Back Mountain Library Auction got a big boost when Luzerne Electric in collaboration with Rowlands Refrigeration, promised to donate the latest thing in electronic stoves, one which will roast a turkey by the time the table is set, or a roast of beef while the housewife is whipping up the mashed potatoes.

Its selling price is $1,060.00. It is called the Versatronic.

Mini-Combo, valued at $239.95.

Registration Dates
