

High School

by Peggy Futch (with a little help from a friend) HOME COMING FINALLY HERE!

Tomorrow is the big day! The long awaited homecoming celebrations are finally about to begin!

Starting with the motorcade, which will assemble at the Dallas Shopping Center tomorrow morning, and continuing through the Dallas-Lehman football game to the homecoming dance tomorrow night at the high school. Thanksgiving promises to be a memorable day!

We hope the homecoming dance this year will set a precedent for the future years.

Debbie Allen, Anna Marie Acuri, Sally Harter, Patty Hughey, Sue Kozich, Kathy Munnell and Joan Nelson have been selected by their fellow seniors as homecoming queen candidates.

The final vote is being kept secret until Thanksgiving morning.

Everyone at Dal-Hi is looking forward to the coming basketball season. There should be some really exciting games to view this year.

Yearbook committees and editors have begun working together.

ASSEMBLY

November 20—a Thursday. The students filed into the auditorium, weary from the long, exhausting day. But little did they know, or suspect that within minutes they would be utterly shocked from their lethargy, into the vast cruel world of insects.

Talented Mr. Bucky Reeves delivered an interesting, visual-aid speech titled "The Jungle in Your Backyard." Mr. Reeves took colorful close-up pictures of the various insects in his backyard, while at the same time giving a good description. It provided an unforgettable experience for each student.

YEARBOOK PICTURES

A slim figure popped out from behind a wall and "flash"—another candid shot for the yearbook. Mr. Thomas Husband, with talented, young photographer Scott Saffian, have been working like mad for the past few weeks, toting cameras around, running here and there, and taking pictures whenever something unusual happens, (this happens all the time, so actually it's usual).

The yearbook is deeply indebted to Scott, the ingenious photobug.

a history of the Shavertown Fire Co.

Shavertown Fire Company dates back to 1925 when a group of interested citizens, known as the Men's Club, organized Shavertown Chemical Company.

First meeting was held May 1, 1925, with the late Howard Appleton serving as temporary chairman of the fire company.

Elected for a term of one year were the following officers: Jacob Rau, president; Daniel Shaver, vice president; William H. Morgan, secretary; S. J. Woolbert, treasurer; Alfred Ray, financial secretary; Albert Bush, fire chief and Bernard Bush, captain.

Trustees named were Ben Hicks, Father Major, L. T. Schwartz, Hale Garey and C. W. Hoffman.

Committees were also appointed to solicit funds to purchase the apparatus which was mounted on a Winton Six chassis, donated by Bernard Bush. Mounting of the tanks was performed by Platt Brothers, Gene and Frank.

By January, 1930, at a special meeting in form of a smoker, the final note was burned clearing the new company of its indebtedness.

In order to raise funds, Community Day was held once a year with everyone contributing generously to the cause. Raincoats, insurance for colunteers, new tires and other essentials were purchased as a result.

A relief Association was chartered in 1930 by the Court of Luzerne County and Andrew Fisher named president.

George Shaver was his vice president, Scott Van Horn, secretary; Ralph Bertram, treasurer; George Prater, Howard Appleton and Henry Shaver, trustees.

From the proceeds of the 1930-31 Community Day, $1,000 was set aside in a special fund toward the purchase of a new pumper or fire house.

Other early presidents of the Fire Company were H. H. Hill, H. S. Van Campen, L. T. Schwartz, Willard Garey, Andrew Fisher and George Prater. Daniel Shaver, member of the pioneer family for which Shavertown was named served for some time as secretary of the organization which has continued to serve its community until the present day, known now as Shavertown Fire Company.

FERNBROOK

The past week there has been a run on disappearing pets, mostly in Fernbrook.

Three dogs very close by disappeared and no trace of none of them. All three dogs were owned by young children who were very disappointed when waiting for the return of their pets, but so far there is no news.

If they were run over they would be laying some where or if shot by a stray bullet. All we can think of is that they are gone but not forgotten by the kids that owned them.

If people want puppies they can get them at the dog shelter known as the SPCA at Wilkes-Barre.

Maybe they were picked up for Christmas presents for some other children but don't they have a heart for the other people?

This is very disappointing to everyone concerned and I think it is very cruel. This is supposed to be the valley with a heart, but some people spoil everything by being heartless.

One of these dogs was a toy collie, a tan dog answering to the name of Clyde, 1 year old. The other two puppies were younger. They were about 4 months old. Well, here's hoping all dogs are returned very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dana Henninger, Trucksville are the proud parents of a baby boy born Nov. 19, 1968. This is the couples first child.

Miss Nancy Lohman is recuperating at her home after being very ill at the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital at Kingston.

Terry Chevly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Chevly of Shaver Ave. is ill at the General Hospital in Wilkes-Barre.

The store formerly occupied by Sutliffs Furniture Store in Dallas Shopping Center will be the new Fairview Shoe Store. Newly decorated and modernized to serve the people in the Back Mountain. Sutliffs have moved into their new store on Memorial Highway, the largest and most modern furniture store in the Back Mountain Area.

The Luzerne County School District of School Nurse's held a luncheon at the Franklin Tea Room, Shavertown recently. Fifteen School Nurses attended. The next meeting will be held March first.

There were many flag's displayed on Friday Nov. 22 in the Back Mountain Area in memory of one of our most loved presidents, John F. Kennedy.

The play given by the Dallas High School Senior Class of 1968 was "Pillow Talk". The play was largely attended and was held Thursday and Friday evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. John Daugherty of Dallas, former residents of Plymouth, will observe their fifty third wedding anniversary on Monday November 26.

They were married by Rev. Gomer Evan's then Pastor of the Meade Street Baptist Church. Mrs. Daugherty is the former Elinor Williams daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David T. Williams.

The couple has two children, Mrs. Harold J. Turner of Dallas, Pa. and Mrs. Elwood W. Davis of Harveys Lake. They had a son Jack who passed away in 1948.

John Bunney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bunney will be married on Thanksgiving day.

He and his bride to be will occupy an apartment in the old homestead on Fernbrook corners, formerly occupied by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bunney 2nd, and before that his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bunney 1st, who for many years operated a store which is still operated by the younger Bunney family.

Mr. and Mrs. Utter will occupy Macy's apartment after Thanksgiving. They will be married on Thanksgiving day.

Correctional Institution to observe Thanksgiving situation will also participate in conducting the devotional part of the service of thanks.

Rev. Jacobson will speak on the subject "What's Your Battering Average?" Rev. Jacobson is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute and past president of Wyoming Valley Moody Bible Institute Alumnae Association.

Since 1941 he has served as Superintendent of Wayside Mission and the Mission Alcohol Rehabilitation Home. The Mission is dedicated to the helping of the poor and needy in Luzerne County and the rehabilitation of the alcoholic.
