

couple observe 30th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Chester T. Lamoreaux, Lehman, celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary Aug. 15. Mrs. Lamoreaux is the former Lillie Connelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamoreaux have returned from a trip to Atlantic City, Cape May Point and Toms River, N.J., where they visited relatives.

There is one daughter, Mrs. Gary Smith, a teacher in Wyaling.

Mrs. Lamoreaux is employed at Natona Mills. Mr. Lamoreaux is a cardiogram technician at Veterans Administration Hospital.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Julia Kunkle wishes to thank friends and neighbors for their kindness during the recent bereavement.

*Jacqueline Fowler
takes post in Italy*

Mrs. Samuel Fowler, the former Jacqueline Kingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kingston, 3 Tarleton Ave., Dallas, has recently been elected vice president of the Aviano Air Force Base chapter of Protestant Women of the Chapel in Aviano, Italy. She will hold the office through April 1970.

PWOC is an interdenominational organization, one of three protestant groups which are part of the Chapel activity provided on military bases. The purpose of PWOC is to lead women in Christian growth, witness, and service, and to unite them in fellowship with each other and all church women world-wide.

Included in the duties of the vice president are the planning and organizing of all chapter programs.

JACQUELINE FOWLER

T.Sgt. and Mrs. Fowler are presently stationed at Aviano AFB. They are the parents of four children, Sammy, 11; Jackie, 9; Pam, 7, and Ann, 5. In addition to her work with PWOC, Mrs. Fowler is serving as a kindergarten teacher for the Chapel religious education program.

Seminary is 125 years old

Wyoming Seminary, one of America's first coeducational college preparatory schools, will celebrate its 125th anniversary during the academic year 1969-70, including the launching of a comprehensive decade development program, the school announced this week.

A committee of eleven trustees headed by John N. Conyngham III, Trucksville, will provide leadership for the year-long observance. A. Harden Coon, Huntsville, is also serving on the trustee committee.

There are 347 seminary alumni currently residing in the Back Mountain area.

Gail Rumbaugh plans Fall wedding

Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Rumbaugh, Dallas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gail Louise, to John D. O'Brien son of Representative Bernard O'Brien of Wilkes-Barre and the late Mrs. O'Brien.

Miss Rumbaugh is a graduate of Dallas Senior High School and Elmira College, where she received a B.A. in psychology. She is presently a resident director at the Children's Service Center in Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. O'Brien is a graduate of St. Mary's High School and King's College, receiving a B.S. in history and government. He also attended Niagara University where he studied for his master's. He is employed as a training supervisor and management recruiter at Morrision of Borg-Warner, Ithaca, N.Y.

The wedding will take place, Saturday, Oct. 11, in the Holy Saviour Church, Wilkes-Barre.

*many from area
at Grand Assembly*

Over 50 girls and women from the Back Mountain area attended the 27th Grand Assembly sessions of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls at Pennsylvania State University last week. Several also attended courses at the university under the Rainbow program.

Among those present for the entire week were Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Smith and daughter Donna, West Dallas; Doris R. Mallin, Pinecrest Ave., Dallas; Mrs. Harvey Kitchen, Idetown; Mr. and Mrs. Faye Hopkins, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. James Nixon and daughters, Patricia and Ruth, Trucksville; Mrs. Daniel Meeker, and Madeline Kunkle and Mrs. Labarre, Kunkle.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were cochairmen of housing and registration for the Grand Assembly. Mrs. Mallin and Mrs. Kitchen served as staff assistants in the registration office for the session week.

Donna Smith, a past worthy advisor of Charles James Memorial Assembly No. 144 and Past Grand Hope of the state of Pennsylvania was chairman of the Grand Officers Banquet which was held Wednesday evening at the Nittany Lion Inn.

At the Friday afternoon session, Miss Smith and Patricia Nixon, Grand Worthy Advisor of the state of Pennsylvania, received their majority certificates from Jean Wilson, East Dallas, mother advisor of the Dallas Assembly. They also received their majority pins from Grace Burns, director of the majority service.

Mrs. Faye Hopkins was general chairman of the 1969 Grand Assembly.

