Harveys Lake Womens Club initiates 9 members

The Harveys Lake Womens Service Club held their November dinner meeting at the Wahoo Inn, Harveys Lake.

At a candlelight ceremony preceding the dinner, which was served to 68, nine new members were initiated into full membership. Mrs. Joseph Rauch, Mrs. Rowland Ritts and Mrs. Lee Bicking conducted the initiation and pinned each one with a corsage of fall flowers.

Mrs. Howard Jones presided at the business meeting. Devotions and Pledge to the Flag were led by Mrs. Grace Martin. Mrs. C. Wesley Boyle reported plans for the New York trip were completed and reservations were closed.

Nesbitt Auxiliary fair Nov. 20-21

A Holiday Fair will be held at the Nesbitt Hospital Nurses' Home on Nov. 20 and 21 from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Sponsored by the Shavertown Branch of the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Women's Auxiliary, the fair will feature delicatessen foods, jams, baked goods, candies, handmade gifts and novelty items.

Holiday decorations will be on display for the benefit of idea seekers and a snack bar will be open both days.

All branches of the auxiliary are participating in the fair which is open to the public.

Mrs. Allen Sorchik, chairman for the Christmas Cheer baskets, made several announcements. Neighbors over 70 are eligible, and the public is asked to submit names as soon as possible. Members are requested to make home-made cookies and volunteers are needed to pack and deliver these boxes.

Carol Lamoreaux marries Gary M. Smith

The Christian marriage of Miss Carol Ann Lamoreaux daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester T. Lamoreaux of Huntsville Rd., Lehman, to Gary M. Smith, son of Garvin P. Smith and the late Iris Kitchen Smith of Harveys Lake, was solemnized recently in the United Methodist Church of Lehman.

Rev. Fred M. Eister of the Methodist Church of Peckville, assisted by Rev. Winfield Kelly, performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Gilbert Tough was organist, Mrs. Howard Ehret soloist and Timmy Viccica acolyte, nephew of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was attired in a formal length gown of beau de soil, designed with a sabrina neckline, long pointed sleeves. Milenon lace lavishly embroidered with seed pearls trimmed the gown.

Her headpiece was a matching pearl and jewel Camelot attached to a bouffant of pure, silk imported illusion.

The bride carried a white Bible with an arrangement of white cymbidium orchids and baker firm.

A diamond antique bownot pin worn by her mother on her wedding gown; was pinned on the brides' gown by her grandmother Mrs. Morton Connelly.

Mrs. Richard Stine, a sister in law of the groom, was matron of honor. She was attired in a formal length gown of amethyst velvet, designed with elbow shy sleeves, high neckline and A-line skirt.

The back of the gown featured a matching satin panel and bownot, complimented by a matching amethyst velvet and veil petal cloche. She carried an arrangement of emethyst and white flowers forming a cross.

Miss Dona Bidwell was maid of honor, Miss Sharon Williams and Miss Margaret Feist were Bridesmaids. Miss Debbie Lansberry was flower girl, carrying a basket of amethyst flowers. They were all attired in identical gowns.

Richard Stine, brother of the bridegroom, was Bestman. Ushers were William Bachman, John Molski and Gary Whitsell. Todd Cragle was ring bearer.

The bride was feted at a prenuptial shower given by her attendants.

Following the rehearsal, the bridal party and friends were entertained by the bridegroom's father.

A reception and Dinner was held at the Trucksville Educational Building, following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Lehman High School and College Misericordia where she received a bachelor of science degree in home economics. She is teaching in Wyalusing School District.

The Bridegroom is a graduate of Dallas High School and attended Worcester Polytechnic Institute of Massachusetts and Wilkes College. He is employed by the Charmin Paper Products Co., Mehoopany.

Following a wedding trip to Cape Cod and Vermont, the couple will reside at Front St., Wyalusing.
