sports show

An outstanding stage and water show will be one of the attractions at the Eastern Sports and Outdoor Show which opens a six-day run at the Farm Show Building, Harrisburg, Pa., at 1:00 p.m. Monday, Feb. 10. The seven acts will feature some of the finest talent to be found in North America according to John Altland, show manager.

Highlighting the stage and water show will be "Skipper," the performing porpoise, in a human-like exhibition of skill; the energetic Magid Triplets in an original singing and acrobatic act; the laugh-provoking antics of Scott's unrideable mule with audience participation; the acrobatic talents of the Bumpy Family who has performed on 75 television shows including Ed Sullivan. Bob Hope and the Hollywood Palace.

Other headliners in the arena show are Rodgers Tropical Bird Fantasy, a unique presentation of the world's most colorful and rare birds; the Ascott Sisters whose routine on both bicycles and two wheeler bikes has won acclaim from audiences and critics alike; Jessie Griffiths, "The Lady of the Keyboards," who as organ soloist will play a "Salute to George Gershwin." Don Dennis returns as the show's Master of Ceremonies.

Mr. Altland pointed out that the Sports Show will have something for everyone. From the latest fishing gear and hunting equipment to travel trailers and boats, from help in selecting camp sites to instruction in archery, the 1969 Eastern Sports and Outdoor Show will present a panorama of all that's new and of interest to outdoor people. The show will be open daily until 10:30 p.m. from Feb. 10 through 15.

Commonwealth appoints to positions at Dallas

FRANK L. MORGAN

DAVID ROOSA

ROBERT SCHNEIDERHAN

Two area men have been promoted to new positions at Commonwealth Telephone Company headquarters at Dallas.

Robert Schneiderhan, 437 Warren Ave., Kingston has been appointed Payroll and Disbursements Supervisor. In his new assignment he will be responsible for the accounting of cash receipts and disbursements along with payroll operations.

Schneiderhan was graduated from Kingston High School and Wyoming Seminary Dean School of Business. Prior to his latest promotion he served with Commonwealth in a number of capacities as District Manager at Towanda and Shickshinny and Commercial and Marketing Development assistant at Dallas.

He and his wife Thelma have two children, Debra Ann and Robert Jr.

David Roosa is a graduate of Union Endicott High School in Endicott, N.Y., and attended Broome Tech.

In his new position as Plant Supervisor, he will be responsible for policies and procedures dealing with Dial administration, plant training and quality control.

Roosa came to Commonwealth in 1963 as a central office switchman after serving with the Bell Telephone Co. at Endicott, N.Y. as a lineman and installer from 1956 to 1960, and as Manager of the Susquehanna County Home at Rush from 1960 to 1963.

He lives with his wife Audrey and two sons Michael and Jerry at 45 Slocum Ave., Tunkhannock.

The new ambulance fully equipped will feature two auxiliary oxygen tanks, communication between driver and attendant, and a new carrier which can be raised to eight positions. Delivery is expected in 90 days. Ambulance committee chairman is Eugene Tilghman.

The purchase of 1000 feet of fire hose was also approved. Meeting was held at Laketon School for the express purpose of acquainting firemen with the floor plan. Chief Dick Williams has instituted a new program which introduces volunteers to the layout of each school, convalescent home and other public buildings in the area so that the most rapid evacuation and fire fighting can be carried out.

Floor plans will be filed in the log book in the fire truck where it will be available instantly upon a call. Members also toured the school.

First in the area, the chief's plan will afford greater efficiency in combatting fires and removing occupants to safety. James McCaffrey presided.
