

German naval officer visits old classmate at Trucksville

A commanding officer of the German Naval Forces paid a visit to this area over the weekend, coming from his job in Maine to spend the holidays with an old classmate, Mrs. Frank Mathers III and her family, Trucksville.

Commandant Hellmut Friedhofen, in charge of the German Naval Forces in America, is Director of Supervision for the construction of four missile nuclear powered destroyers for the German Navy as part of the NATO set up.

He has been in this country for three years and is stationed at Brunswick, Me., where the nuclear vessels are being built. One has progressed to the point where it is now at Boston Naval yard where it is being outfitted with 337 German sailors here to man the ship.

The $200,000,000 project has been given to this country as part of repayment for money spent in Germany by American servicemen and also since under a division of the country no nuclear building is allowed.

Commandant Friedhofen read about his former friend, con-a former classmate of Mrs. Mathers. Both attended high school together and the University of Bonn.

Mrs. Mathers taught German at Dallas High School several years and as a project during this time had her students construct a replica of her home town. This story was carried in her native town paper and Commandant Friedhofen read about his former friend, contacting her some months ago.

He and his wife and seven year old daughter took advantage of the long holiday to travel to the Back Mountain.

During the construction period the Commandant has traveled to various parts of the country where parts are being made. With the project to be completed next year he will return to his base at Kiel, Germany.

Dallas man judged best performer

Last week in the Dallas Post, a picture of a local contestant in the finals of the Dallas Kiwanis Music Festival appeared, on the front page. From the score which he was holding, his admirers assumed that he would present a number from Show Boat.

Instead, he sang "Maria" and "Tonight" from Leonard Bernstein's "West Side Story." John C. Wise of 29 Monroe, Avenue, Dallas, a Mathematics teacher at G.A.R. was judged the Best Performer in the Popular class in the College and Open section of the Finals of the Kiwanis Music Festival at Irem Temple Auditorium Saturday evening.

Among the winners of the Individual sub-section categories were a Brass Quartet from Dallas Junior High and the "Dal-Hi Chorus" from Dallas Senior High.

The Brass quartet consisted of Michael Davis, Robert Carle, Alan Zaboski and Jay Miller.

Lake-Lehman band members early last Friday morning boarded four buses to travel to Washington where they will participate in the Cherry Blossom Festival.

The "Dal-Hi Chorus" under the direction of Mrs. Florence Sherwood gave an inspired and well staged patriotic medley consisting of "We are the Youth of the Nation" and "50-Nifty United States."

The Kiwanis Club of Dallas wished to thank friends and neighbors who contributed to the success of the Festival. All proceeds are used in the Youth Work of the club.

way of preventing this decline into the world of extremes. Teach it in the classroom. Discuss it. Instead of hiding it from the kids, bring it out into the open. Let them see the experiences through intelligent eyes. Don't knock their heroes—analyze them. Don't teach them that sex is dirty. Don't hide it from them. They'll only search that much harder to find the answers to their questions. If they're going to read dirty books, and they're going to, let them read the ones that are significant. CHE is not a significant play. HAIR is a significant play. There's a significant difference.

I do agree, Mr. Schilling that our forefathers must have done something right. I hope I did not imply otherwise in my article. But this does not mean that they have done everything right, and it does not mean that I can't comment on things they may have done, or be doing wrong. Can I not add my opinion to them?

Today's generation may be making some mistakes too. But I also think that they must be doing something right. They will learn from the experience. But they've got to have the experience.

May I congratulate, you Mr. Schilling, on your article. I enjoyed it very much. I have a feeling that you're pretty much with it. You're a nice man, Mr. Schilling. Say, have you thought about running for school director?

Well, it's time for the defense to rest. Peace.
