

Purely Personal

Mrs. John Doane, RD 4, Dallas, will leave the area next Wednesday to make her home with a brother in Florida. Mrs. Doane is the widow of the late Dr. John Doane who was medical chief at Veterans Hospital. In September a building will be dedicated in his name in Mansfield where he is remembered gratefully by the patients of his general practice. Mrs. Doane is a former dean of women of Wilkes College.

Richard Disque, Memorial Highway, Dallas, is recovering slowly from injuries sustained some months ago. His right shoulder and arm, which were practically useless since the accident, are less painful and are now usable again though still showing a degree of loss of power.

Catherine Gilbert, Mount Zion, spent Sunday in Philadelphia visiting friends and sightseeing.

John M. Losh, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Losh of RD 2, Dallas, has been named to the dean's list at Williamsport Area Community College. A 1968 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, Mr. Losh is studying aircraft design.

Jimmy Edwards, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards of Harris Hill, has returned to his home following a month's stay in the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. A first grade student at Dallas Elementary School, Jimmy is appreciative of the many cards and kindnesses he received while a patient in the hospital.

Margaret Girvan beat the Dallas Post back to her apartment in Kingston, arriving a little in advance of the personal item which said she was still in Oregon.

Eva Sue Szela, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Szela of Harris Hill Road, Trucksville, is a recent graduate of Rhode Island School of Design. Miss Szela was in the class of 1964 at Dallas Senior High School.

Mr. and Mrs. William Perrego of Orange entertained Saturday evening at a barbecue for Elliot Edwards and Jan Harding of Tunkhannock and Adam and Grace Matalevy of Lake Winola.

The Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost left on Monday by plane for the Pacific Coast where he will spend a month on vacation.

Hap Hazard still appears sporadically in the Back Mountain, dropping by with a box of strawberries and reminiscing about his old friend Elbert Hubbard.

Edward Fielding of Huntsville is setting sail this afternoon on the new Queen Elizabeth with a group of people whom he will guide through England for 10 weeks, returning early in September. Plans include a week in London upon arrival. Next summer he plans a shorter trip, again as leader of a group, by air instead of by sea.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Wagner had as weekend guests at their home on Ferguson Avenue, Shavertown, Mrs. Wagner's son, Alan Smith, and his wife and daughter Jill of Cambridge, Mass. Also present were Mrs. Wagner's brother, James Sugden, from Mountain Top and grand-daughter Daphne. Mr. Smith is executive producer of Encyclopedia Americana.

The condition of Herbert Downes, who was injured last week when thrown from his horse, is reported greatly improved. He is a patient at General Hospital.

Cynthia Townend weds teacher

The wedding of Miss Cynthia Barring Townend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Townend of Dallas, to Gordon A. Donaldson Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Donaldson of Lincoln, Mass., took place recently in the First Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Jule Ayers, pastor. Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of off white organdy with a built-in train. The standaway cowl neckline and high rise waistline featured a wide band trim of val lace encrusted with baroque pearls. Her headpiece was a Brussels lace mantilla worn by other brides in the family. She carried a cascade bouquet of daisies and pine.

Mrs. Peirce A. Hammond III, of Philadelphia was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles B. Yinkey of Silver Spring, Md., and Miss Elizabeth Donaldson and Miss Lydia Donaldson of Lincoln, Mass., sisters of the bridegroom. Magruder Craighead Donaldson of Lincoln, Mass., served his brother as best man. Ushers were Jonathan Donaldson of Lincoln, Mass., also a brother of the bridegroom, Stephen Townend of Dallas, brother of the bride, Daniel Cheever and Peter Rosenbaum of Philadelphia.

Bridal attendants were attired in yellow sleeveless, floor-length gowns of yellow cotton ottoman featuring stand-up collars and empire waistlines. Their headpieces were yellow ribbons in their hair and they carried bouquets of daisies and pine. The bride's mother was attired in an aqua print dress with which she wore a gardenia corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a beige linen dress with a green orchid corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Mae Townend of "Twin Spruce," Dallas. The couple will reside in Philadelphia for the summer, moving to Cambridge, Mass., in the fall.

The bride is a graduate of Wyoming Seminary, Wellesley College and the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Education. She is a counselor in the Pennsylvania Advancement School of the Philadelphia City School System.

The bridegroom was graduated from the Lincoln-Sudbury Regional High School, Harvard College and currently is enrolled in a master of arts in teaching program at Harvard Graduate School of Education. He is teaching at the Vaux Junior High School in Philadelphia.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Lehman Fire Company will serve a chicken barbecue dinner July 4 from 12 p.m. to 3 p.m. at the Lehman Horse Show grounds.

Mrs. J. Cook, Mrs. M. Marr, and Mrs. M. Dubil are dinner chairmen.

