Collection Agencies For Commonwealth

R. E. Koeb, District Commercial Manager for Commonwealth Telephone Company, Dallas, announced today that arrangements have been made to establish two collection offices effective July 1 where telephone bills can be paid in person. One will be located at the Miners National Bank, Dallas Branch, 17 Main Street, Dallas, and the other at the Wyoming National Bank, Shavertown Branch, 171 North Memorial Highway, Shavertown.
Koeb explained that many customers who usually pay their bills in person will find it more convenient to pay at these collection centers; however, he added the Business Office at Dallas will continue to accept payment of bills. He also stated that mail payments should be directed to the General Office at 100 Lake Street, Dallas, in the envelope provided with customer bills.

Beaumont

The local Service Unit of the Salvation Army is grateful for the contributions amounting to $144.00 for the spring appeal for funds, eighty per cent of which was sent to headquarters at Coatesville with twenty per cent remaining for local use which this past year was used for remembrances for shut-ins and victims of a fire.
Best wishes for many years of retirement are extended to Mrs. Mildred Lutes who last week put aside her waving lotions to devote more time to her rose garden, oil paintings, and travel.

Mrs. Ernest Brown has returned from the General Hospital where she was treated for a virus infection.
Miss Dorothy Johnson was guest of honor at a Graduation Party given at her parents' home last Sunday after her graduation from Tunkhannock High School.

Mr. Paul Brown, who was graduated cum laude from Wilkes College, has enrolled at Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont for the summer linguistic session to work toward his master's degree.
Mr. and Mrs. William A. Austin celebrated their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary last Monday.

College Misericordia Programs To Open Sunday Eve. At 8 P.M.

A lecture on America's race problem will open College Misericordia's Sunday Evening programs during the Forty-Second Summer Session.
Rev. Paul Smith, post-graduate student at the University of Scranton, will speak on "American Race Problem: White Racism, Black Nationalism, Christian Apathy," in Walsh Auditorium at 8 p.m.
The public is invited to this lecture, and to the other summer programs, according to Cultural Events Chairman Ralph G. Kaleshefski.
Other events scheduled for Sunday evenings include a lecture on art, to be given at 7:30 p.m. in Kennedy Lounge on July 7 by Mr. Kaleshefski, instructor, art department. The talk is a feature of his One-Man Show, on display in Kennedy Lounge afternoons and evenings from July 3 through July 10.
A concert will be presented on July 14 by violinist Robert Ritzenshein and pianist Madelyn Gloze Lea. Mrs. Lea is a former member of the music department of College Misericordia.
"Campaigning 1968" will be discussed by Dr. Edward Hanlon, history department, on July 21 at 8 p.m. in Walsh Auditorium.
Interspersed between these programs will be a series of films, short and feature length. First will be shown this evening at 7:30, on Picasso and Stravinsky. "Zorba the Greek" will be shown on June 28; two art films will be shown on July 2; "Manchurian Candidate" on July 5; "Wild Strawberries" on July 9; "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum", on July 12; two short films, "Dancers' World" and "Night Journey" on July 17; and "Mid-Summer Night Dream" on July 26.

Summer Session classes for undergraduates began on June 24 and end on August 2.

Misericordia Teachers To Attend Institute

Ben Fondi, sociology department College Misericordia, will attend a Summer Faculty Institute next week under a Department of Health, Education and Welfare Grant. Rev. Donald A. McAndrews, department chairman, announced that the Institute begins June 30 at the University of Washington, Seattle, Wash.

Mr. Fondi and his family reside at Harveys Lake.
Designed for social scientists teaching in undergraduate social welfare programs, the Institute is limited to 25 social scientists who will be teaching undergraduate welfare courses next year. The seven-day workshop will be on concepts from the social and behavioral sciences which are relevant to the teaching of social welfare. Participants will examine the social service network and its role in society, and will study the role, goals and methods of the human professions in contemporary society.

Mr. Fondi was awarded the M.A. degree in sociology by The Catholic University of America. The grant is sponsored by the Children's Bureau, Social and Rehabilitation Service, Department of Health, Education and Welfare.
