Dallas man King's College dean

Rev. Lane D. Kilburn, CSC, president of King's College, has announced the appointment of Dr. Rudolf J. Schleich of 91 Oak Drive, Dallas, as academic dean of the college. A native of Dingolfing, Germany, Dr. Schleich has been a member of the king's faculty for eleven years. He holds the rank of associate professor of history and served as chairman of the history department last year. Dr. Schleich received the BS degree in history from Canisius College; the master's degree from the University of Buffalo; and the doctor of philosophy degree from Fordham University.

In 1954-1955, Dr. Schleich studied on a Fulbright Grant at the University of Vienna and did research at the Austrian state archives and Munich archives. He held a New York State War Service Scholarship in 1950, which was used towards his graduate education. In 1951-1952, he taught at the University of Buffalo on a graduate assistantship, and taught part-time at the Fordham School of Education in 1953-1954. The new academic dean had two years of army service, including 1 1/2 years in Italy and was a staff sergeant at the time of separation from service.

He is a member of the American Historical Association; Phi Alpha Theta, national history honor society; and former president of the King's Gamma Sigma chapter of Delta Epsilon Sigma.

Dr. Schleich succeeds Dr. Richard M. Loomis as academic dean, effective Sept. 1. Dr. Loomis, dean the past three years, returns to the college English department.

Dr. Schleich is a former resident of the Buffalo, N.Y. area and is married to the former Johanna Gradi of that city. They have five daughters, Lisa, 14, and Katherine, 13, students at Central Catholic, Kingston; Kristin, 9, Lauren, 6, and Maria, 3. The Schleich family belong to Gate of Heaven Parish, Dallas.

starts Aug. 1

Pennsylvania's dog training season opened Aug. 1. Dogs may be trained from sunrise to 10 p.m. EDST through Oct. 25, and from sunrise to 9 p.m. EST from Oct. 26 through March 31. Raccoon dogs may be trained until 1 a.m. EDST through Oct. 25, and until midnight EST from Oct. 26 through March 31. To train dogs legally Sunday the consent of the owner of the land where such training is done must first be secured except in the case of state and national forest lands.

An intensive program is underway at St. Therese's Church for renovations and improvements. Expenditures will run into several thousand dollars and include quite a change in the interior of the church, painting of windows, repairs to steps, sidewalks and doors. If there is sufficient response carpeting will be placed in the aisles. Members have been asked to contribute a days wages Sunday and many have already given generously. There is nothing so rewarding as to enter one's church and witness what has been done for the glory of His kingdom. I was deeply pleased to read of the new Ecumenical Enterprises to provide help for the needy and the aged. These are the steps that must be taken in this day of great consciousness of others. If we are to survive as a nation material learnings must give way to deeper understanding of the real problems and an awareness that God's Church is a haven for all peoples. It would seem also that the younger pastors and priests coming out of their seminaries are better qualified to cope and assist with family problems and they stand willing and able. This is all to the good and should result in a greater response to the church. Christianity must not remain an empty word but one rich in its full context.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Voelker left for Mystic, Conn., Monday with their family. When they discovered the interesting vacation area where many artists also display their handiwork, it became an annual rendezvous. Hope the weather continues nice as it was Sunday. Pastor William Bispels and family will leave again on vacation from Aug. 9 to 22. Supply Pastors will be the Rev. William Fryer, Mt. Top and the Rev. Philip Cummings, Passaic, N.J., the Rev. Leon Phillips, Wilkes-Barre will handle pastoral needs. Mrs. Doris Sorenson and children have returned to Jaynesville, Wis., after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Olenick. Brother Jim and his wife came in from Connecticut during her stay and she journeyed to Old Orchard Beach, Me., with her parents to see sister Patti Eckert and her husband. The folks were much surprised to see how great the damage was in the recreational area of Old Orchard Beach due to a disastrous fire recently. This popular resort is especially filled by tourists during the nicer months. Also guests of the Olenicks during Doris' stay were Andrew Olenick and his sister, Mrs. Joseph Pazer, both of Detroit. daughter christened Little Wendy Darbey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Darby was christened at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Sunday. She has an older sister, Cindy, who is 4. It is remarkable that at her age, Olive Titus is making such a good recovery from that broken hip. It is good to be home she reports because brother Russell Lahr has a lovely garden for her to enjoy. Tommy Andrew remains a patient at the Veterans Hospital and would appreciate hearing from his friends. express thanks Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGee wish to thank all those folks who remembered him with cards and thoughtfulness during his recent hospitalization. Keep them coming.

It seems almost impossible that Catherine Silverman has left us. Just a few short weeks ago she was assisting at the Trucksville Firemen's Fair. As we drove home she jokingly said how many times I had missed her hospitalizations and she was going to inform me the next time she was admitted. Now she is taken suddenly and without warning. The Firemen's Associations and the Library Auction were of tremendous interest to her and she lent her talents willingly. Our utmost sympathy goes out to her husband and members of her family.