The charge is $2.00 for adults, and $1.50 for children. Reservations are not needed. Persons wishing to help out at either the dinner or the Auxiliary's booth are urged to contact any member of the Ladies Auxiliary.

advertisers sought

An excellent advertising opportunity is going to be made available to the businessmen of this community and all surrounding areas.

July 8 and July 22, enthusiastic members of the Tunkhannock Junior Women's Club will be entering places of business soliciting advertisements to be placed in the playbill of the club's musical variety show, "Anything Goes."

The show will be held at the Tunkhannock High School Auditorium Sept. 26-27. To insure a professional performance and a large turnout of people, the club has contracted a New York City firm, Cargill Productions, Inc., to lend production assistance.

Proceeds from the show will be given to various charitable causes and organizations within Wyoming County. In the past this club has donated funds and assistance to the Wyoming County United Fund, the Red Cross, the Fresh Air Program, the Tyler Memorial Hospital, the Community Improvement, the Library and Ambulance Associations. Surely then, all advertising pledges will not only stimulate business for the contributor but will aid needy groups within the community.

The enthusiasm over "Anything Goes" is mounting steadily. The local merchants are encouraged to join in the spirit of things. In return for their participation, businessmen can expect fun and profit for themselves and for the community.

MRS. DAVID S. WOJCIECHOWSKI

married in St. Therese's

St. Therese's Church in Shavertown was the setting recently for the marriage of Miss Diane Marie Hodgson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hodgson of Trucksville, to Mr. David S. Wojciechowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wojciechowski, Nanticoke.

The Rev. Paul J. Flynn performed the double-ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Mrs. Paul Gabel was organist and members of St. Therese's Choir sang the Mass. Violinists were Miss Deborah Kopicki and Miss Pamela Kay-trosch and cellist was Keverne Kaytrosch.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a Bianchi gown of white imported silk organza over a silk slip designed with an Edwardian neckline of Swiss appliques embellished with clusters of seed pearls. The gown was fashioned with elbow shy sleeves with lace applique, Empire bodice also applied with Swiss embroidery, a waist-line sash of matching silk and a slight A-line skirt with aisle-width, chapel-length train. Her veil was an heirloom mantilla of white silk organza and embroidered Swiss lace appliques and finished with a miniature tailored bow. She carried a nosegay of stephanitis, elegance carnation, and baby's breath.

Mrs. Carl Criddle of Nineveh, N.Y., former classmate of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Roberta

Mrs. Alva Eggleston of Orchard Hill Farm in Vernon, entertained Friday evening at a garden party in honor of Mary Dean Lee of Philadelphia. The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lee of Pensacola, Fla., Miss Lee will be married Aug. 9 to Mrs. Eggleston's nephew, James Oliver Jr. Mr. Oliver, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver Sr. of Lake Street, Dallas, resides in Glenside, Pa.

Thirty guests attended the party. Mrs. James Oliver Sr., Mrs. Richard Hislop and Mrs. Robert Eggleston were table hostesses.

The wedding will be solemnized in Pensacola, Fla.

green and yellow flower patterned lace. Her headpiece was a large leg-horn hat with moss green velvet trim. She carried a nosegay of zarina roses, yellow daisies and baby's breath. The bridesmaids and flower girl were attired identically to the matron of honor.

Mother of the bride wore a pale gold silk desire dress enhanced at the neckline and hem of the dress with Chantilly lace. Her headpiece was a pale gold bow of Maline illusion and her corsage was of yellow carnations and zarina roses.

Recently admitted to Nanticoke State Hospital, the bridegroom's mother was unable to attend the wedding.

A reception followed at Fox Hill Country Club, West Pittston. Following the reception the couple left on a trip to Canada.

Mrs. Wojciechowski is a graduate of St. Ann's Academy and Marywood College where she received a bachelor of music degree in music education. She is employed as a teacher of string instruments by Wyoming Valley West School District.

Mr. Wojciechowski, a graduate of Nanticoke High School, served three years with the U.S. Navy, including a tour of duty in Vietnam. He attended Wilkes College and is now attending King's College evening classes. He is employed by the Charmin Paper Products Company, Mehoopany.

LEGEND OF THE RUBY - BIRTHSTONE FOR JULY

The Ruby is "The Sun's Own Gem" and ranked among the world's most precious. Treasured by the royalty of many nations since the dawn of history, it is the king of colored stones. As a birthstone, the Ruby symbolizes freedom, charity, divine power.

There's Old Magic in a Birthstone Gift for all civilizations have been filled with awe at their mysteries. The astrologers of Ancient Egypt held that each day of the month had its own sacred stone. Moses ordered the breastplate of the High Priest to be inlaid with twelve stones - one for each of the tribes of Israel. To capture their imagination, wish them Happy Birthday with rubies.
