodge No. 371, held a covered dish supper at their Lodge Hall, Thursday evening, May 23.

Mr. Byron W. Sleppy, member of Kingston Lodge 709, and secretary of the Ben L. Jenkins Chapter Odd Fellows Welfare Bureau, was guest speaker.

His talk was very interesting and pointed out the areas generally covered, and the facilities which are available to Odd Fellows and their

Richard Farley, New President Of Dallas Lettermen-Boosters

RICHARD C. FARLEY

Incoming officers of the Dallas Lettermen-Booster Club will be installed Friday evening, June 7, at Castle Inn. A family-style dinner will be served at 6:30, and following installation and recognition of coaches, there will be music and dancing for everyone.

Richard C. Farley of Center Hill Road, Dallas, will take the office of president, replacing Carl E. Kaschenbach, Jr. of Yeager Avenue, Shavertown, retiring president.

Both Mr. Farley and Mr. Kaschenbach were among the six men who, at the suggestion of Ed Brominski, got together to form the club seven years ago. These men were the backbone of the club. They worked for two years before the organization actually formed five years ago.

Elton "Red" Brace will be installed as 1st vice-president; Robert Hislop, 2nd vice-president; Charles Siegel, secretary and Raymond Parsons, treasurer. Directors elected for a two-year term are: Robert Pickett, Dale Zimmerman, Ned Hartman, Jack Porter. Those directors with one more year to serve are: Lauren Dymond, James Knecht, Tex Wilson and Robert Parry.

Alan Husband will act as master of ceremonies at a short program immediately following the dinner which features three meats, Swedish meatballs, chicken and ham.

"Red" Brace, as chairman of the Installation Dinner-Dance, has made families.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shaver, Mrs. Marie Shaver, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roth, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ide, Elwood McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Cletas Sweezy, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Slocum, William Rine-man, Miss Vera Coates, Mr. and Mrs. Paul LaBar, Byron W. Sleppy and Mr. and Mrs. Peter L. Roushey.

an effort to make the occasion a special one for everyone. Parents of the Dallas athletes and followers of the Dallas sports program are urged to attend and make this year's "wind-up" a successful one.

It is expected that the new football coach, Jack Jones, will also be introduced at this time.

It was officially announced at a meeting last night that Mr. Jones has signed with Dallas Senior High School as head coach, filling a vacancy left by Mr. Edward Brominski's resignation.

Mr. Jones, who has been offensive coach at Temple University, will take over the Mountaineers this coming season. He has an impressive record behind him as coach at West Pittston and Meyers. But, he will have big shoes to fill. The Mountaineers, under the leadership of Coach Ed Brominski, were winners, too. For quite a few years, they were West Side Champs and were tops in the area. Last year, the boys had a bad year, playing for the first time in the Wyoming Valley Conference.

FATHERS NEEDED

There are about thirty or forty boys anxious to play baseball in Shavertown but can't get started without a manager. The Shavertown Farm Team of Little League needs managers. Several fathers will do the trick.

Come on, Dads! Get out and help each other help these boys! Call Joseph Allen, William Roberts or Robert Monk.

Birthday In Vietnam

Lance Corporal Wayne G. Shonk will observe his 21st birthday in Vietnam today, May 29. Cpl. Shonk arrived in Chu Lai about a month ago by way of Okinawa.

Shonk, a graduate of Lake-Lehman in 1965, enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in June 1966 and has been training and studying in the states until his recent departure for Vietnam.

Cpl. Shonk, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shonk, Shavertown, RD 5, is married to the former Trudy Stroud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stroud of Sweet Valley. Trudy and Wayne were classmates.

Game Commission To Set 1968
Hunting Seasons, Bag Limits

The Pennsylvania Game Commission will meet in Harrisburg on June 3 and 4 to establish hunting seasons and bag limits.

On Monday, June 3, the Commission will meet with sportsmen and other statewide groups and agencies interested in conservation. These organizations and agencies will present their recommendations beginning at 8 p.m. in Public Utilities Commission Hearing Room No. 1, North Office Building, Harrisburg.

