

Dallas Senior High School

By Cheryl and Peggy Futch

THE ATHLETES

"Puff, puff, we're not really in bad shape, puff, in fact we should be really hot for our puff, first game Dec. 6. The team looks, wheeze, pretty good." These were the words of one of our returning basketball players as I trotted along beside him scribbling madly. (I was on my first lap, he was on his twenty-first!)

Later in the day while sitting beside a solid-looking returning wrestler I stared in amazement at his muscles and his lunch of lettuce and celery greens. "Have to lose 15 pounds," was his nonchalant answer to my quizzical look regarding the meal.

"The wrestling team really looks promising this year. We have a lot of new and returning talent," was this athlete's final comment before beginning his humble repast.

"I can't find my cute little, lucky blue basketball socks. I have to have my blue socks! What will I do!" After I calmed this poor, hysterical girl basketball player down and found her socks for her I inquired as to what the team's prospects were this year.

"We might get new uniforms - oh, you mean talent wise. Well, our returning players have bounced right back into shape and our new players show a lot of promise." I took my leave at this point since our basketball player was already beginning to mumble to herself again about, "Where did I put those nice white ribbons..."

NEW
National Education Week was observed during the last week at the high school. Students and faculty were on their best behavior in case any interested parent dropped in. Students learned the importance of education from lectures given in recognition of the week.

CHORISTERS

The Dallas High School High Choristers will perform tonight (Thursday) for the Kiwanis Club. We know the group will do, as always, an excellent job. They are directed by Mrs. Florence Sherwood.

PATRON DRIVE

Seniors - We need money if our yearbook is to be a success this year. If every senior would collect just seven dollars, we would reach our goal.

SPIRIT CAKE

A pep rally was held last Friday to promote spirit for the Central game. The cheerleaders made a spirit cake with ingredients of football co-captains Dick Morgan and Dave Jenkins, topped with sugar, eggs, and flour. A tasty combination to "egg" us on with spirit.

PILLOW TALK

The seniors will present their annual play, entitled "Pillow Talk," on Thursday and Friday nights, November 21 and 22. Tickets cost just 50 cents, and students are requested to attend the Thursday night performance.

Congratulations to the following who made District Chorus for this year: Beth Sheehan, Brian Beard, Jim Pichert, Chuck LaBerge, and Ernie Gelb.

THANKS

... to Mrs. Bucan for hosting the hockey dinner, and to those citizens who so kindly treated the trick-or-treating seniors who made the rounds on Halloween!

Are YOU coming to the Homecoming?

Chestnuts make comeback

Chestnuts, wiped out by the chestnut blight decades ago, are making a cautious comeback.

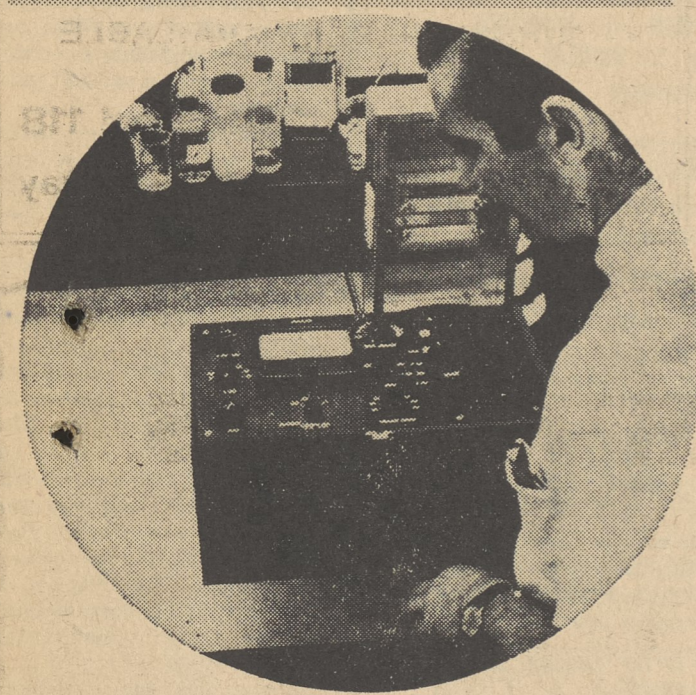

Children used to scuffle through the dried leaves, hurl sticks at the chestnut trees, bring home the polished treasure in gunny sacks, roast them on top of the kitchen stove, or boil them in salted water.

Chestnuts disappeared, almost overnight, and Japanese chestnuts, blight resistant, appeared on the vegetable stands at a heavy markup. Ten years ago, anybody who discovered a real live chestnut brought home in triumph, and displayed it on the mantle, prickly burr and all, as a conversation piece.

Last night a resident of Beaumont was handing around small sacks. "Not very many, yet," she said, but the tree has been bearing for the past three years."

There they were, real chestnuts, plump and glossy.

What does an ultrahmeter have to do with quality drycleaning?

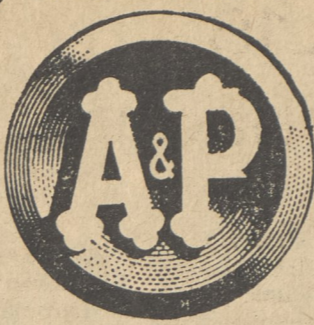

The Santitone ultrahmeter sees that we don't give you a lot of static. Santitone chemists use it to check the antistatic properties of drycleaned fabrics. To make sure our Santitone standards are far above everyone else's. Just another reason why our Santitone drycleaning does more for your clothing.
