

LAKE-LEHMAN HIGH SCHOOL

By DONNA POST

Yearbook Campaign

The students are all talking about the 1969 yearbook at Lake-Lehman High School. With "yearbook plugging" announcements being heard via intercom at 8:20 nearly everyday; the photographer getting action shots of activity after school, and captains ordering yearbooks for their respective classroom subscribers; it's only natural that the topic of conversation is the Roundtable.

Some of the seniors will receive their yearbook free of charge because they brought in their quota of yearbook ads and patrons. Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen, and eighth graders are buying the 1969 Roundtable.

Collections of pictures of great events this year will be in the "Memory Album", events like the Juniors getting class rings and the seventh graders electing class officers.

Have you ordered your yearbook? If not, get one! Your picture will be in it!

Dal-Hi Choristers
On Thursday, Jan. 30, students of Lake-Lehman were entertained by a group of talented young people from Dallas High School.

Under the direction of Mrs. Sherwood, the Dal-Hi Choisters presented such entertaining vocal selections as "Gonna Get Along Without You," "Nifty, Fifty United States," "We Are the Youth of America," and one obviously dear to their hearts, "Big D."

The program was part of an exchange assembly arranged by the music departments of both Dallas High School and Lake-Lehman Area Joint Schools.

The Lake-Lehman Senior Chorus, under the direction of Miss Jane Morris, presented their Christmas cantata "The Night the Angels Sang" to the students of Dallas High School in December.

Judging from the students responses, it is most likely that this idea will be carried on in future school years.

Tomorrow is February 14
Since Valentine's Day always comes on Feb. 14, and tomorrow is Feb. 14, then tomorrow is Valentine's Day! (that makes sense!) Valentine's Day means a valentine card, and a valentine card needs a Valentine verse.

So, to wish all of you a happy Valentine's Day, I've written a Valentine poem:

Cupid's antics on his own special day
Have caused so much commotion
That it's often detested
That he isn't arrested
For peddling so strong of a potion! XXX

Add a special valentine wish to the office staff, administration, and faculty who are darlings all year long, and it appears that I have beat cupid at his own game—I was one day earlier than he! (Don't give up, Cupid, I'd hate to get hit with a stray arrow!)

Donkey Basketball
The annual Donkey Basketball game, sponsored by the Lettermen's Club, was held Saturday evening, Feb. 1. Preceding the Donkey game, the girl's basketball team versed the boys' basketball team (the boys wore boxing gloves) in a basketball game.

After a long hard tedious game, the score was tied. Mr. Edwards and Mr. Zaleskas, who were exhausted from the abundance of action in coaching the cagers, walked off the gym floor declaring the referees had won.

The donkeys were then brought into gymnasium, riders assigned a particular mount, rules presented, and finally the game began.

It appeared that the faculty would win by about 15 points all the way into the last 5 minutes of the game, when the speedy Lettermen were able to rack up a number of points to lose by 1 lousey point to the faculty team. Better luck next year, boys!

Report Cards Issued
Since report cards were issued a short time ago, students have now plunged into the second half of the school year. Many of LL's studious were ranked as scholars by obtaining a 3.5 average or higher, in their subjects.

A larger number, but certainly not of lesser merit, were named to the honor roll as well. Congratulations to Honor and Scholar Students at LLHS!
Mr. Davenport Drops In
Mr. Samuel Davenport, ex-faculty member at LLHS, spoke to the student body recently concerning the March of Dimes. Mr. Davenport was very active in the campaign while a teacher at LL, and still offers his abilities throughout our area.

Beaumont

Mrs. Elizabeth Hess, former resident, is enjoying her vacation at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Miss Carol Johnson of North Java, N.Y., and her friend, Miss Debbie Conroy, Java Center, N.Y., made a surprise visit to see Carol's grandmother, Mrs. Earl Johnson, recently.

They also enjoyed visiting Miss Mary Ann Johnson, senior at Mansfield State College, who is doing her student teaching at Canton, Pa.

Cpl. Russell Denmon of the U.S. Marines (home on leave) and his aunt, Mrs. Raymond Denmon, visited the Sherwood Demmons at Port Murray, N.J., Feb. 2.

The Beaumont P.T.A. held its monthly meeting at the school Feb. 10, with Mrs. Robert Condon presiding.

Mrs. Franklin Clark, at this writing, is a surgical patient at the General Hospital.

in Vietnam

CT expects

780 new customers here

Commonwealth Telephone Company, states president J.B. Hibbard, expects a growth of 780 new telephone customers in the Dallas area, bringing the number up to 13,953 in the Back Mountain during the coming year.

For service improvements in the area, $280,000 has been allocated.

Exchanges in the immediate area include Dallas South, Harding, Harveys Lake, Noxen, Sweet Valley and Center Moreland.

The recently completed Sweet Valley exchange provides customers with direct dialing service all over the United States without intervention of an operator. This service is restricted to private or two-party lines. Multiparty line users must still give name and number to the operator.

R. E. Koeb is district manager for this area.
