Miss Sandra Slimak, Robert Barber Exchange Vows To Observe Her 75th Birthday On July 11

MRS. ROBERT ALLEN BARBER

Miss Sandra Lee Slimak, daughter of Mrs. Bertha C. Slimak of RD 1, Steele Road, Plymouth, and Mr. Michael Slimak, RD 5, Shavertown, recently became the bride of Robert Allen Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Barber of 1342 East Weaver Street, Philadelphia, at a late spring wedding in Calvary Bible Church, Wilkes-Barre.

The Reverend William J. Randolph of Jarrettown, Pennsylvania, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar adorned with palms and large bouquets of white gladioli and carnations. Organist was Mrs. Priscilla Hall of Wilkes-Barre and soloist was Mrs. Edna Baeder of Portland, Oregon.

The bride, escorted by her father, was attired in a formal-length white chantilly lace gown fashioned with a portrait neckline, long tapered sleeves, and pointed bodice line. The bouffant five-tiered skirt swept into a chapel train. The neckline and tiered skirt were sprinkled with iridescent sequins. Her four-tiered scalloped elbow-length veil fell from a forehead cluster of net leaves dotted with pearlized flowers held together by mohair bowettes. She carried a cross-shaped bouquet of white daisies arranged about a white lace-covered Bible, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Judy Paltrineri, Shavertown, was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a royal blue A-line dress of peau crystal; its empire bodice was trimmed with white daisies. Her headpiece was a matching double bow with a short scalloped veil. She carried a cross-shaped bouquet of white daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lorraine Ford, Plymouth, and Miss Rose Ann Ratzlaff, Alberta, Canada. Their powder blue dresses and veils were of the same design as the matron of honor's; they carried cross-shaped bouquets of powder blue and white daisies.

Miss Brenda Button, Dallas, was flower girl; she wore a powder blue dress similar to those of the attendants, and carried a basket of mixed flowers. The candle lighter was Miss Susan Weber of Ithaca, New York; she was dressed identically to the flower girl, and carried a white taper arranged with blue carnations and streamers. Albert W. Mitchell, Audubon Park, New Jersey, was best man. Ushers were Claud Button, Shavertown; Samuel F. Phillips, Lantz, Maryland; and Donald Phy, Ardsley.

The ring bearer, Master Paul Button of Dallas, was dressed identically to the male attendants. The mother of the bride selected a light blue A-line dress with a matching lace duster. She wore white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a blue dress and jacket ensemble with matching accessories; she also wore a pink rose corsage. Following a reception held at the Jackson Township Fire Hall, the couple left on a wedding trip through parts of Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Massachusetts, and New York. For traveling the bride chose a lavender dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Barber was graduated from Lake-Lehman Area High School, and Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, Alberta, Canada. She was a member of the faculty of Prairie Bible Institute from 1965 through 1968.

Mr. Barber, a graduate of Germantown High School, Philadelphia, received a bachelor of science degree in Bible from Philadelphia College of Bible. He is pursuing a master of theology degree at Dallas

Mrs. Walter Brzyski, 70 East Overbrook Avenue, Shavertown, will observe her 75th birthday on July 11.

Mrs. Brzyski, the former Mary Nowak, was born in Miners Mills. She and her husband, the late Walter Brzyski, lived in Hudson, Waterbury, Connecticut, and Newark, New Jersey, before settling in the Back Mountain area 36 years ago.

Mrs. Brzyski is a member of Gate of Heaven Church and its Altar and Rosary Society. She is an avid reader, and derives much pleasure from sewing, knitting, walking, gardening, etc. She enjoys traveling and has most recently visited Florida and Expo 67, Montreal. She is looking forward to her vacation this year, which she will spend in California.

Mrs. Brzyski is the mother of three daughters, Mrs. Frank Karweta, Shavertown; Mrs. Harold Miller, Williamport, and Mrs. Joseph Kubastil, with whom she resides. There are seven grandchildren, Gerald Miller, who recently received a degree in Electrical Engineering at the Pennsylvania State University; Anne Miller, student at Bloomsburg State Teachers College; Mary Jo and Frank Karweta Barbara and Michael Kubastil, all students in the Dallas Area Schools, and two year old Joey Kubastil.