Mrs. Meeker served as course chairman and Mrs. LaBarre was her assistant. About 396 girls from Pennsylvania took courses at the university under the Rainbow program which was directed by Dr. Harold O'Brien.

*Mrs. Wilson

Mrs. William Wilson, long-time resident of Franklin Street, Dallas, observed her 88th birthday quietly Monday, Aug. 18.

She shares a home with her daughter, Gertrude Wilson, and a great-grandson John Souder. She is the former Eleanor Walter, daughter of the late John and Keturah Baird Walter.

Before moving to Dallas many years ago, she lived in Laketon.

Among the callers who came to wish her happiness Monday, and bring her gifts and flowers, were Barbara White of Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Walter Kytte of Outlet with her daughter Glendoris Shelanski; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Warhola; and a cousin, Emma Ellsworth of Kingston.

MRS. JAMES E. FAERBER

Dallas couple wed Aug. 13

The marriage of Sally Ann Moyer to James Everett Faerber took place in Our Lady of Victory Chapel, Harveys Lake, Aug. 13, 1969, at 7 p.m.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Sheehan.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer B. Moyer of Split Rail Lane, Dallas.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a short white chiffon gown with imported lace bodice. Her headpiece was a shoulder length chiffon mantilla trimmed with matching lace.

Glenda Williams Davies was matron of honor and Lynn Sheehan Sr., was best man. Usher was Leighton Scott of Easton and London, England.

The bride is a graduate of Dallas Area High School and East Stroudsburg State College. She is a physical education instructor at Dallas High School.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave A. Faerber of Haddonfield Hills, Dallas. He is a graduate of Loyola Academy, Wilmette, Ill., and has served four years with the U.S. Coast Guard. This fall he will continue his education at Kings College.

*Shirley Wyrsh
weds R. W Stout*

A wedding of local interest was performed in the Boulevard United Methodist Church, Binghamton, recently when Shirley Jean Wyrsh became the bride of Richard Wayne Stout.

The Rev. Thomas Swales assisted by the Rev. Smith Van Auken performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Wyrsh, 10 Lawton Ave., Binghamton, former local residents. Her mother is the former Ruth May Hazel who was a teacher in the Dallas Township School.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Stout and is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Carey of Orosi, Calif.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza and chintilly lace featuring a scalloped sabbina neckline, short sleeves and an empire waistline trimmed with seed pearls. Appliques of lace and pearls accented the A-line skirt that extended into a detachable Wateau chapel-length train.

Her illusion veil was held by a chintilly lace headpiece trimmed with pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. David Kale. She wore a floor length gown of peppermint green chiffon fashioned with Venice lace accents on the high neckline and front panel extending to the hemline. A petal cluster held her matching illusion veil, and she carried an Empire topiary of mint green pompons intermingled with ivy.

Bridesmaids, attired in gowns of pink, avocado, orchid, blue and tabita styled like that of the honor attendant, were Mrs. Thad Ayer, Mrs. Charles Francisco, Sandra Splitt, cousin of the bride, Caroly Kotson, and Mary Ann Bond.

Lance Chapman served as best man. Ushers were Lawrence Caldwell, Charles Francisco, Richard Van Lene, Leonard Schneider, and Thad Ayer.

The dinner reception for 214 guests was held in the Colonial Ballroom of the Binghamton Masonic Temple.

The bride was graduated from Central High School and State University College at New Paltz. She is employed as a teacher by the Johnson City school system.

Mr. Stout was graduated from Orosi High School and College of the Sequoias. He attended the University of California where he was a member of the Triangle National Engineering Fraternity. He served with the U.S. Navy in Vietnam and is employed by the Link Group of Singer-General Precision.

Upon returning from a trip to Bermuda, the couple will live in Kirkwood.

Local residents attending the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. O.L. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Splitt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Cease, the Rev. Allan Cease, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elston, Mr. and Mrs. David Elston, Mr. and Mrs. George Schimmel, Eric Schimmel, Robert Elston, Carol Reimiller, Dale Elston, Paul Elston, Sandra Splitt, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elston.
