MOUNT ZION

A birthday surprise party—and it really was a surprise—for Mrs. Kenneth Conklin was held Sunday June 15 at the home of her daughter Mrs. Gerald Shaffer. What made it a more difficult thing to keep it a surprise was the fact of so many wide awake children, the Thomas and Shaffers families, to keep it all mum from Mom!

The party was planned and carried out by the three Mt. Zion daughters, Peggy Thomas, Marie Shaffer and Carol Conklin.

The 44 guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Conklin and children Terry, Barry, Bruce, Kathy Evans and Dixie Readler all from Wapwallopen; Burrell Brace, Falls; Mrs. William Carey, Orange; Mr. and Mrs. York Swartwood, Harding; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Conklin and children Debra, Curt, Gary and Todd, White House Station, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Conklin with children Kenny, Tim, Brad, Mark, Cindy, Somerville N.J.; and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Conklin with children Leslie and Kathy, Hopewell, N.J.

Locally were Mr. and Mrs. Clair Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Thomas with children Karen, Ronnie, Jim, Gwen, Holly and Krista, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shaffer with children Dawn, Linda, Billy and Rod.

And first and foremost was the guest of Honor Mrs. Kenneth Conklin!

Glenn Conklin phoned from Pittsburgh and could not be present.

One of the children remarked, it was birthday, Mother's Day, Father's Day and Children's Day all in one!

I have been reminded of my April birthday by the new blossoming of the double white fuchsia which Cathy brought home to me from Hill the Florist April 22. The flowers got through blossoming and then after a brief rest they began again, lovely, and lovely!

We who sometimes sing special numbers in the Mt. Zion choir are often rewarded in an old fashioned Methodist way. When a choir number pleases "Grandpa" Earl he has been known to say a reverent and fervent "Amen." How my own heart leaped with joy last Sunday when we heard that Amen after Catherine and I had finished doing the special number by ourselves. We weren't sure how it would go, (I mean I wasn't sure!) but when I caught that familiar Amen I knew that it couldn't be too bad! Thank you, friend Tom!

It was a big day for Catherine and me, to say nothing about those more closely involved! We went to Binghamton Friday to take part in the wedding rehearsal of my brother's granddaughter Catherine Lois whose wedding I, her great-uncle, was to participate in. The wedding took place in the Fairview United Methodist Church Saturday morning at 11 a.m. The pastor of the church, the Rev. Wilton Dubrick and I did the ceremony jointly and both of us laid our hands on those of the couple as we both pronounced them man and wife.

Know something? I didn't have to tell anybody how to kiss the bride! My friend Dubrick took care of all the details and instructions. And they all did well and looked their prettiest.

I got to see my brother, and his son and wife who came down from Rochester whom I haven't seen in years. And Catherine and I got home Saturday afternoon, not in the least tired out from the excitement or the trip.

Down in Philadelphia on the same day as our great niece's wedding our very likeable friend Gene LaBar was getting married to Diane Lynn Barger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Miller Jr. I wrote Gene my regrets that I could not attend his wedding on account of this one of the family that I was already booked to attend. I did extend to him our congratulations and best wishes.

Our Roy J. Thomas attended but I have not been in touch with him since he got home. When we heard of the sudden death of Miss Della Rozelle last week we went to the funeral home over in Shavertown. Few people ever realized what a beautiful woman Della Rozelle must have been. For in her casket age and sickness no longer left their marks. At the same time her appearance in death lacked the essential thing of life, that is, the lively mental alertness and interest which characterized Della to all who had occasion to visit with her. Although without telephone or newspaper Della was very much aware of the world around her. The last time Catherine visited with her was the day she and I took one of the Easter lilies to her as to a shut-in. With expressions of gratitude she nevertheless declined to accept the flower, but said for us to take it to someone who was sick. As Dickie Holmes was too sick to take part in the Easter Sunday music, much to his own regret, Della said right away for us to take the lily to Dickie for she said Dickie was a nice boy and often did errands for her.

Catherine told Della about the new addition we had on the back of the house which included a new porch. She was much interested and was glad to hear about it. She remarked how pleasant it was for one to step out the back door and look at that pond.

For Della Rozelle's father had built this house we now live in. Ezra Rozelle, a younger brother of Della's, told us when we first moved up here that he was born in this house. Della told that her folks had raised nine children in this house. I was sure the nine were not all growing up here at the same time for that part of the house was a fraction of the present size.

