Death Rides The Way
 It seems a shame that at the beginning of the summer's end when the roses are bursting into bloom again and all nature seems to be in tune that tragedy must stalk our highway in such increase as has been the case.

Another young man died on Saturday evening and more offspring are left behind. Something must be done. The speed limit through our towns will have to be cut for the few minutes lost are worth far more than the demise of a human life. Thank God for our ambulances, but in some cases its arrival is merely to transport a broken body for which there is no restoration.

Heavier patrols are vital and the state must take some action. Many lives are being lost in Vietnam and just as many uselessly lost as they make faster and faster vehicles which become monsters of destruction.

Police Wages
 We understand that the Police Association is not in favor of accepting the minimum wage proposed by law but will attempt by use of council to obtain a living wage. Certainly when one hears the salary of road employees it would appear that our protectors should be reimbursed accordingly. Then perhaps we would have better coverage and more conscientious attention to duty.

Better Use?
 There are always roads which the Township cannot take over and maintain and this is understandable particularly where there is a dead end but it caused a bit of bitterness last week when some extra blacktop was dumped along a little used piece of ground and the load could have well covered the rough entrance to the extension of Ferguson Avenue. Owners sell lots, promise to pave them and then let the buyer sitting high and dry.

With the awful mess remaining near the Gosart Center Street corner, Tax Collector Verne Pritchard is doing the utmost to resolve the problem. It seems that a state engineer created more problems and also set the tonnage on Franklin Street Bridge and no amount of talking would change his mind.

Here And There
 An ever faithful daughter, Patty Olenick Eckert and her husband George, Binghamton, N.Y., came in to see her father Mike Olenick, who suffered back injuries in a fall at work two weeks ago. Away on a trip the young couple arrived here almost as soon as they received the news by letter. We trust Mike will be recovered but this type of injury takes time.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Donald Purvin in her recent bereavement.

Our congratulations to two more local brides, Dorothy Eck and Beverly Whiting and wish for a most happy future. Jim Kozemchak, photographer, tells me that September is fast replacing June as the month for weddings. It is truly an enchanting time of the year.

Mrs. Anne Dressel was the guest of her son, Luther Horitz and family, Philadelphia, last week.

Paul Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Si Jenkins, was home for the weekend from classes at the Episcopal Seminary in Philadelphia.

Two more local residents passed away last week, Mrs. Edward Williams and Elizabeth V. Thomas. Our sympathy is extended to their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall spent the weekend in Pittsfield, Mass., where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hall and family.

We learned that a little Indian boy is attending Shavertown Grade School and hopes to make his home here. We trust all the youngsters will welcome him for he has a proud heritage.

Our best wishes go to Andrew Kozemchak as he recovers from surgery at Geisinger Medical Center. Good to see Tommy Andrews driving about again on those weekends away from the Veterans Hospital.

We were very sorry to hear that Mrs. John Eck was stricken ill and taken to Nesbitt Hospital the day before Dorothy's wedding. It always seems that some sadness occurs before a happy event. We wish one of our revered and long time residents a complete recovery.

Guests of the Fred Ecks for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Katon, Arlington, Va., Capt. and Mrs. John Katon and son Jeff, Dover, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eck, State College. All concerned over the illness of their mother.

Also included in the out of town guest list were Mrs. A. Warren Luce and Miss Robin Luce, Mooretown, N.J.; Mrs. Ellaveve Hass, Ocala, Fla.; Mrs. Sandra Ross, Jamaica, Long Island, Miss Michelle Munley, Philadelphia.

Jack Eck came in for his sister's wedding from Denver, Colorado. Marilyn from Raritan, N.J., and Beverly from Gettysburg, College.

Robert Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Glenn has already begun studies for his sophomore year at Allentown College. His brother Thomas, Jr., a graduate of law school, who is serving with the U.S. Marines, has been commissioned a Second Lieutenant. He is stationed at Quantico, Va.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Arja Brown who celebrated their 21st wedding anniversary last weekend by visiting Atlantic City.

We were most sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Judd Holt's mother, Mrs. Margaret Green whom we visited and interviewed on the occasion of her 100th birthday. To grow old this gracefully and retain not only all her faculties but a keen sense of humor as well is the most any of us can wish for. It was a distinct pleasure to meet her and our sympathy goes out to her daughter.

Station Struck Again
 Gordas Gas Station was struck

again on Sunday, the impact of the car breaking the large plate glass window. This has been a frequent occurrence for Mr. Gordas with drivers, out of control striking the business establishment.

This weekend was really a red letter day in fatalities.

Mt. Zion

Last Friday afternoon I assisted Rev. James Williams of the West Pittston Congregational church at the funeral of Mrs. Regina Bryden who died last week at Valley Crest. I had been Mrs. Bryden's interim pastor before Rev. Williams came. And so I had visited her also as her chaplain while she was at Valley Crest.

Last Friday evening Catherine and I attended the reception at Kingston United Methodist Church for the Rev. and Mrs. Alfred Crayton as our District Superintendent. It was a good occasion to chat with a number of the other ministers. On that occasion Dr. Crayton asked me if I would supply the pulpit of the Slocum United Methodist church on the following Sunday. Alan Cease of Dallas had been the pastor there all summer. They like him and hope he will continue even while going away to school.

Last Saturday Catherine and I drove over the road I would be supposed to follow on Sunday when I would have to drive it alone. So I paid special attention to all the curves and mistakes and Cathy typed out the correct directions for me to follow going by route 81 to the exit to Nuangola and from there to the exit to Yatesville before I drove over the road I would be supposed to follow on Sunday when I would have to drive it alone. So I paid special attention to all the curves and mistakes and Cathy typed out the correct directions for me to follow going by route 81 to the exit to Nuangola and from there to the exit to Yatesville before I drove over the road I would be supposed to follow on Sunday when I would have to drive it alone.