On Tuesday, June 4, the Commission will discuss the recommendations presented by the groups as well as facts compiled from field studies by Commission personnel. The Commission will then set the official seasons for taking small and big game animals, plus fur-bearing animals, and bag limits for the 1968-69 license year. Other, routine business will also be considered at the Tuesday session.

The Game Commission will hold open house programs at its six game farms on Sunday, June 2, from 1 to 5 p.m.

Game Commission personnel will be present at the farms to explain hatching personnel and rearing programs. No reservations to attend are necessary.

Here are the game farms: Eastern Game Farm, Schwenksville RD 2, Loyalsock Game Farm, Montoursville RD 2, Western Game Farm, Cambridge Springs RD 1; State Wild Turkey Farm, Proctor Star Route, Williamsport; State Wild Waterfowl Farm, Meadville RD 4; and South-west Game Farm, Distant.

Dr. Edward L. Kozicky, conservation director for Winchester-Western, is the new president-elect of The Wildlife Society. The Society is an international professional organization of 6,600 game managers, research biologists, conservation educators and administrators and wildlife specialists.

Boost The Boosters!

by Doris Mallin

The Dallas Lettermen-Booster Club winds up its fifth successful season a week Friday with an Installation Dinner-Dance.

Successful! Yes! But, only because a small group of dedicated men have had the interests of the high school athletes at heart.

This group has been very active for five years. They have continued to support the youngsters in every way possible, contributing to the morale of the athletes even when the "chips" were down. They have tried to build morale and keep up spirit with motorcades, special team days or nights, trips, jackets and other special awards. They work with the "kids", not with the administration. They do not interfere with the coaches. Their goal is to "boost the team". The team—your sons and daughters.

Now, the "boosters need a boost"! Most of the active members of the club are not even parents of athletes or students in junior or senior high school. Some are lettermen. Most are just interested in helping these young people in any way they can. But, where are the parents!

The area is full of people who attend games and shout with the crowd, criticizing the coaches and players, complaining about the way the coaches "run" the team. But, where are these same people when the coach attends the next Booster Club meeting and makes a report on the previous games? Where are they when he shows films and explains why certain plays are used and when? Everyone is invited to attend and comment. Do they want to hear the other side? Probably not! Only a few turn out to the meetings.

Parents! Friends! Join the club, work and have fun! Start by attending the Installation Dinner and stay to hear the program. You can go home if you don't want to dance after. Attend the meetings throughout the year. Show an interest by criticizing in a constructive way and throwing "bouquets" when they are earned.

Lutherans Take Championship Of Back Mountain Church League

St. Paul's Lutheran team, champions of the Back Mountain Church League, which bowls on Wednesday nights at Crown Imperial Bowling Lanes.

The Lutheran boys took the first half of the season by just 1/2 point over Shavertown B. Then, Shavertown B came back in the second half to take that championship and the two teams were battling it out again.

In the playoffs, Shavertown B was ahead by 5 marks going into the final frame. Lutherans picked up 7 while Shavertown had only 2 and Lutheran took the league championship by 24 points.

That was a double victory for the Champs. Their win from Shavertown B also put them in the semifinals of the First Division Playoffs. They went on to beat Dallas

B, also a victory in the last frame. They were behind 3 marks but came through to take the series by 19 pins.

The Champs took the final contest in the First Division by defeating Orange. But, only by the "skin of their teeth". The series ended in a tie, 2952-2952! The two teams rolled off an extra frame and the Lutherans were champs again, by 5 pins.

Tags For Trucks

The Secretary of Revenue explains that the number of commercial vehicles has substantially increased, and that a new type of plate is being issued instead of the renewal sticker.

The change in the style of the license tag is designed to eliminate the possibility of duplications in license numbers.

Kunkle Firemen
In Fund Drive

Kunkle Firemen are planning to purchase a new fire truck, distributing coin cards to residents of areas served by the Harry S. Smith Volunteer Fire Company.

The truck and equipment now in use are more than eighteen years old.

The Fire Company says: "All donations will be greatly appreciated. BUT if for any reason you cannot give, do not let this stop you from calling on us if you are ever in need. "We'll be there."