Della Rozelle lacked three years of being ninety but her mind was far from feeble, and her eye was bright and her perceptions clear. And her purpose to continue life as she was now living it was firm. Her mind was made up. And the Lord of life took care of her departure.

Brownie Troop 657 of Shavertown recently held a mother and daughter tea to honor their mothers in the social rooms of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

After welcoming their guests, each girl presented her mother with a pink carnation. Tables were decorated with bowls of flowers and candles.

Plans were discussed and made for the overnight camping trip to Camp Wildwood June 30.

Mrs. C. Glenn Lewis is troop leader assisted by Mrs. John Schray and Mrs. Fred Beach. Mrs. Harry Bernardi is troop committee chairman working with Mrs. Raymond Kopetchny and Mrs. Roy Stair.

JACKSON TWP.

I begin the column this week with an apology to Mark Ivan, for I neglected to name him as one of the boys who recently joined the local Scout troop.

Belated birthday greetings go this week to Jane Yankowski, who was 10 years old the 17th, also to her brother John, who was 15 the 18th. John spent his birthday in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, where he was recovering after surgery.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bigoski on the birth of a daughter at Nesbitt Hospital June 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zbick and daughter Rosemary spent the past weekend in Waterbury, Conn., with Mr. Zbick's sister, to attend the wedding of his nephew, James Laniewski June 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Emerick drove to Endicott, N.Y., Sunday, June 15 to attend a graduation Mass and a party for their niece, Carol Dane.

Laurie Kittle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kittle was admitted as a medical patient at Nesbitt Hospital Monday the 16th.

At the July 9th meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Fire Co., a representative will be present from the Frankford Umbrella Company to show styles of umbrellas, with the possibility of the organization selling them.

Birthday greetings this week go to Janet Fielding on the 30th to Donald Myers July 1, to Albert Ashton Jr., and Tracy Cigarski the 4th.

FERNBROOK

Sorry I didn't write the Fernbrook news for the past week, but I have been ill. Well school is out now. I want to wish everyone an enjoyable safe summer.

Allan Lahr of Overbook Road and his Cousin Donna Campbell spent a weekend in Philadelphia recently.

Mrs. Grant Alt, Main Road, Fernbrook, has returned home from the Mercy Hospital.

Mrs. Bertha Gallagher had 10 stitches to close a cut on her leg.

Bob Beckum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beckum, has returned home for summer vacation. He is a student at Har- graves Military Academy at Chatham, Va.

The 1939 graduation class of Dallas Township will hold their 30th class reunion at the Brothers 4, Saturday, July 5, 7:30 p.m. Call Ed. Lumley 675-3595 for reservations on or before July 1. It will be a smorgasbord, the price per couple is $6.00.

Butch Evans, Main Road, Fernbrook, had to have a tetanus shot for a cut on his foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Rick Ash and family have moved into the trailer at the rear of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Noon's property in Fernbrook.

Mrs. Jean Bliss has returned home after attending the funeral of her brother-in-law in Buffalo, N.Y.

Mrs. Blanche Crispbell of Demunds Road, is spending some time with her niece Mrs. Lucy Jones at Noxen.

Mrs. Leona Bellas of Main Road, Fernbrook, is spending a few days with her niece, Mrs.

Beatrice Wilder of New Milford, Pa.

Robert Williams stepped on a nail which went right through his sneaker and caused him considerable pain. He had to hop around on one foot for two or three weeks.

Gerry Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller of Memorial Highway, is a surgical patient at the Shriner's Hospital, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller of Kingston, have a new baby girl. They are naming the newcomer Lola. Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller of Main Road. This is their first grandchild.

Mr. Ray Bloom of Main Road, was a victim of a freak accident Thursday afternoon.

While cleaning out the trunk of his car the top of the trunk wouldn't stay up without being held. He got in the trunk, he thought, for a minute, but it was a lot longer than that.

The trunk lid fell down on him and locked and he couldn't get out. He was almost done for when Bill Rineman happened to hear the pounding and heard Mr. Bloom crying for help. Bill had an awful time getting the trunk opened. Mrs. Bloom was sleeping upstairs and didn't know any of this until Bill pounded on her door, got her up and she unlocked the trunk.

By this time Mr. Bloom was out cold and the ambulance had to be called. He was taken to the Nesbitt Hospital where he is in intensive care. I sure hope Mr. Bloom is feeling better by the time everyone reads this column.
