"News seems to be scarcer tainly all have every thing to than hen's teeth" these days. Guess most every body is Christmas shopping; or out hunting turkeys' for thanksgiving. Most folks seem to be out when I call for news. I am still sticking to the home front, so I wish you would call me if, or when, you might have some newsy ws, or juicy items, that folks would like to hear (or read).

Mrs. Ben (Janet) Kasmark and her sister Mary have returned from New York, after enjoying a bus tour to see "Hello Dolly." The lucky Critters said they had a wonderful time. Mrs. Lucy Morgan, Ransom Road, visited her sister, Ruth Derby, in Wilkes-Barre, from last Friday till Monday. I am glad she was feeling better; having been laid up for quite some time.

Mrs. Myrtle Miller, Hildebrant Road had a "Joyful surprise" as the said, when two cousins, Mrs. Mabel Miller, Berwick, and Mrs. Mildred Carlson, Courtdale, visited her last Sunday

I was happy last Monday (a very rainy day) to have Mrs. Walter presing and her four year old daughter, Delsa, drop in and had a cup of tea with me. The Dresing family are newcomers in the Orange section; attend the Orange Methodist Church, and I am sure they will soon get acquainted with all her neighbors. I certainly enjoyed their visit, especially having been shut in so

The Ella Moore Class of the East Dallas Methodist Church met in the church social hall Tuesday evening, Nov. 19. Jeanette Dickinson, President, presided, after devotions by Helen Siley.

Plans were made to hold a Christmas party in the church, Tuesday evening December 10. The W.S.C.S. members will join with the class; any women of the church or neighborhood are invited. Exchange of gifts and your own place settings are required. This will be a covered dish affair which I am sure all will enjoy.

Those who attended the meeting were: Jeanette Dickinson, Mary Ryman, Margaret Weiss, Alvern Lamoreux, Jessie and Beatrice Moore, Julie Wilson, Myra Orlin, Mary Ann Lilley and Helen Siley. Planned games will be played. I am glad to report that Mabel Wilson is progressing nicely. She was happy to have her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Rozelle, Mt. Zion; and cousins Mr. and Mrs. Harry Welliver visit her one day last week.

The Rozelles celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary in October, and Wellivers will celebrate their 54th anniversary December 24. Mabel was really thrilled to see them.

While I was talking to Mabel her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. March, Williamsport, drove in and had dinner with Giles and Mabel.

Our Day of Thanksgiving is here, with families getting together, to give thanks. We certhank God for. Shepherd and Eleanor Moore; children Bonnie and Tommy; Lanoka Harbor, N.J. will arrive today to spend the holidays with parents Jessis and Tom Moore and Grandma Hislop. Sister Jean Somers, Falls, will also be there to enjoy the day. While here, Shep is looking forward to going bear hunting with his dad.

Christmas is right around the corner too, which calls to mind," a young lad was asked what he wanted to be when he grows up? He said"I always wanted to be a Santa Claus, but found out there ain't any.' Then he was asked if he would want to be President." "Yes," he said, "but my mom won't let me.'

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harvey, Johnson City; Myra Carlin; Margie Moss, Tom Reese, Russel Jacques and I attended the Dymond Hollow Church Roast beef dinner a week ago Saturday evening; and it sure was delicious. We were walking out from my house when my son David and his son Ricky; also my sister Mary Lind drove up from New Jersey. What a surprise they, as well as I got. Almost the first I had been out to amount to anything.

While here David, Mary and son Bob Moore put Plastic all over my two porches which is sure to keep the cold snow and wind out. They returned to Jersey the next evening, boom, Sutton Road, recently Eudora Baird started a happy day for me last Thursday, by stopping in on her way to school. I persuaded her to have a hurried cup of coffee with me, as I had not seen her in ages, it seemed.

Jean Marie Dickinson, daughter of Helen and Tom Dickinson, Ryman Road, really celebrated her birthday (13th) in a big way. She had a pajama party October 31, which started at 7 p.m. and lasted till 10 a.m. Everything imaginable from scrambled eggs to cereal and fruit juice, and of course toast, was put on the table and they were told to go to it.

Helping themselves made them feel more free, and really had an enjoyable time. Guests were: Marcy McCann, Linda Traver, Hazel Jane Ockenhouse, Diane Stredney and sister Susan Dickinson.

Susan Dickinson was also feted with a party on her 6th were played with all her guests take home with them, which they were happy to show their

Ever have a day? I mean when it was your day to have things go wrong without any apparent reason. Simple things you ought to know how to do, and yet----? On a recent Saturday I went to town, bought groceries, got into my car, turned the key, held my foot clear down to the floor - just as I have been instructed — to drain the carbureter. The motor had a slight coughing spell but refused to start. I am a very busy man and can't fool around with a stalled car. So I called the garage, told them I was right there above the grocery store and my motor refused to buzz any more. OK, I'd wait for him to come. He came, got out his booster battery, got ready to attach. But first he got into the car, purned on the starter, and while bang the motor began blowing a lot of air pollutants from the exhaust, and then to purr like a kitten. The man put his booster back into his truck,

I got in and away I went. Just how bright am I, anyhow?

Number two for the day was that my favorite baker of bread wasn't baking any more. I have to have that bread! So I went home to bake a batch of my own. I used to have a name for some new yeast, got out the martin, 675-2952.

kneading board, kettle, pans, shortening, flour etc. etc. etc. I put in a double batch of yeast. I like the taste of yeast strong. And the smell of it. Set it to rise, to double its bulk in an hour and a half. It didn't. But I kept going, put it in the oven, that ought to make it rise. It didn't. Forty five minutes and it didn't! I took it out, dumped it out of the pans.

Nice birdies outside eat most anything. I threw the loaves after breaking them in pieces, out under the feeder. Saw a bluejay working at it. But what really was funny was to see a squirrel hopping off across the low meadow toward the south corridor with a piece of that solid dough wider than his chops sticking out each side. Well somebody will get the

My ego is deflated. I used to be clever — I thought. No more. It wasn't my day. Ever hear of a "traumatic experience"?

I am happy to report that Priscilla and William Perry, Ransom Road, had a baby boy, 7 lb. 8 Oz. at 4:37 this morning, in Nesbitt Hospital. (I am typing this Friday morning, November 22, so when you read this he will be six days old).

The Perrys' now have three daughters and three sons. Congratulations, Priscilla and Bill. Sort of evens up your family. Does it not?
